

McGILL UNIVERSITY, MONTREAL.

Faculty of Medicine.

M.D., C.M., FINAL EXAMINATION.

SESSION 1872-73.

SATURDAY, MARCH 22nd, 1873 ;— 4½ to 6 p.m.

MEDICAL JURISPRUDENCE.

Examiner..... PROF. GEORGE E. FENWICK, M.D.

1. In blows inflicted on the head, what symptoms would induce you to regard the injury as trivial, or serious, or one which would involve the life of the person injured?
2. Mention the various causes of "Impotence" as applied to the male, physical and mental?
3. What do you understand by the terms "Monorchide" and "Crypsorchide," are these conditions accompanied by sterility?
4. A dead body is found with a wound of the throat. What circumstances would induce you to regard it as a case of murder or suicide?
5. What is a poison? How do poisons produce their fatal effects, on what tissues do they act?
6. Mention the causes which modify the action of poisons.

AL.

Edinburgh,

it forms of
and the best

Scirrhus of that circum-

the Thigh.
p and circu-

operation for parts must eration.

of Abscess.