Full Text of the Judgment Delivered by Mr. Justice Drake in the case of the Carlisle Packing Company vs. Carthew, Mr. Justice Drake in the case of the Carlisle Packing Company vs. Carthew, The Carlisle Packing Company, Plain- tifs, and John A. Carthew, Defendant. The company is in voluntary liquida- tion and Holland, the liquidator, claims from the defendant, who was thanaging director of that company, a balance of $1,088.15. Of this sum the defendant disputes item 7, $100 cash, sent to him May, 1897, $15 for meals supplied on board the C.P.N. Co.'s boat, being items to and 17, and also item 56, $100 paid Arman Robertson. I deal with these items first. In find for the defendant received the $100 mentioned in item 7, and has not ac- ounted for it. Items 10 and 16 for min the wiew I take of the defendant's spagement. Item 56, $100, should be allowed to the defendant connter-claims $1,277.88, and it is on this claim that the the Carlisle cannery and a com- stration is placed on his powers. The defendant's claim is thus reduced to $988.15. The defendant connter-claims $1,279.88, and it is on this claim that the the Carlisle cannery and a com- stration is placed on his powers. The defendant's claim is thus reduced to $988.15. The defendant connter-claims $1,279.88, and it is on this claim that then the Verse target and the first fuention is placed on his powers.
