WINNERS IN COLLIE AND FOX TERRIER CLASSES

Exhibition One of Most Successful Held Under Auspices of the Local Kennel Club.

The fourth annual show of the Victoria City Kennel Club concluded Friday. It was one of the most successful from every standpoint in the history of the local association. The opening on Wednesday took place under very auspicious circumstances, there being a ly fine quality in each class. Visiting hospitality, and went away very much pleased with the exhibition and the Ridelsheimer, Seattle. courtesy of members of the management

When the Times went to press on Thursday the last class judged were the cocker spaniels. That afternoon Judge Mearns, J. C. Ackerman. Reserve—Barker completed his task distributing Sunshine Elk, F. W. Welsh. ribbons among the collies, bull dogs, bull, Boston, fox, Scotch, Irish, black G. Morgan. Reserve Humbertstone Worry, J. C. Ackerman. dashunds, Dandie Dinmont, and field J. C. Ackerman. Reserve Inspiration, spaniels.

In the former class competition was very keen. Many Victorians hoped to see Prince, owned by J. McIntosh, of this city, sweep everything before him again. But the outside dogs were of Bradley Dyne. such high quality that the local prize winner was forced into third place. Glen Panna Marquis, one of the principal winners, is a splendid animal with superb motion. R. G. Gamwell, owner of Jan Ridd, and J. McIntosh, owner of Prince, protested the decision of the judge in awarding the first place in limit and open classes to Winnitka Ballyarnet Eclipse Laird, owned by J. D. Klocher, M. D., of Green River Hot Springs. After the completion of judging the bench show committee had the three dogs brought out, and after a careful examination upheld the decision of close contests for blue ribbons. In this case the only Victoria breeder who held his own to any extent with the Wandee Kennels, of San Francisco was Geo. Florence. He captured several firsts in the limited classes with his Revelry, but was awarded only a place in the open classes. Wandee Violet, a fine type of terrier, owned by C. K. Hartley, was awarded the highest honors, carrying off all the principal awards.

Following completes the list of prize winners: Bull Dogs.

The above cut is interesting from the fact that the klootchman in the doorway is dressed entirely in cedar clothing. The Quatsino natives are experts at the work, making a good cloth from cedar bark. The above photo is by B. W. Leeson, of Quatsino, who has made a close study of these natives. He has acquired their language perfectly, and has induced the women to manufacture frames of cedar (such as is shown in the cut) for photos. He has probably the best collection of Indian photos of any man in British Columbia. These photos are for

Kennel Scoring Greatest Number of Points-Dr. Garesche. ARTIFICIAL SILK.

A wearable silk fabric made from gelatine solution is manufactured in Glasgow with undoubted success. It can be dyed any color and takes all the shades with a brilliant luster that rivals even that of natural silk. The fibre is prepared by ejecting fine threads of a strong solution of gelatine from a very small orifice on an endless band conveying them to bobbins, on which they are reeled. After leaving the small orifice the gelatine solidifies in a continuous fibre, a thouing a luster even greater than that of a natural silk. The fibre in this state, however is unsuitable for use as it is easily spoiled by water. In order to render it impervious it is water-proofed by a special process.—Exchange.

IN ENGLAND

Canadian who has been visiting the north of England tells us how great is the fame which Canada's wearth and prospects are now enjoying among the hard-hearted people of Lancashire and Yorkshire. The new and widely-advertised issues of the Grand Trunk Pacific and Canadian Northern Railways, the sensational jump of Hudson's Bay, Canadian Pacific, and other stocks have had their effect. When in Manchester, a correspondent came across huge placards announcing a Canadian lecture. "I went into the hall," he says, "and found it was the second Canadian lecture of the kind delivered within the last three weeks. Some 1,500 or 2,000 people were present, and some were standing up in the gangways.
