CENTREVILLE, April 12.-W. D. Ballock, high sheriff of Carleton Co., died on the 10th inst. and was buried in the church cemetery, Rev. E. W. Simonson having charge of the ser-vices at the burlal. He was the eldest son of the late John Balloch, was born in Carleton county, and for many years conducted a hotel in Woodstock, after which he followed same business in Centreville. Some four years ago he succeeded David Irvine as sheriff. No man serv ing the public as proprietor or sheriff stood higher in the estimation of the people. He was never known to dis-treas a poor man, but frequently came to his relief by his own means. His wife was a daughter of the late Mr. Blanchard of Maine, who, with one daughter, the wife of G. L. White, survives husband and father. His ering the roads ankle deep with mud.
