NORMAL SCHOOL.

Formal Opening Exercises Were Held Friday Afternoon.

The Addresses of Chancellor Harrison Principal Crocket and Others-Classification of Students

FREDERICTON, Sept. 5 .- The formal opening of the Provincial Normal School for the present term took place at half-past two o'clock this afternoon. Upon the platform with Principal Crocket and the staff of the school were Chancellor Harrison, Secretary of School Board Sampson, Rev. Father Carney, Rev. J. H. McDonald, Rev. Dr. Roberts.

The exercises began with singing

May God Preserve Thee, Canada, Prof. Cadwallader at the piano. Chancellor Harrison was called to the chair. Dr. Crocket in opening his addres expressed regret at the inability of the members of the board of education and of the superintendent of education to be present at the session. The principal gave the statistics of the present enrollment at the school, given elsewhere in this paper. He extended to the students a cordial welcome to the Normal School on behalf of the faculty, and spoke of the advantages they would have at their disposal while in attendance at the institution. He spoke of and briefly commended the introduction of manual training into the course of instruction. He believed that the introduction of the manua training system would greatly improve the whole method of teaching in the schools, and would also lead to in creased interest in the school on the part of the parents. Dr. Crocket then spoke of the necessary qualifications of the successful teacher, and of the value of the professional training received at the Normal School. He disapproved of the Glee Club and the Mock Parliament, but commended the Debating Society.

At the close of the principal's address Chancellor Harrison spoke. After welcoming the students, Dr. Harrison said: If I were to utter a word of caution it would be concern ing the right use of your time. This is a distracting little town, full of youthful pleasure seekers, and I often won der if it is possible under present conditions to lay the foundation of deep and broad scholarship. "Time destroyed is suicide where more than blood is snilt" Habits of industry and selfdenial are necessary to the bringing out of mental powers. Man is defined to be a rational animal, but it often requires a deal of strenuous effort to keep his rationality in the ascendant man too 's a social animal, with a hankering after pie. But pie socials are the foes of solitary study. To become teachers you must scorn delights and live laborious days. I beg permission to tell you a bit of news. There is a new professor coming to the university to take the place of Prof. Patten, who has been obliged to give up his appointment on account of ill health. I. W. Riley is his name and he has just been made a Doctor of Philosophy in Yale University. His thesis on the Founder of Mormonism has just been published in book form at the expense of Yale University. It has been favorably reviewed by so great an authority as the London Spectator. The dean of the Graduate School of Yale University, wrote to

THE LAUNDRESS' LAMENT.

Bless my heart! Why was I ever born? Toiling and moiling from morning till night, and never a rest! If man was made to mourn, what was a laundress made forcertainly not to sing. My hands are nearly charred off working in filthy suds, washing other people's clothes, and other people's floors. No wonder scapmakers give prizes with their soaps. Those who use some of the soaps deserve prizes. I would rather do without the prizes and have a whole skin. And as to the mistress' part of the bargain—imagine rubbing ten dollars' whole skin. And as to the mistress' part of the bargain—imagine rubbing ten dollars' worth into the value of five dollars, and then getting a fifty-cent prize for doing it? It makes one laugh—that is, if you haven't to pay for it. But I cannot laugh at my sore hands. Well, well, I suppose what cannot be cured must be endured.

"Hello, Mary! what's the matter, you seem out of sorts?" "Out of sorts, Margaret, I should think I am. Life is a burden."

"Oh, nonsense, Mary, you have a fit of the blues—it will soon pass off."

"The blues might pass off, Margaret, if that were all; but my poor sore hands and aching back remain." "Why, sakes alive, Mary, what has put your hands in that state? What hard thick knuckles you've got, and how ragged your nails are too!" nails are, too!"
"Hard knuckles and ragged nails! Bah!

What is that to me, I wish you heard the grumbling I have to stand about hard flannels and ragged clothes after I have washed them. Hard knuckles and ragged nails are not my only troubles."

"Yes, but why should the flannels or your knuckles be hard, or your nails or skin be cut up in that way?"
"Why, surely you know, Margaret, you do washing as well as I." "Yes, but I hear no grumbling, and see my hands, they are as soft and fresh as any lady's"

"Why, so they are, Margaret; now, how "I tell you what, Mary, you want to have a doctor's advice."
"Oh, the doctor may cure my hands, but he won't mend the clothes or soften the flannels."

"Oh, yes, he will."

"I have myself found from experience and it stands to reason—that soaps loaded with alkali must ruin the hands and destroy the clothes.* I found there was no sense in the clothes.* I found there was no sense in burning my hands during the day and rubbing glycerine on during the night. They never got time to get better. Sunlight Soap being made from pure oils and fats cannot hurt the hand or the clothes. Imagine the foolishness of rubbing the adulteration of common soaps into the skin and into the clothes, and then having to wash out not merely the original dirt of the clothes, but the soap adulteration as well—that is, washing dirt with dirt. Simple Simon could scargely do worse."

"Oh, Margaret, I wish I had known of

"Oh, Margaret, I wish I had known of this before. My hands might have been like yours to-day. I will try it in my next washing."

"Do, Mary, and be sure it is Sunlight Soap, and ask for the Octagon bar. It is an ideal shape for the laundry. And just a word before I go, Mary, if you find that your grocer does not keep Sunlight Soap you have only got to send his name and address to Lever Brothers Limited, Toronto, and they will send you a sample of Sunlight Soap without cost."

*Nors.—This is absolutely a fact, and it means in every-day language that the skin cannot be hurt even if the hands are immersed for hours in the suds of Sunlight Soap, because this soap is made from oils and fats pure enough to eat; and there is none of that burning sensation that is caused by alkaline poisons.

ANNUAL MEETING.

Of the Disciples of Christ of N. B.

-Report of the Home Mission Board -Long Discussion Regarding Inco

On Thursday evening last at Port Williams, N. S., the annual meeting of the Disciples of Christ of Nova and New Brunswick opened in a large tent, as the fine new house of worship is not finished yet. As this religious people has no creed or discipline but the Bible and as each church governs itself, this convention is not held to make or revise creeds nor to enact laws to rule its members. But it is held to hear reports from the churches to unite in missionary and other good works, to strengthen the bonds of fraternity and to create greater zeal among its membership.

At & p. m., Rev. J. E. B. Appel led a song service; R. E. Stevens, pastor of Port Williams Church, extended a hearty welcome to all, and announced that the Baptist bretheren had kindly offered their house of worship for any of these meetings. This offer was greatly appreciated.

The president of the curvention, L. S. Ford, made a happy reply on behalf of the visitors and in a witty speech introduced B. L. Smith of Cincinnati, Ohio, secretary of the American Christian Missionary Society, who delivered an eloquent address on the Life of Alexander Campbell.

Over 100 delegates are here and more expected. The following ministers are in attendance: B. L. Smith of Cincinnati, M. E. Harlan of Brooklyn, N. Y.; E. C. Ford of Nova Scotia; R. E. Stevenson, Halifax; H. A. Devoe, Digby; Evangelist R. Gebble, R. W. Stevenson, Charlottetown, P. E. I.; F. J. M. Appleman, Pictou: G. N. Stevenson, J. C. B. Appel, St. John; J. Speer, West Gore, N. S.; H. E. Cooke, Weswick, N. B., and F. Calder of Deer Island, N. B.; Mrs. Smith, Ford, Murray, R. E. Stevenson, Applenan and Cooke accompanying their husbands.

Friday, 9 a. m.—F. J. M. Appleman of Pictou gave the first of the Bible studies on the Epistle to the Galations, which was done in a pleasing and instructive manner.

After this the business meeting opened, L. S. Ford in the chair. H. E. Cooke made a short prayer. In the absence of G. F. Barnes, the secretary, W. A. Barnes, was elected pro tem, with J. Barry Allan as assistant. J. C. B. Appel and H. Murray were appointed to report for the "Christian."

"A doctor mend clothes and soften flannels! You always would have youn little joke, Margaret."

A long discussion took place over the subject of incorporation as follows: Messrs, L. A. Miles, B. L. Smith, J. S. Flaglor, M. E. Harlan and R. E. Stevenson were appointed a committee to present a resolution on the

The reports were read and totalled as followed: In N. S., 19 churches, and 10 in N. B.; 2,326 members, 148 additions, 35 lost by death and removal; 1,187 in the Sunday schools. Value of church property $47,800; raised for home missions, $1,200; for foreign, $700. Three new houses are under construction and one new church was organized this year. There reports indicate a very good state of affairs.

At 2 p. m. in Young People's Rally, led by J. C. B. Appel, short papers were read by Miss E. Fullerton, Pictou, N. S., "The Young People—the Church's Recruiting Ground." Miss L. Jackson, Port Williams. "The Claim of Missions on Young People." Miss B. W. Barnes, St. John, "The Christian Endeavor Pledge." Miss N. Whelpley, St. John, "The Quiet Hour and Tenth Legion." These papers showed much care in preparation and were read in a spirited manner.

D. A. Morrison, president of the Maritime Christian Endeavor Union, brought greetings and made a strong plea in the interests of the young people and their work. Mr. Morrison has also been honored by being appointed a trustee of the United Society of C. E. of the World.

3 p. m.—B. L. Smith made an address appropriate for such a meeting, basing his remarks on "The Widow's Cruze." the blessing came by using what she had, which is God's way of conferring blessings on humanity. So let all use freely whatever talents we have. Moses gave what he had and God made him the lawgiver to Israel, and through Israel to the civilized nations of the world. David gave what he had and became Israel's greatest king and psalmist. The five loaves and two fishes were used and fed the multitude. The early Christians when scattered used the Word of God and He gave a glorious increase.

The stallion was not sold.

Island were read. Minutes of last meeting were approved. Treasurer reported $280 raised for missions in Japan, and $60 for children in India. Report from superintendent of children's work showed that $200 had been raised by the bands this year.

The following committees were appointed: Resolutions, Miss C. Ford, Miss Edmond, Miss B. Barnes. Ways and means, Mrs.R. E. Stevens, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. H. Murray, Mrs. E. C. Ford, Mrs. Payson, Miss L. Jackson and Miss C. Ford.

Henry Watterson's Attack on New York's "Four Hundred."

de Doclares the Women Are Deprayed as the Men, and Make Life One Unending Debauch.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 6.-In the Courier-Journal, Henry Watterson, in an editorial, occupying two columns of space, renews his attacks on New York's "400." He refers to them as "a flock of unclean birds,' 'and says further:

"Its women are equally depraved with its men. They know all the dirt the men know. They talk freely with the men of things forbidden the decent and virtuous, that passing freely visa-vis or at table which means once excluded as unclean by gentlemer from the smoking room.

"The woman of this 'smart set' no longer pretended to recognize virtue even as a feminine accomplishment Innocence is a badge of delinquency, a sign of the crude and raw, a deformity, which, if tolerated at all, must carry some promise of amendment. The only thing needful is to know it

"In London and Paris, at Monte Carlo in the summer, they make life one unending debauch; their only literary provender, when they read at all, the screeds of D'Annunzio and Bougret; their Mecca the mulette table and the race course; their heaven the modern yacht, with its luxury and isolation. The ocean tells no tales and as the 'smart set' knows no law. when in extremes it can go to sea.

"Truly, we have come to a beautiful pass if the simpering Johnnies and the tough girls that makes Sherry's and lmonico's hum;' that irradiate the corridors of the Waldorf-Astoria with the exhalations of their unclean lives and thoughts, emulating the demimondaines of the third empire, are to be accepted; even by inference as the 'best society,' while the good and virtuous of the land, even though quite able to pay their way at home and abroad, must be relegated to the 'middle class'
