

ST. STEPHEN AND CALAIS.

(Programme is for sale in St. Stephen by Master Ralph Taylor, and at the bookstalls of G. S. Wall, O. F. Hall, and J. Vroom & Co. in Calais at 10 p.m.)

April 21.—The climax of the season's entertainments and festivities were reached last Thursday evening when the ladies of the Calais club gave their promenade concert and grand ball, in the St. Croix hall Calais. Exactly at eight o'clock the concert began, and Fettes' orchestra from Bangor, appearing for the first time in a St. Croix concert, gave as their first selection "The Ride of the Army March." The music given by the orchestra throughout the whole programme was grand and was pronounced by all who heard them to be the finest orchestra ever heard in the city. After the concert as soon as the hall could be arranged, dancing began. If the music at the concert was most enjoyable to listen to, to those who danced it was a merry one, and a decided success in every way. The ladies of the ladies were extremely handsome and stylish, nearly all were of pretty bright colours, and many white dresses, that always give a festive appearance to an entertainment. The honours of belleship were divided between Miss Mabel Murchie and Miss Josephine Hamm. Miss Murchie wore a handsome dress of white tulle trimmed with wreaths of white violets, she also wore diamond ornaments and carried a lovely bouquet of jessamine roses. Miss Hamm is a most graceful dancer and also possesses a calm and dignified manner which is most pleasing, and adds much to her appearance in the dance. Miss Hamm wore a pale blue velvet and white tulle, and carried a most magnificent bouquet of carnation roses. The masters were Mrs. George A. Curran and Mrs. Hanna Grimmer.

There were many elegant costumes worn by the married ladies. Mrs. Fredric Pike MacNicol was particularly noticeable in a most stylish Parisian gown of richest black silk trimmed with point de Venice lace and applique embroidery. She wore handsome diamond ornaments. Mrs. Percy Lord looked extremely well in a rich gown of cream colored duchesse silk trimmed with lace, diamonds and her ornaments. The ball was given by the ladies of the "Gratia club," and to them belongs all the praise and credit, and as they are all extremely young ladies and arranged the whole affair themselves, and carried it so well, and successfully many pleasant comments have been made by the guests in regard to their ability, and graceful arrangements. Besides the dresses already mentioned there are many more which I shall endeavor to give a brief but hope correct description. Mrs. George A. Curran handsome gown of garnet moire, trimmed with point lace, diamond and coral ornaments. Mrs. C. W. Young, handsome gown of pink and gray striped silk with diamond ornaments. Mrs. Ernest T. Lee, hotopote silk with over dress of black tulle, bouquet of violets. Mrs. Stephen Hunt, blue silk dress covered with blue tulle.

Mrs. Frank E. Macartney, handsome gown of rich ottoman silk trimmed with lace, bouquet of white and pink carnations, diamond ornaments. Mrs. Leonard T. Farris, stylish dress of yellow silk trimmed with chiffon and yellow roses. Mrs. Lewis Dexter, white brocade silk, trimmed with point lace and wreaths of violets, ornaments diamonds. Mrs. Hedley Cooper, (St. John), handsome gown of cream colored moire trimmed richly with lace, diamond ornaments. Mrs. Clarence Trimble, stylish dress of white satin, valencienne lace trimmings and wreaths of violets. Mrs. Frank P. Woods, white silk with trimmings of gold embroidery, diamonds. Mrs. Henry D. Pike, white silk trimmed with pale blue velvet, diamonds. Mrs. George Dexter, costume of black and rose pink silk. Miss Charlotte Young, yellow silk with trimmings of rich black lace. Miss Kate Washburn pretty gown of white silk trimmed with white tulle and wreaths of violets. Miss Louise Jordan, green velvet gown trimmed profusely with pearl embroidery. Miss Florence Boardman, pretty dress of pale blue silk trimmed with chiffon. Miss Winter McAllister, looked particularly well in a stylish dress of black tulle. Miss Carrie Barker, pink and black silk trimmed with black Brussels net. Miss Mary McCullough, pale green silk with pink silk trimmings. Miss George McAllister, white silk with overdress of white tulle. Miss Ida Boardman, pale blue silk trimmed with cream lace. Miss McKusick, costume of black and yellow moire, trimmed with chiffon. Miss May Harris, pale blue silk, trimmed with chiffon. Miss Lottie Hughes looked very pretty in yellow silk, trimmed with lace. Miss Ella Thompson, dress of old rose silk trimmed with lace. Miss Beattie Todd, scarlet tulle, over scarlet silk. Miss Fannie Lowell, pale green organdie. Miss George Elliott, white muslin trimmed with lace and ribbon. Miss Berta Whidden looked very pretty in a pale green tulle gown trimmed with white satin and chiffon. Miss Louise Hill, pretty cream colored organdie. Miss Sarah Clarke, white silk gown, corsage bouquet of dark crimson roses. Miss Ella Rose, white silk dress, trimmed with silk, bouquet of jessamine roses. Miss Lillie Sawyer, pink silk dress with overdress of pink tulle. Miss Fannie Wilder, light blue silk and blue chiffon. Miss Lillian McKenzie, pale blue organdie. Miss Louise Murchie, white muslin trimmed with blue ribbon. Miss Alice Niebels, skirt of black silk with corsage of pale blue silk. Miss Mattie Nichols, rose pink silk with overdress of white tulle. Miss May Vose, gray silk with velvet trimmings of a light green. Miss Ella Harmon, black silk skirt with waist of pale blue silk. Miss Nellie Murchie, skirt of black satin with waist of sky blue.

Miss Katherine Copeland, pink silk gown with overdress of white muslin. Miss May John, pretty dress of white silk with overdress of white gauze. The Queen Anne symphonic recital by Miss Henderson's class has been fixed we believe for the evening of May 1. A pretty feature of the entertainment will be the Red Bird dance, in which four tiny girls dressed in red will take part. The living pictures as presented by the children will be a dream of art and consist of living effects in stationary.

The May Pole dance, a flower frolic, a harp drill, a voice drill of Tenneyson's, bugle song—together with other delightful features comprise the programme. The luncheon during the afternoon will be a very pretty affair, with cards and favors for the guests. Miss Jean Sprague, recently returned from Boston, and Mr. Sealey of St. John have been engaged by Miss Henderson to sing for this occasion. Miss George Meredith has been making a short visit with friends in Fredericton.

Miss Rachel Waterbury who will graduate at the Boston Kindergarten school for teachers in June is at present engaged in teaching a Kindergarten at Ashcroft, Mass. for two months. Another Easter has come and gone, and although there was a suspicion of an icy cold wind in the air, yet the day dawned bright and sunny, and at midday was quite warm and very springlike. The streets all day were bright with people, both driving and walking, eagerly enjoying the first real taste of spring, that early or late, the weather always seems to bring. The churches, of all denominations, were filled at all the services. Christ church was beautifully adorned with Easter lilies, palms and plants of various kinds in sight bloom. The singing was excellent, and the rector Rev. O. S. Newnam preached sermons appropriate to the Easter festival. Trinity church was not decorated but the singing was very fine, the choir being an excellent one. Rev. Frederic Robertson the rector, preached two very eloquent and instructive sermons. The baptisms were not decorated this year, Rev. W. C. Goucher the pastor conducted the services as usual. The Methodist church was in festive attire, and was beautifully adorned with lilies, primulas and foliage plants most artistically arranged under the direction of Mrs. Almon I. Teed by the young ladies of the congregation. Rev. Dr. Sprague gave two most powerful sermons and in the afternoon addressed the church and scholars of the Sunday school. The singing in this church was unusually beautiful, especially at the evening service when Mrs. George J. Clark and Miss Jean Sprague sang as a duet "Consider the Lilies".

The Presbyterian church was crowded with worshippers there were no decorations but the singing was good and sermons were appropriate to the season, preached by Rev. Dr. McKenzie. The church of the Holy Rosary was decorated with flowers as it usually is on high festivals. The different masses were celebrated and the singing which had been prepared most carefully was very elaborate and unusually beautiful. A large congregation gathered to worship. The services were conducted by Rev. Father Doherty. The number of Easter costumes and bonnets were most noticeable, especially the bonnets, which seemed to be chiefly purple and green, violets seem to be the favorite flower and one seldom sees a hat without a touch of this flower. Yesterday being Easter Tuesday the ladies of Trinity church gave their annual supper and sale. It was well patronized and the supper surpassed those given in previous years, the tables might be said to have "groaned" with the good things upon them. The fancy table exhibited a number of novelties in fancy work and was presided over by the president of Trinity workers society, Mrs. W. F. Todd, Miss Maude Marks in the west corner of the vestry offered delicious home made candies for sale, and Miss Daisy Hanson to her patron chocolate and vanilla ice cream. The affair was for the sale and gift and although the work for it was hard the amount realized was a goodly sum.

The Current News club ended their meetings for this season with a banquet in Hawthorne Hall, the residence of Judge Stevens, last evening, Miss Grace Stevens being the president of this most popular club. There was an arranged programme for the evening's entertainment. Speeches were made, music and singing indulged in. The event was a most delightful one, and added to it the charm of entertaining which always can be found at a warm home Hall, the evening was greatly enjoyed by all who were there. Miss Ella Warren Harmon is again at home after a most successful engagement with a theatrical company, during the winter. The Premier and Mrs. Mitchell arrived from Fredericton on Friday evening. Mr. Charles F. Beard who has been spending several weeks in Belmont Mass., with his parents, Elton Alanson Beard is expected home early next week. Miss Millie Sawyer has returned from a pleasant visit in Boston. Miss Martha Harris who has been visiting New York and Boston, is again at home. Rev. Howard Whidden accompanied by Mrs. Whidden and their children went to Nova Scotia this week, where they will visit relatives. Mr. Beverley Carter of St. John accompanied by his mother, were in town during the past week to visit Miss Mary Carter who still continues very ill. Mr. L. H. Newcombe one of Esquimaux's prominent lawyers was in Calais recently on business. Mr. J. P. D. Tilley spent Sunday in town visiting at the Cedars, his grandmother Madame Chipman. Messrs. W. A. Mills and N. Marks Mills left yesterday for Boston where they will enjoy the pleasures of that city for a fortnight. Mrs. John Prescott is visiting relatives in Washington D. C. Miss Louise Hill has returned from a visit in Boston. Mrs. Hedley Cooper expects to remain here until May. Miss Lillie Eaton is visiting her aunt Mrs. Horace B. Murchie in New York city. Mrs. William Hall accompanied by her friend Miss Alice Graham left in C. P. R. evening train for Montreal where Miss Graham will make an extended visit with Mrs. Hall. Mrs. C. B. Rounds has returned from Boston. One of the saddest events of the week is the death of Miss Lillian Mallory, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Mallory which occurred at their residence on Water street on Monday afternoon. Miss Mallory had been ill for several weeks with that dread disease consumption, and throughout her painful illness, was always patient, loving and thoughtful for those who cared for her and were with her. She was but nineteen years of age, and was a member of the Baptist church, and took an active part in several different societies in connection with the church. She was greatly beloved by her family and friends, who have the sincerest sympathy of the whole community. The tenderest services took place at eight o'clock on Tuesday evening at her father's residence. On Wednesday morning the remains were taken to Upham King's Co. where they will be interred. The floral offerings from loving friends were very beautiful, and expressed the esteem in which she was held by her friends.

The sad news of the death of Rev. Daniel R. Corbett was heard here with deep regret. He was a bright and talented young priest and gave promise of a useful future. All hearts go out in deepest sympathy to his widowed mother who has lost her only support.

There never was, and never will be, a universal patent, in one remedy, for all ills to which flesh is heir—the very nature of many curatives being such that were the germs of other and differently seated diseases rooted in the system of the patient—what would relieve one ill, in turn would aggravate the other. We have, however, in Quinine Wine, when obtainable in a sound unadulterated state, a remedy for many and grievous ills. By its gradual and judicious use, the frailties of the system are strengthened and the system is brought into a state of health and vigor, by the influence which Quinine exerts on Nature's own restoratives. It relieves the drooping spirits of those with whose chronic state of mind, despondency and lack of interest in life is a disease, and, by tranquillizing the nerves, disposes to sound and refreshing sleep—imparts vigor to the action of the blood, which, being stimulated, courses throughout the veins, strengthening the healthy animal functions of the system, thereby making activity a necessary result, strengthening the frame, and giving life to the digestive organs, which naturally demand increased food, and improved appetite, Northrop & Lyman of Toronto, have given to the public their superior Quinine Wine at the usual rate, and, guaranteed by the opinion of scientists, this wine approaches nearest perfection of any in the market. All drug stores sell it.

There are so many cough medicines in the market, that it is sometimes difficult to tell which to buy; but if we had a cough, a cold or any affliction of the throat or lungs, we would try Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. Those who have used it think it is far ahead of all other preparations recommended for such complaints. The little folks like it as it is as pleasant as syrup.

Descon Baldy—I'm delighted to see you at prayer meeting so regularly. I trust that you are interested in your soul's welfare! Johnnie Courser—Nup. It's only Susie Sweet. —New York Sunday Journal.

If you would have love's flame grow bright, Do not withhold your self. Do not blow it; blow yourself. —Detroit Free Press.

For Nine Years—Mr. Samuel Bryan, Thedford, writes: "For nine years I suffered with rheumatism, sore on my feet; I expended over $100 to physicians, and tried every preparation I heard of or saw recommended for such disease, but could get no relief. I at last was recommended to give Dr. THOMAS' EUCALYPTUS OIL a trial, which has relieved after using eight bottles (using it internally and externally), in a complete cure. I believe it is the best medicine in the world, and I write this to let others know what it has done for me."

The Proprietors of Farnelle's Pills are constantly receiving orders similar to the following, which express itself. Mr. John A. Beam, Waterloo, Ont., writes: "I have used your medicine and can equal Farnelle's Pills for Dyspepsia, or Liver and Kidney Complaints. The relief experienced after using them was wonderful." As a safe family medicine Farnelle's Vegetable Pills can be given in all cases requiring a Cathartic.

Dentist (as the patient opens his eyes)—It's out. Patient (stiffly dazed from the gas)—Yes, of course. I never got drunk in my life that it didn't get out.—Detroit News.

No family living in a billious country should be without Farnelle's Vegetable Pills. A few doses taken now and then will keep the liver active, cleanse the stomach and bowels from all bilious matter and prevent Ague. Mr. J. L. Price, Elkhart, Ind., writes: "I have used a box of Farnelle's Pills and find them the best medicine for Fever and Ague I have ever used."

Misses—Why are you going to leave? Haven't we at rays treated you right? Bridge—Yes, mum. But the policeman on this date has got another gu-ni.—Up to Date.

GOLD AND KIDNEY DIFFICULTY.—Mr. J. W. Wilder, J. P. Lathropville, N. Y., writes: "I am subject to severe attacks of Colic and Kidney Difficulty, and find Farnelle's Pills afford me great relief, while all other remedies have failed. They are the best medicine I have ever used." In fact so great is the power of this medicine to cleanse and purify, that diseases of almost every name and nature are driven from the body.

Making an Artificial Skin. A process has been patented in Germany for making a substitute for the natural skin for use in wounds. The muscular coating of the intestines of animals is dissected of mucous membrane and then treated in a pepsin solution until the muscular fibres are half digested. After a second treatment with tannin and gallic acid a tissue is produced which takes the place of the natural skin, and which, when laid on the wound, is entirely absorbed during the healing process.

MESSES. C. C. RICHARDS & CO.

GENTLEMEN.—My neighbor's boy, 4 years old fell into a tub of boiling water, and got scalded fearfully. A few days later his feet swelled to three times their natural size and broke out in running sores. His parents could get nothing to help him till I recommended MINARD'S LINIMENT, which, after using two bottles, completely cured him, and I know of several other cases around here almost as remarkably cured by the same Liniment, and I can truly say I never handled a medicine which has had as good a sale or gave such universal satisfaction.

M. HENNET, General Merchant.
