

F. A. DYKEMAN HEADS TOURIST ASSOCIATION

Executive Met Yesterday and Completed Organization—Will Use 50,000 Booklets to Advertise Province.

At a meeting of the executive of the New Brunswick Tourist Association held yesterday afternoon, F. A. Dykeman was elected president for the ensuing year. The other officers chosen were: T. Q. Dowling, 1st vice-president; J. M. Humphrey, 2nd vice-president; J. E. Secord, treasurer and A. C. Currie, auditor. The following were added to the list of executive: F. W. Coombs, H. E. Green, W. E. Hising, L. P. D. Tilley and R. H. Bruce.

The order has been given by the association for the printing of their provincial booklet. Instead of 25,000 copies, the number printed last year, the association is having 50,000 copied this year. The demand for this form of literature during the past year has been very great and the association expects that by having the additional fifteen thousand copies printed this year the supply will be sufficient to meet the demand. This year's booklet will be very attractive, well designed and containing a store of information regarding the many features which New Brunswick possesses to attract the vacationist or the sportsman.

At the annual sportsmen's show to be held in New York in March the provincial government has secured a space for the guides of the province. New Brunswick's exhibit has in the past been a feature of the show and has done much to attract sportsmen to the province during the hunting season. The tourist association are sending a supply of their literature which will be distributed by the guides, and for which in past years there has been a big demand.

At the second annual meeting of the Travel and Vacation Exhibit, which is to be held in New York at the new Grand Central Palace on March 20th, the secretary of the Tourist Association, Miss Tinsley, will represent the association. The most important railway and transport lines are sending their representatives to the meeting.

Although it may seem early in the season, a number of inquiries are already being received by the secretary of the association regarding information of the province and asking for literature.

Judge Landry returned yesterday afternoon from Dorchester. C. A. Robinson left yesterday afternoon for Fredericton.

B. C. INDIANS ARE MAKING PROGRESS

Rev. C. T. Reddick, in Lecture, States they are Becoming Civilized with Gratifying Rapidity.

Rev. C. T. Reddick delivered an interesting lecture on the Indians of British Columbia, in the Congregational church, last evening, the lecture being illustrated with a large number of striking views of various phases of Indian life. The speaker gave a graphic description of the manners, tribal customs and government of the Indians, and dealt with the changes which had taken place as a result of their contact with civilization. He spoke of the advances they had made in social life, as well as the changes in their relations with the neighboring white communities. Their occupations were vividly described and illustrated, the means of travel in the old days and at the present time were depicted, and reference was made to their recreations and general means of enjoyment.

The lecturer declared that the British Columbia Indians had made greater advances in the last 40 years than any other peoples on the borderland of a new civilization had done. He paid an interesting tribute to the Indian intelligence, pointing out that they were quick to catch new ideas, very imitative and eager to learn and profit by the ways of the white man. In many places they had abandoned their old customs and ways of living, were building houses like those of the whites and were adopting the food and dress and manners of the white people.

C. E. MacMichael presided at the meeting and at the close of the lecture J. W. Flewelling moved a vote of thanks to the speaker which was carried unanimously.

Mr. Reddick will repeat his lecture in Zion church this evening.

Satchel Snatcher Arrested.

Yesterday afternoon Harry McNally, aged 16 years, was arrested by Detective Kileen on suspicion of stealing from the person of Mrs. Edward Chase on the Rockland Road a satchel containing some papers and about two dollars on the night of the 11th. At the time Mrs. Chase was walking along the street when a young fellow suspected of being McNally snatched her satchel from her hand and ran away with it.

AMATEURS IN CLEVER PLAY

"A Rose Among Thorns" Given Remarkably Fine Production in the Opera House—Specialties a Feature.

In the presence of an audience which taxed the capacity of the Opera House last evening, the four act comedy drama, "A Rose Among Thorns" was presented by an amateur cast. The production which was under the patronage of His Honor Lieut-Gov. Josiah Wood, was in aid of the Satchel Snatcher fund for the Satchel Snatcher fund for the Satchel Snatcher fund.

Last evening's production went with a swing seldom seen in amateur plays. While amateur names were placed on the cast, the lines were almost perfectly rendered, the action of the piece was carried through with a performance in the form of amateur efforts. In their respective roles every member acquitted himself and herself favorably and the general applause meted out during the performance.

The story of the play is a pretty one, a happy combination of comedy and drama, and gave splendid opportunities for the members of the cast to give good account of themselves. It deals with life in Ireland, and is replete with bright witticisms. There are to be balance his, however, several dramatic scenes. The climaxes are good, and with the elaborate stage settings, which were a feature, and the brilliant illuminating effects, the piece was one that entirely pleased the large audience. There is not a dull moment throughout the motion of the play. A number of songs interpolated gave a touch of variety. The piece was beautifully staged, the settings being particularly attractive, and the costumes worn both during the play itself and in the intermissions gave an added beauty to the whole performance.

In the leading feminine role, Mrs. F. C. Colborne, as Alice Worley, gave a delightful impersonation. Graceful, pretty, with a charming stage presence, combined with a pleasing voice she won immediate favor with her audience. In the role assigned her, she had splendid opportunities for strong dramatic effort, and that she took advantage of every opportunity to give a delightful impersonation.

The unsympathetic part in the piece fell to the lot of F. T. Walsh, as John Henning, a scheming agent, he did excellent work, and although not having the sympathy of his audience, his performance was such as called for recognition of his clever interpretation of the role.

The strong part in the piece is that of Kerr, the black sheep of the flock. In the role Steve Hurley added to his laurels. While not a stranger to many of the audience, it is doubtful if he has been seen to greater advantage in any previous role. In the heavy scenes which demanded strong work, he was not wanting, and much of the success of the production must be attributed to his excellent work.

The other male members of the cast, G. C. Hansen, Jas. O'Toole, J. C. McNeil and D. Higgins, acquitted themselves favorably and contributed their share to the enjoyment and success of the evening.

Miss E. Collogue, Miss M. Sugrue and Miss A. Carlyn, the other ladies of the play, while not perhaps having very onerous tasks, gave good account of themselves. The amateurism was greatly aided to their work, and one and all won favor with the audience.

The specialties offered something new, consisting of a pretty play by 20 children, "The March of the Popes." A "Gypsy Fantasy," a bewildering mixture of song and dance by 20 young ladies, brilliantly arrayed in gypsy costume, proved an exceptionally bright feature. Both specialties were set off in a burst of brilliant lighting effects which combined with the costumes of the performers, proved very fascinating. The Ocellian orchestra also gave a pleasing number. Their colonial costumes and cheerful playing giving considerable charm.

The special numbers also included solos during the piece, in which Miss Florence Halpin, Miss Adele Harney, and D. Higgins were heard to great effect.

Both the production itself and the specialties were under the direction of Mrs. A. C. Wilson. That the production was such a marked success is attributed in a very great measure to her efforts and reflects great credit on her ability and the care expended in preparing and carrying through the performance.

The play will be repeated this evening.

CLARK GRIFFITH HAPPY.

Clark Griffith is happy over the outcome of the operation on John Henry's knee for floating cartilage. The operation was successful and Henry is out of the hospital. Griffith is counting on Henry and Williams to do the bulk of the catching next season. He will not work Alsmith except in combination with Walter Johnson, he said.

The Cambridge boy delights in handling Johnson's tremendous speed, but he will be permitted to serve when Walter is not down to pitch. Alsmith was ill at the finish of last season's work and Griffith intends to handle him carefully this season.

A meeting of the Governors of King's College, Windsor, was held in the school room of Trinity church yesterday with the Bishop of Nova Scotia in the chair. SUFFRAGISTS SEND BANNER TO MONTREAL

St. John to be well Represented at Suffrage Exhibition Opening in Canadian Metropolis, Saturday.

In response to the request of the Montreal Council of Women to send a standard representing the suffrage movement in this city to the Suffrage Exhibition to open there on February 1st, the St. John Women's Suffrage Association has arranged a highly satisfactory standard depicting the history of the movement since its inception here.

The color scheme of this banner is red, white and blue. The banner itself measures about five feet by four feet. Across the top in large letters appears the name of the local association, directly below this is placed the picture of the suffrage movement since its inception here. These are as follows: Mrs. Harold Climo, Miss C. O. McGivern, Mrs. M. A. Sheffeld, Mrs. F. Cowie, Mrs. E. S. Pike, Mrs. W. F. Hathaway, Miss M. M. Skinner, Mrs. F. Seely, Mrs. L. A. Currie, Mrs. J. F. Bullock, Miss P. K. Hansen, Miss A. E. Allan and Miss Foster.

Directly below this is a reproduction of a newspaper cartoon of W. F. Hathaway, who introduced the Women's Suffrage Bill in the local legislature in 1909. On the left hand side of the picture is the date 1886, and the inscription "Municipal Suffrage given Single Women and Widows Owning Property," beneath this is the date 1894 and the inscription "St. John Women's Suffrage Association, organized." On the right side of the picture are the dates 1895-1899-1903-1909, with the inscription "Petitioned the local Legislature for Provincial Suffrage," and beneath, "Bill to be presented again in 1913."

The Suffrage Exhibition in Montreal will be officially opened on February 1st, and the first exhibition of its kind to be held in Canada. Its purpose is to show the general public the aims and desires of the women's suffrage party.

To the one and one of the large halls of St. Catherine street has been secured and suitably furnished. On one wall is a large map of the world with countries or states in which women have the right to vote. Copies of the beneficial acts passed through the efforts of the women are prominently displayed, while suffrage literature ranging from booklets to great series are in evidence. Large inscriptions showing that the Canadian suffragettes are not in favor of the militant tactics of their British sisters are also to be seen. It is expected that this exhibition will be beneficial in its results to the cause of securing votes for women. One reason why this is expected is that literature showing the suffragists and Cupid are not at loggerheads may be obtained on application.

Congestion in the Harbor. Com. Schofield is becoming worried over the increase of shipping coming to the port, and fears that there will be some trouble providing harbor facilities to handle the increasing traffic. The city has about abandoned any idea it may have possessed of providing additional wharf facilities, and has put it up to the government to provide any more wharves that may be necessary. At the present time there is a good deal of congestion in the harbor, and fears are entertained that this state of affairs will continue for some time. One of the big Australian boats is lying in the stream being unable to get into her loading berth, which is at present occupied by the extra South African boat, which has been delayed on account of the necessity of putting on new propeller blades.
