CROWN BRAND AND LILY WHITE CORN SYRUP

To help the sugar shortage use Crown Brand or Lily White Corn Syrup—delicious, wholesome and economical alternatives for Sugar in Cooking and Preserving. Corn is grown in North America, while sugar must be brought across the seas in ships which are vitally needed for war purposes. Use all the syrup made from corn you wish, while the Food Board is urging stringent economy in the use of Sugar.

Delicious for Making Desserts and on Cereals.

The Canada Food Board has issued a book of recipes and suggestions for using Corn Syrup. Write to the Food Board in Ottawa, for a copy, and in the meantime go to your grocer for a tin of LILY WHITE Corn Syrup, or CROWN BRAND Corn Syrup and try some of the following recipes.

APPLE SAUCE

8 apples 1 inch stick cinnamon
6 tablespoons Lily White Corn Syrup 2 cups water
Wash, pare, core, and slice apples. Put in sauce pan with water, syrup and cinnamon. Cook over a medium flame until soft.

CHOCOLATE CORNSTARCH PUDDING

2 cups milk 2 tablespoons sugar
3 tablespoons Benson's Cornstarch 2 tablespoons Lily White Corn Syrup
1/2 teaspoon salt 1 square chocolate
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
