THE YANKEE WHO HAS BEEN HIRED TO BUILD A NEW NAVY FOR THE CZAR
--LEWIS NIXON AND HIS SHIP YARD

Washington, Dec. 9.—Not only do the plans of the czar call for a new navy of proportions that will place Russia among the first three naval powers of the world, but in these plans the United States has a more vital interest than has been realized even by those who will be most directly concerned. Besides the greater part of the work being under American supervision, much of it will be done in American shipyards.

The next two years will see not only the great Russian shipyards at Sebastopol and Cronstadt raised to their full capacity, under the direction of Mr. Lewis Nixon, of New York, but a vast amount of work will be given to American shipyards which will have a great influence on American shipbuilding interests.

It is known that a general programme for building a new navy for Russia, to include at least one hundred fighting machines, was outlined when Mr. Nixon was in St. Petersburg last summer. He was in constant touch with the great powers of the empire at that time, and the fact that he will soon return to Russia in connection with carrying out this programme is sufficient proof that he has been constantly in touch with it since his return to this country.

(By Julius Chamberlain, of Brooklyn Eagle.) An American has undertaken to rebuild part of the Russian navy. It is a Herculean task, one that only an American of rare experience and courage would attempt. Lewis Nixon is the man. Sevastopol is the place in which his vast Russian yards will be located. One hundred ships of war of all classes are to be constructed in five years. Thousands of tons of armor have been contracted for in this country and Germany, and before many months ships will be carrying steel plates and armor through the Darwinian battle fields of the peninsula which England and France united nearly fifty years ago to take.

The Crimea has been a place of romance since the days of Jason and his men of Argos. The "Land of the Golden Pleece" has somewhere in the Sea of Azov, reached through what we now call the Strait of Yenikale. The shipyards will be located on the western side of the peninsula, not far from the site of the Balaklava battle field. "Think how large the plant must be to build twenty battleships at a time.

The interesting feature of this Black Sea enterprise is this: The Japanese will be warned by Turkey, as the possessor of the rights of the signature of the treaty of Paris, signed after the Crimean war, that their ships must not enter the Black Sea either to attack Sevastopol or to destroy the Russian ships on the coasts. But as Japan is not a party to the treaty, this warning will not have any binding effect, and if she has the officers the world thinks she has, she may expect to see Japan hunt through the Russian fleet in its only Black Sea port. What is to prevent?

But, after all, the one great fact of significance in this gigantic task of our American engineer is that it presages events in the near future that must upset the equilibrium of Europe.
Russia is not building ships at Sevastopol to use them for pleasure craft in the Black Sea. She intends to send them out to that sea to fight. They selected George Brockman, and the most expert constructor, that could be spared. They selected George Brockman, and he is there preparing a base of supplies that England will undoubtedly use—although it is being ostensibly constructed for Turkey.
As soon as Port Arthur falls, Russia will be likely to withdraw her troops across the Manchurian frontier and stand by her arms for a long while. Japan will not carry the war into Siberia, Russia will devote all the money she can command to creating a navy. Where she will get other officers to command ships after she has built them, nobody knows. A London news agency says that Russia has drawn many of her sailors from Ireland.
The people of the Emerald Isle are not content as sailors. They are pugacious and brave, I grant you, but they have not been permitted to learn to fight in battleships or cruisers.

If Russia has decided to build her navy

Liberals Make Sweep
In Prince Edward Island
Charlottetown, P. E. I., Dec. 7.—(Special.)—In the general provincial elections today the Liberals won by an overwhelming majority. So far as is known twenty-one Liberals and nine Conservatives are elected, but special votes may increase the Liberal majority.
Prince county has gone solidly Liberal, returning ten members, in some cases by largely increased majorities.
Queens county returns eight Liberals and two Conservatives and Kings three Liberals and seven Conservatives.
Charlottetown was practically a landslide for the government, Warburton and Hughes taking the largest majorities over opponents in the city.
The leader of the government narrowly escaped defeat, having only six votes to eight, and special votes may make his seat all more precarious.
Conservative, commissioner of public works, is seven votes behind but special votes may put him in.
The election was one of the most exciting held in this province and both parties worked hard. Fine weather and good roads bringing out a large vote.
The following is the result up to 9:30 p. m.: Charlottetown—Hughes, Liberal, 230 majority; Warburton, Liberal, 570 majority, defeating Dr. McNeill and P. S.
Crown.
Queens county first district—Simpson, Liberal, 332; Campbell, Conservative, 610; Smith, Liberal, 83; Nicholson, Conservative, 120. Two polls to hear from.
Second district—MacMillan and Douglas, Liberals, elected by 200 majority each over Currie and Dyle, Conservatives.
Third district—Campbell, Liberal, 331; McQueen, Conservative, 311; Palmer, Liberal, 411; Wood, Conservative, 791.
Fourth district—Hazard, Liberal, 511; Wood, Conservative, 508; Irving, Liberal, 751; Nicholson, Conservative, 622.
Prince county, first district—Agnew, Liberal, 230; Turner, Conservative, 415; Gilbert, Liberal, 105; Hackett, Conservative, 194.
Second district—Richards, Liberal, as declared; McWilliam, Liberal, 201; Belmont, Conservative, 131. Two polls to hear from.
Third district—McNeill, Liberal, 415; McDonald, Conservative, 375; F. A. Archibald, Liberal, 88; J. F. Archibald, Conservative, 557.
Fourth district—Capt. Joseph Reid, Liberal, 418; Anderson, Conservative, 420; S.

Sold More to the States.
The returns in U. S. Consul Myers' office show that the exports from St. John to the United States during the calendar year to end Dec. 31, 1904, have been considerably more than they were in 1903.
No detailed statement can be had but the probability is that this year's figures will be fifteen or twenty per cent greater than those of 1903.
