STORY OF BRIDGE DYNAMITING WILL BE TRIED IN BOSTON

Fourteen Witnesses to Go from Vancouver to Testify Against Horn in Federal Investigation.

Boston, Feb. 22—Two official moves, apparently entirely distinct, were announced yesterday in the case of Werner Horn, who attempted to blow up the International bridge over the St. Croix River near Vancouver (Me.) on Feb. 2...

THE FEDERAL DISTRICT COURT in this city will begin an investigation this week to determine, it is understood, whether the law against transportation of dynamite was violated by Horn in his alleged preparations for blowing up the bridge.

ON MOTION OF SIR ROBERT BORDEN, the proposal was finally referred to the special committee, already appointed, to amend the election laws to see if any feasible plan could be worked out.

INCIDENTALLY THE HOUSE expressed no opinion on the election laws, but it was understood that the government declined last night to talk about the proceeding or to give any clue to its exact nature, saying that he was acting on orders from the attorney-general in Washington.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT was made in Portland (Me.) that action had been begun by a representative of the Canadian government for the extradition of Horn. An application was filed in the federal court in that city by James Parkinson, of Ottawa, inspector of the Dominion police, asking that a warrant be issued to bring Horn before Judge Clarence Hale...

HORN BEGAN his sentence in the Machias Jail on Feb. 15, after he had pleaded guilty to a technical charge of defacing and injuring property in Vancouver, where several windows were broken by the explosion on the bridge.

HOPES ELECTION DURING WAR "WILL NOT BE NECESSARY"

Hon. Robert Rogers Utters This Pious Wish in the House, While He is Busy Preparing for the Contest—Borden Admits Scrapping Some Canadian War Supplies in England—P. E. L. Representation Up Again—Question of Giving Soldiers at the Front a Vote if Election is Held Referred to Committee.

OTTAWA, Feb. 22—A resolution, proposed by A. E. Frapp, Conservative member for Ottawa, apparently under the semi-governmental auspices, providing that Canadian elections on active military service, whether in Canada or abroad, should be enabled to vote if a general election occurs during the war...

WHILE NO ONE on either side of the house wanted the soldiers to be deprived of their franchise, there was no very practical suggestion made as to how the balloting could be done under active service conditions.

ON MOTION OF SIR ROBERT BORDEN, the proposal was finally referred to the special committee, already appointed, to amend the election laws to see if any feasible plan could be worked out.

PATENT MEDICINE MEN OBJECT TO STAMP TAXES

Big Delegation from Various Interests Interview Minister of Finance But Get Little Encouragement.

OTTAWA, Feb. 22—Wholesale druggists, manufacturing patent medicines, had a lengthy conference with Hon. W. T. White, minister of finance, today, during the course of which they asked that the war tariff changes be adjusted so as to bear less heavily on their industry...

THE MEMBERS of the delegation held a conference at the Chateau Laurier this morning of the Canadian Pharmaceutical Association, of which G. E. Gibbard, of Toronto, is secretary; the Canadian Wholesale Druggist Association, of which Arthur G. Hamilton, is president; the Patent Medicine Manufacturers Association, of which J. D. Watson, of Montreal, is president; and the Proprietary and Perfume Association. They interviewed the minister. The conference was private and considerable reliance was maintained in regard to it, but it was stated that concessions were asked with reference to the stamp tax.

THE ONLY PROMISE received from Hon. Mr. White, however, was that of consideration, and it is regarded as improbable that changes will be made.
