Died at Sea.—Capt. Sadler of the schr.

St. Francis Xabria, which arrived here this morning from Demarara, reports that on Sunday, 5th inst., a sailor named Peter J. Every, aged 23 years, a native of Saba, West Indies, in passing the gasket around the squaresail fell on deak a distance of short 30 feat and deck, a distance of about 30 feet, and after lingering nine hours, during which time he remained unconscious, died. His body was brought ashore this morning in charge of Mr. M. N. Powers, undertaker, and removed to the dead house, where a Coroner's inquest will be held solved. this afternoon. Capt. Sadler might have buried the deceased at sea, saving trouble and expense, but he preferred to bring him here and give him a Christian burial.
