

CONCLUSION.

In submitting this report as Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Correspondence, I beg to avail myself of the opportunity of tendering my warmest thanks to the brethren associated with me on the Committee. Ill health prevented me from contributing anything toward the report, and Bro. Trenaman kindly volunteered to perform my share of the work as well as his own. To him and to the Rev. Bro. Moore who have prepared the Review conjointly, I am deeply indebted, and though their maiden effort, I feel assured from the known ability of these brethren it will meet with approval. As at the close of life we are supposed to derive great comfort from the presence of the Doctor and the Clergyman, so at the close of this report I have the greatest comfort in feeling that I am in the hands of such deserving brethren.

A. H. CROWE, Chairman.
