

- 424-48; North Atlantic fisheries, 475-507; Asian immigration, 614-69; relations with Bolivia, 674-76; British West Indies, 692-718; France, 719-22; Japan, 743-49; Portugal, 752-56; US, pecuniary claims agreement, 816-18; naval vessels on the Great Lakes, 834-40; Panama Canal tolls, 840-48
- Bosphorus, 214, 218
- Boston, public hearings, fisheries, 502-3
- Bosworth-Smith, Mr., 630
- Botha, Louis, Prime Minister, Union of South Africa, 1910-19, 290, 337
- Botkine, Pierre, pelagic sealing, 1897 agreement, 513; at 1904 and 1911 conferences, 550-52, 554-55, 557, 559, 573; procedures at 1911 conference, 562-63; signing of convention, 584
- boundaries, procedures for discussion of, 1, 27—see also Alaska boundary; Boundary Waters Treaty; Hecate Strait; Labrador; Passamaquoddy Bay
- Boundary Demarcation Treaty (UK-US), Apr. 11, 1908, Passamaquoddy Bay, 399; arbitration provisions, 385n, 395, 400, 406, 411, 418, 525
- boundary waters, 361-448; proposals for joint improvement of resources by Canada and US, 436-37; suggested terms of reference for International Joint Commission study, 438-39; pollution, 447-48
- Boundary Waters Treaty:
- A. analysis by A. B. Aylesworth, 388-95; by George C. Gibbons, 364-74; Governor General's summary, 378-80
 - B. articles and principles: Article I, 364-66, 388-89, 843; non-interference with navigation, 363-66, 372-74, 376-79, 383-84, 388-93, 430; navigation rights in Lake Michigan, 365-66, 379, 388, 430, 843; the St. Lawrence in Canadian territory, 365-67; Article II, 362, 366-68, 376-79, 389, 419-20, 423; water diversion, protection of private interests across border, 362-64, 366-68, 376-79, 381-84, 389-90, 393-95, 419-20 (see also St. Marys River); relation to existing treaties, 362; Treaty of Ghent, 1814, 364-65; Webster-Ashburton Treaty, 1842, 362, 365-66, 376, 420; Guadelupe-Hidalgo, 1848, 366; Washington, 1871, 365-66; Hay-Pauncefote, 1901, 843-44; a precedent for pelagic sealing treaty, 525; Articles III and IV, 368, 390-91, 435; water levels, control of obstructions and diversion, 368, 390-92, 420, 435; pollution, 368 (see also Section C, application of Articles IV and IX); Article V, 369-70, 390-91; waters of Niagara, 369-70, 372-73, 376, 390-92; Article VI, St. Mary and Milk Rivers, irrigation, 370-72, 379, 414; Articles VII and IX, International Joint Commission (q.v.), 372, 374, 392, 436, 438, 447; advantages for UK of new means of settling disputes, 374 (see also pollution); Article VIII, 372-74, 377, 382-83, 390-92, 438; fixed principles, equal division of surplus water, riparian rights, 378-79, 383, 391-92, 395 (see also US Senate resolution in this section; International Joint Commission); Article X, arbitration, 374, 379, 392-93; reduction of British responsibilities, 393; Article XI, 374n; Article XII, legislation required for establishing International Joint Commission, 374n, 415-16, 422-23; US Senate resolution, territorial and riparian rights, 377-78, 380-83, 393-95, 417, 803 (see also Articles II and VIII; St. Marys River)
 - C. negotiation, conclusion, implementation: need for new treaty, 361n, 363, 373-74, 376-77, 379, 391-92, 419; signing of treaty, 361; correspondence preceding exchange of ratifications, 361-84, 388-95, 414; assent, ratification and exchange of ratifications, 362, 377-78, 380-83, 393-95, 414-17, 417n; legislation to give effect to treaty, 415-16, 422-23; relevancy of Article I to Chicago diversion, 430, 432; procedures for implementing Articles III and IV, 420, 435; pollution, application of Articles IV and IX, 447-48; relevancy of Article IX to proposed joint development of boundary waters (q.v.), 436, 438; implementation in cases raised by: Algoma Steel Corporation, 435; Georgian Bay Canal project, 436; Long Sault Development Co., 420; Michigan Northern Power Co., 435; Minnesota Power Co., 419-20;