ENCYCLICAL LETTER

OUR HOLY FATHER LEO XIII., BY DIVINE PROVIDENCE POPE, TO

The Archbishops and Bishops of Spain.

To Our Venerable Brethren and Beloved Sons, the Archbishops, Bishops, and other ordinaries in Spain. Venerable Brethren and Beloved Sons

Health and the Apostolic Benediction. Many are the points in which the noble and generous Spanish nation has shown itself pre-eminent; but above all others, and worthy of the highest praise, is their memory of the highest praise, is their preservation, through so varied a succes-sion of men and of events, of that love of the Catholic faith with which the prosperity and greatness of Spain have always appeared to be bound up. Of this affec-tion various proofs might be mentioned but the chie ut the chief one is that peculiar devotion this Apostolic Chair of which Spaniard have given such repeated and striking testimony by all manner of manifestations, by letters, by their liberality, and by their pilgrimages. The recollection must still be fresh of that recent period when Europe beheld their courage and their piety, at a time when the Holy See became a victim of dire and unfortunate circumstances. In all this, Beloved Sons and Venerable Brethren, We recognise not only a special grace from God but the fruit of your zeal, and likewise the all-praises or thy disposi-tion of the people itself, which in these times so besting to obtain the first second times, so hostile to Catholic interests chings with the greatest watchfulness to the religion of its fathers as to an inheritance, and does not hesitate to oppose itself to the greatness of the danger with an equal greatness of resolution. Nothing can be more hopeful for Spain, if only these dispositions be quickened by charity and strengthened by a lasting harmony.

THE NECESSITY OF UNION AMONGST CATHO

LICS.

LICS. But on this point We cannot suppress the truth; when We mark the conduct which some Spaniards deem themselves justified in pursuing, We experience a feeling akin to that anxious solicitude of the Apostle St. Paul for the Corinthians. The perfect union of Catholics among themselves and enseither the set themselves, and especially with their Bishops, had ever been secure and undis

Bishops, and ever been seen predecessor, furbed in Spain, and led Our predecessor, Gregory XVI, to address to the Spaniah people the well-merited eulogium that

"the immense majority had persevered in its ancient reverence towards the Bishop tuted. But now owing to party rivalry signs are showing themselves of dissension which are dividing minds, as it were, into different camps, and greatly disturbing even societies founded for a purely relig ous object. It happens often that in di cussions as to the best manner of defend ing Catholic interests the authority of the Bishops has not that weight which shoul belong to it. Sometimes even, if a Bishol recommends or decrees something in virtue of his power, there are people who will submit to it but ill, or even openly criticise it, assuming that he has wished thereby to favour some or hinder others.

Yet it is easy to see how important it is that unity should exist among the minds of men, and all the more so that, amid the unfettered prevalence everywhere of error and in the war so violently and insidiously waged against the Catholic Church, it is absolutely necessary that all Christians should unite their wills and powers in resistance, for fear that separ-ately they may be crushed by the cunning and violence of their foes. Moved, therefore, by the thought of such dangers, We have addressed these
