

CONDITIONS

OF

Obtaining Government Drill to Explore Mines or Mineral Lands.

Owners or lessees of mines or mineral lands in Ontario may procure the use of a Government Diamond Drill, subject to the provisions of the Rules and Regulations relating thereto, upon giving a bond for payment to the Treasurer of the Province, of costs and charges for (1) freight to location, (2) working expenses of drill, including labor, fuel and water, (3) loss or breakage of bits, core lifters and core shells, (4) wear or loss of diamonds, (5) other repairs of breakages and wear and tear of machinery at a rate per month to be estimated, and (6) an additional charge of $50 per month after the mine or land has been shown, through use of the drill, to be a valuable mineral property.

Of the aggregate of costs and charges above enumerated, excepting the sixth item, forty per cent. will be borne by the Bureau of Mines in 1894, thirty-five per cent. in 1895, thirty per cent. in 1896, and twenty-five per cent. in each year thereafter until the end of 1900. All accounts payable monthly.

For Rules and Regulations in extenso governing the use by companies and mine owners of Diamond Drills, or other information referring to their employment, application may be made to ARCHIBALD BLUE, Director of the Bureau of Mines, Toronto.

HOW IS THIS?

Something unique even in these days of mammoth premium offers, is the latest effort of Stafford's Magazine, a New York monthly of home and general reading.

The proposition is to send the Magazine one year for one dollar, the regular subscription price, and in addition to send each subscriber fifty-two complete novels during the twelve months; one each week.

Think of it. You receive a new and complete novel, by mail, post paid, every week for fifty-two weeks, and in addition you get the magazine once a month for twelve months, all for one dollar. It is an offer which the publishers can only afford to make in the confident expectation of getting a hundred thousand new subscribers. Among the authors in the coming series are, Wilkie Collins, Walter Besant, Mrs. Oliphant, Mary Cecil Hay, Florence Marryat, Anthony Trollope, A. Conan Doyle, Miss Bradon, Captain Marryatt, Miss Thackeray and Jules Verne. If you wish to take advantage of this unusual opportunity, send one dollar for Stafford's Magazine, one year. Your first copy of the magazine, and your first number of the fifty-two novels (one each week) which you are to receive during the year will be sent you by return mail. Remit by P. O. Order, registered letter or express.
