MEMORIAL FROM QUEBEC TO LORD DARTMOUTH.

To the Right Hon^{ble} the Earl of Dartmouth one of his Majesty's principal Secretaries of State.¹

The Memorial of the Freeholders, Merchants Planters and others his Majesty's antient and loyal Subjects now in the District of Quebec in the Province of Quebec in North America.

Humbly Sheweth.

That after the Capitulation of Canada and the definitive Treaty of Peace by which this Province was ceded to Great Britain his Majesty was graciously pleased by his royal Proclamation of the 7th October 1763, to give express power & direction to his Governors of the four several Provinces therein mentioned, (whereof this Province is one) with the advice and Consent of the Members of his Councils, to summon and call general Assembly's, for making constituting and ordaining Laws Statutes and Ordinances for the public peace, Wellfare and good Government thereof as near as might be agreeable to the Laws of England And also was graciously

¹ Canadian Archives, Q 10, p. 56. This memorial is not given in Maseres' "An Account of the Proceedings" &c. The briefer one from Montreal which follows this is given however. Nevertheless these memorials were evidently presented through Maseres, since they are not endorsed, as are the petitions to the King, as received through Cramahé. Moreover, in his letter to Dartmouth of Feb. 3rd., 1774 Cramahé indicates that they were not forwarded through him, since they were not communicated to him. See Q 10, p. 53.
