Twenty-five thousand oppose fee hikes

TORONTO (CUP)—About 50 Ontario student leaders bearing petitions with 25,000 signatures opposing a recent tuition hike were told by the provincial minister of colleges and universities he would not change his mind about instituting the hike next year.

Harry Parrott told the student union representatives at a Dec. 10 meeting he called, that even five million signatures would not pressure his government into rescinding the $100-a-year hike for universities and a year-hike for community colleges effective in 1977-78.

As a result the student leaders mandated the executive of their provincial organization the Ontario Federation of Students (OFS) to produce a province-wide strategy to oppose the hike in the new year. A special plenary will vote on the executive's recommendations in the future.

According to OFS information officer Allan Golombek, the executive will propose a half-year moratorium on classes set to begin sometime in March.

Now... more than ever the RCMP offers a rewarding career

If you've ever considered a career in law enforcement, now's the time to talk to the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. The opportunities have never been greater.

For instance, the RCMP is accepting applications from both men and women, married and single. And the salary scale has increased considerably. It starts at $12,750. per year ($245. weekly) with regular increases to $17,625. ($339. weekly) in the first four years.

If accepted as a member of the Force, you'll receive intensive training in all aspects of police work such as law, investigation, first aid and community relations. Then you'll be posted to a detachment where there's every chance to put your knowledge and talents to work; to earn promotion and, equally important, be proud of what you're doing for yourself and for Canada as a member of one of the finest police forces in the world.

So if you're a Canadian citizen 18 or over and in good physical condition, think about a career with the RCMP.

Call or write your nearest office or use the coupon. We'd like to tell you more.

NEW YORK (ZNS/CUP)—After an abysmal fall television season the American networks are turning to rock groups and the Bermuda Triangle as situational comedy themes to bolster their ratings.

Norman Lear, the producer of "Mary Hartman, Mary Hartman" has teamed up with promoter Don Kirschner to produce together a comedy called "Yes at the Top" featuring rock musicians who sell their souls to the devil in return for a year of fame.

The new weekly Bermuda Triangle show, "Fantasy Journey", will take place on an island located in the middle of the triangle.
