Dear Sir:-

The general feeling of all classes of Liberals, that this office should not cease to exist or become disorganized, in view of its past and possible future usefulness has so far resulted in a generous financial support for which we are most grateful.

We must have considerable more funds to be able to continue, and if you feel that it would be unwise to allow so well organized an office to become inoperative then you are respectfully invited to contribute to its financial support.

Last year you kindly contributed $25.00. A repetition of this contribution, or a larger one if you feel so disposed, at an early date will be most welcome and appreciated.

May I have the pleasure of hearing from you in any event?

Faithfully yours,

W. H. Adams
GENERAL SECRETARY
