Dear Mr Meighen :-

I hope these few lines find you just as well as could be expected. - And a few months ago I was talking to John Diefenbaker who told me he had then recently seen you & that you had had an illness. I expected to see him again but it seems he did not yet return here as he anticipated at that time. - Also I hope you received a little card last Xmas & I enclosed a small wood cut a local boy done. He is considered quite clever by the art critics about the city.

Now last December Mr Tyler who is the leading art instructor here wanted me to stop for inspection by Mr Key at your gallery a number of recent oil paintings. Well I done this & sent I down and one reason I personally had was that I wanted you to see where I have arrived, and so I am wondering if
