

I would serve detention.

Q-23 You knew you were absent. Didn't you know it would be better to return that stay away all this time?

A-23 I didn't like the idea of going back into that. I had never been in a jail and I didn't want to start here.

Q-24 Do you think that detention is so terrible? Did you have that much fear of detention?

A-24 Yes, sir.

Q-25 That is the only excuse you can give for running away?

A-25 Yes, sir.

Q-26 That dreaded fear of detention?

A-26 Yes, sir.

Q-27 Would you like to go overseas now if you found the chance?

A-27 I would go overseas, sir, if I was given my advanced training so that I could get out of this Camp but otherwise if I have to spend another 4 months and start at the bottom again I would get tired of hanging around, I guess.

Q-28 How long had you been in this camp when you went away?

A-28 2 months, sir.

Q-29 During that 2 months, you completed your advanced training?

A-29 No, sir. I had already had basic training at Bratford.

Q-30 And, you repeated basic training up here?

A-30 Yes, sir.

Q-31 But if you could go overseas now without have to repeat your training again, you would go?

A-31 I would certainly go.

---The Prosecutor declines to cross-examine.

BY THE JUDGE ADVOCATE:

Q-32 I understood you to make a razor that you were out on a pass and that your pass had expired at ~~1200~~ 0200 hours?

A-32 Yes, sir.

Q-33 That would be Sunday morning. The charge against you to