73 DUTY FREE AND DUTIABLE PARCELS - CIGARETTES AND TOBACCO - GIFTS
ILLEGAL SALE OR DISPOSAL:

1. The British Government agreed to allow genuine gifts for personnel of the Canadian Armed Forces to enter the United Kingdom free of duty.
2. Officers commanding will ensure that appropriate disciplinary action is taken immediately any cases come to their notice of the sale, attempted sale, gift or other disposition by personnel of the Canadian Army Overseas of gifts, particularly cigarettes or tobacco, which have entered the United Kingdom free of duty.
3. To facilitate proof and in order that charges may be laid under Army Act, Sec. 11, the following special order is made:-
 - (a) The sale, gift or other disposition, or any attempted sale, gift or other disposition, in the United Kingdom by personnel of the Canadian Army Overseas to civilians or others not members of the Canadian Armed Forces of any article, particularly tobacco or cigarettes, which has entered, or which is of a class of goods commonly known to enter, the United Kingdom free of duty as a gift for such personnel, whether or not such article has been received for or on behalf of such civilians or others, is hereby forbidden.
 - (b) The use of regimental funds for the purchase of cigarettes or tobacco in Canada for delivery in the United Kingdom and the sale of any duty-free tobacco or cigarettes in messes and canteens are hereby forbidden.
 - (c) The direct purchase outside the United Kingdom of any article for importation into the United Kingdom as a duty-free gift, by means of a remittance made under the provisions of F&A1 (Overseas) 593 and 594, or through any other medium, is hereby forbidden.
4. Nothing in this Order is to be construed as prohibiting the sharing of tobacco and cigarettes or other gifts with other personnel of the Canadian Armed Forces, nor the free distribution by commanding officers or other individuals of such gifts, among personnel of the Canadian Armed Forces.
5. Articles imported into the United Kingdom which are not bona fide gifts for personnel of the Canadian Armed Forces are subject to duty and purchase tax according to the schedules of the Customs and Excise.
