This book is yours Send for it

Our little book "Winners" is just out. It is full of stories of success about pupils of the Kennedy School.

If you would like to earn from $500 to $1,000 or more a year, "Winners" will interest you—and we are sure you are interested in your own success.

The Kennedy School is for those who prefer something better than business college instruction. It trains bright young people for the better positions as bookkeepers, stenographers and typists. It has won every important typewriting contest held in recent years. Miss Rose L. Fritz, one of its graduates, has won the championship of the world in ten successive contests.

Just send us a card, saying you would like to see the booklet.
