Market Review and Forecast

TORONTO, Oct. 8.—Pall wheat seedling is about completed throughout Ontario and despite the fact that labor has been scarce and the ground hard and dry, a fairly large acreage has been got in. The early fronts which have been prevalent throughout Ontario have done considerable damage to the bean crop. They have also hastened the cutting of corn for ensilage, and also filling is receiving the attention of most farmers at present. Pastures, though good in the west, have also been cut considerably recently, and the flow of milk has correspondingly decreased. Speculation on the price which would probably be set for Ontario wheat was brought on and when, on Sept. 29th, the board of grain supervisors for Canada fixed the price of No. 2 Ontario wheat at $2.22 a bushel on basis of "in store, Montreal." The prices of grades of Western wheat have also been fixed by the board.

One of the features of the live stock market is the high price fetched by spring lambs, some sales being made at figures as high as $17 a cwt. Another commodity finding a stronger market this week has been butter, which advanced a cent a pound. This jump in price is attributed to buying for export.

WHEAT.

With the price fixation of Ontario wheat at $2.22 in store, Montreal, a greater movement of wheat to market has been expected during the week. It is no longer to the advantage of anyone to hold wheat, and farmers are realizing that the more profitable. No. 2 winter wheat is quoted at $2.22; the farmers about $2.05 f.o.b. from Western and Central Ontario points, and in the eastern sections of the province, $2.07 is the price being obtained.

Of grades of Western wheat have had their prices fixed by the board of grain supervisors, as follows: Rejected No. 1 northern, $2.11; rejected No. 2 northern, $2.08; rejected No. 3 northern, $2.05; monthly No. 1 northern, $2.12; No. 2 northern, $2.09; smutty No. 3 northern, $2.05. From last October, 1917, to 30th April, 1918, the average for No. 2 northern, $2.10; No. 3 northern, $2.05; No. 4 northern, $2.00; No. 5 northern, $1.95; No. 6 northern, $1.90; No. 7 northern, $1.85;
