The Hackney stallion, Derwent Performer (8828), whose portrait appears on another page in this paper, was imported by and is the property of Mr. W. J. Mc-Callum, Brampton, Ont. He was purchased from Mr. Peter Crawford, Dargavel, Dumfiles, who owns more highclass Hackney stallions than any other man in Scotland. This horse stood second in the 1907 London Hackney Show, in 15.2 class, containing forty entries, amongst the pick of England's studs. He is a worthy son of the champion, Rosador; out of a mare by the equally famous Garton Duke of Connaught. He is a brilliant all-'round mover, and one of the best of his breed that has ever been imported to Canada. He should prove a profitable investment to his owner, and state that the photograph, from which the farmers in the section he stands in the cut is made, was on a very small are to be congratulated on having the scale, and comes far from doing the horse services of such a high-class sire brought justice, as he is a model of the breed in within their reach. It is but just to type, action and breeding.

Japan .-- Lady, I recognize that my advances are distasteful to you; but I trust I may still regard myself as a friend of the family ?

Canada.-If you'll promise to let me see as little as possible of you, I don't mind being a sister to you, for mother's sake.

A wealthy New York woman who is an indefatigable lion hunter and has had some success as an entertainer of celebrities, wrote Jan Kueblik during his last Gotham appearance:

"Will you join us with some friends to dine on Thursday? Bring your violin." She was somewhat chagrined when her messenger returned with the reply : "Dear Madam,-My violin never dines.

I have cured thousands who have squandered the savings of years in useless doctoring. My Belt is easy to use; put it on when you go to bed; feel the glow of heat from it (no sting or burn, as in the old-style belts), and you feel the nerves tingle with the new life flowing into them. You get up in the morning feeling like a twe year-old. What alls you? Write and tell me, and no matter where you are I think I can give you the address of some one in your town that I have what alls you? Write and tell me, and no matter where you are I think I can give you the address of some one in your town that I have cured. I've cured thousands, and every one of them is a walking advertisement for my Belt. Those who have used it recommend it, because it is honest. It does great work, and those whom I have cured are the more grateful because the cure costs so little.

P.O. Box 425. Dr. McLaughlin: Dear Sir,—Before buying your Belt I had Sciatica so bad that I was unable to walk across the floor. Be-ing persuaded by my family to try one, although I had no faith in it myself, I consented to get one, more to stop them from bothering me, as I had given up all hope of ever being able to walk again. After using the Belt one hour I was able to walk across the room, and in thre days I could walk out doors. Now I claim I am soundly cured, giving Dr. McLaughlin's Belt all the credit. # Dr. McLaughlin: Farnham, Que. Dear Sir,—Somehow your letter has been overlook-ed, but I write now to tell you that my cure has been permanent, and as far as nerve troubles are concerned I never felt so well. As to my Belt, I have not used it for a long time, but it is stil lhere, and allow me to say I would not sell it for five times its cost; not that I expect to use it, but for benefits derived from it. You may use this letter as you see fit. Farnham, Que

Dr. McLaughlin: Port Hood, C.B., N.S. Dear Sir,—Your Belt cured me of rheumatism and sore back a year and a half ago, and I have had no reason to put it on again. You know how bad I was before I got it; I had such a soreness across loins and kidneys I could not turn in bed without catching hold of something. The first night I had it on it was a little better, and I used it as directed by you. This, I think, is part of the cure. I do not state these few lines as a person who does not know what he is talking about. I am not built that way. Yours truly. ROBT. CAMERON. ROBT. CAMERON. Yours truly,
