ARIO.

requested to bear in mind Bank Cheque for the snm of pany each tender, which ited if the party tendering into contract for the execuinto contract for the execu-into contract for the execu-it the rates and prices sub-ct to the conditions and he specifications, sent in will be returned to tries whose tenders are not nt does not however bind e lowest or any tender. y order. F. BRAUN, Secretary.

s and Canals, May, 1882.

NAVIGATION. Buckhorn Rapids and

O CONTRACTORS. DERS, addressed to the unnd endorsed "Tender for i," will be received at this arrival of the Eastern and in WEDNESDAY, the Fifth for the construction of two e Piers and other works at also, the construction of a n Rapids, and for the cone Locks, a Dam and Bridge in Falls.
ch of these places will be let pective localities, together specifications of the works is office on and after WED-wenty-first Day of June next, orms of Tender can be obecased of information orks at Fendon Falls will be at place, and for those at Burle'gh, information may be resident Engineer's office, nelon Falls Work...$1,000 khorn Rapids Work...$500 cleigh Falls work...$1 500 espective amounts shall be arty tendering declines en-tract for the works at the s submitted, subject to the terms stated in the specifitus set in will be returned to ties whose tenders fare not Department does not, how-to accept the lowest or any By order, F. BRAUN, Secretary. and May, 1882. 191-5-w

TO CONTRACTORS.

NDERS, addressed to the dand endorsed "Tender for Thomas, Ont." will be redice until WEDNESDAY, the next, inclusively, for the OFFICE, &C.,

THOMAS, ONT. cifications can be seen at the cublic Works, Ottawa, and at St. Thomas, on and after th day of June. be made on the printed forms nust be accompanied by an ineque, made payable to the torable the Minister of Public Rive per cent. of the amount hich will be forfeited if the the total contract when loso, or if he fail to complete acted for. If the tender be cheque will be returned, in twill not be bound to accept ny tender.

F. H. ENNIS,

Secretary

Public Works, {

to Contractors.

NDERS, addressed to the d and endorsed "Tender for nilton, Ont." will be received ill THURSDAY, the 6th day of usively, for the erection of

OFFICE, &C,

MILTON, ONT.

ecifications can be seen at the Public Works, Ottawa, and at Hamilton, on and after Thurs-unc. be made on the printed forms must be accompanied by an cheque, made payable to the norable the Minister of Public five per cent. of the amount of each will be forfeited if the center into a contract when do so, or if he fail to complete racted for. If the tender be cheque will be returned. ent will not be bound to ac-

order, F. H. ENNIS, Secretary. f Public Works, } 4th May, 1882

PTURE

"CHRISTIANUS MIHI NOMEN EST, CATHOLICUS VERO COGNOMEN."-"CHRISTIAN IS MY NAME, BUT CATHOLIC MY SURNAME."-St. Pacian, 4th Century.

VOL. 4.

LONDON, ONT., FRIDAY, JUNE 16, 1882.

NO. 192

NICHOLAS WILSON & CO., FASHIONABLE TAILORS.

A nice assortment of Imported TWEFDS now in stock.

New Ties, Silk Handkerchiefs, Underclothing, Etc.

N. WILSON & CO.

Afterglow.

To one abstruse conundrum much serious thought I give— Why is it that the good men die, and all the bad ones live? bad ones live?
Or why is it we never know our neighbor's rare perfections
Till his last will and testament is read to his connections?

Ah, then the daily papers spread his virtues

Ah, well-perhaps when I at last beneath my burden faint, I, too, shall win the title of a paragon and tume, or attitudinize like Dr. Mary classic times did not unsex themselves: the Spartan mothers, the Sabine women who saved their infant republic; the mother of Coriolanus, praying for her country; the Roman ladies, severing their tresses for soldiers' bowstrings; all were intensely patriotic, but intensely feminine. As long as the ladies interested in Ireland confine themselves to private meetings for benevolent purposes, we will not grudge the mite given by our church-builders to their struggling co-religionists of the Island

CATHOLIC PRESS.

Ave Maria.

An esteemed friend has sent us the following clipped from the American Israelite, of Cincinnatic

"Pope Leo has protested against persecution. He has written to the Emperor, as well as to the Bishops, that the persecution of the Jews is abominable and ought to be stopped. We feel grateful to Pope Leo for his humane intercession in behalf of the outraged children of Israel in Russia, and record the fact with particular satisfaction as an event of great importance in modern history.

the Jews is in perfect consonance with the feelings of the nations whose religious centre is in Rome. The tenor of history up to the Vistula River is changed for the better. The specter of darkness and absolis banished from the realms of civilized nations. The Pope's epistle in behalf of the persecuted Protestant anti-Semites in Germany, is a document of the highest value

Catholic Review.

We notice some curious proceedings on the part of the Baptist Convention, that is, the Southern section of that body, which assembled in Greenville, S. C., May 11. On the first day, sundry resolutions were adopted, the queerest of which is undoubtedly one offered by a certain Rev. G. A. Nunally, its substance being, in the "whereas," that a "satisfactory" translation of the Scriptures was not in existence, and in the "therefore resolved," that they should "unite their talents and means in giving to the nations of the earth in their respective languages, including our own, the pure Word of God." From this singular confession, we are then to infer that Protestantism, which Chillingworth asserted was the Bible and the Bible They say he was "an honest man—the noblest work of God;"
How good he was, how wise he was, how honest in his dealing!
What tenderness of heart he had, and what a depth of feeling!

asserted was the Bible and the Bible alone, has been so corrupt! On the heels of this resolution, a characteristic scene took place. A couple of telegrams were exchanged between Perhaps the man was one of those—ah, would that they were fewer!—Who all his life ground hard and close the faces of the poor; Who drove his debtors to despair by premature for a forest loss. remaps he was the lordly "head" of some Called "home" by use and courtesy, but lacking all its grace.

Who held his children criminals for every trifling error, who pinched his household half to death, and kept his wife in terror.

Perhaps he was a lawyer death of the preliminary to a long and undignified wrangle about the payment for the telegrams, until the North Carolina delegation stepped forward and relieved the terrified pockets of the bling tries. Who pinched his nousenand and kept his wife in terror.

Perhaps he was a lawyer deep, whose quibbling tricks and words

Helped base executors to rob poor widows of their thirds;

Perhaps a thrifty grocer-man, whose wheedling, false palayer sold toughest steak for porter-house, and chleory for Java.

Sold toughest steak for porter-house, and chleory for Java.

Light line is the south, and who consented to give the convention the benefit of his inestimable wisdom. Among other choice specimens, he spoke of other choice specimens, he spoke of Any of these he might have been—the types are nowise rare—
But when he dies, behold, we passed an angel unaware!
Since type and tongue proclaim his worth, what cynic shall dispute them?
"Many there be who meet the gods," we read, "but few salute them!"

"All the column to convertion the convention of the convertion to convertion the convertion to convertion the convertion of the convertion to convertion the convertion that convertion the convertion th why don't the papers say fine things of men before they die.
And indicate these saintly soals ere yet they soar on high?
Then we might recognize them ere grim death and "cold obstruction" Have made it quite impossible to get an in troduction.

centration of all the agencies of infidelity to overcome the spread of Christianity, the thousands of emigrants swarming to this land with their peculiar heresies and idolatrous practices, and urged the great importance of soun i training and my burden faint.

I, too, shall win the title of a paragon and saint.

And be, when death's cold breath has blown aside life's dust and solling.

A grait, of that superior salt which keeps the world from spoiling!

—ELIZABETH AKERS ALLEN, in The Century. when all sectional lines would join together against the power of Rome Catholic Telegraph.

In claiming woman's rights, and her emancipation from male convention think that if "Rome" tyranny, it is not necessary that she should adopt the Bloomer costhey thence received and still in a Walker. Florence Nightingale and Mary Stanley wielded a better influence on the battlefield, than all measure receive, could hope to live for a moment? Infidels know this; they let these little satellites alone, the vivandieres who have ever been the reigning toasts of French or Belgian regiments. Woman com-

> Baltimore Mirror. A Young woman committed suicide in this city last week. She had been to a picnic the day before, and staid away from home all night. The next morning when she returned to the house, her mother declared that if her father knew what she had done, he would kill her. "I will save father that trouble," the girl replied, and, getting a pistol, she shot herself through the young woman, no warning to train signal to keep them from evil companions, late hours out at night, and vile resorts? Every mother will say—"Oh! my girl would never do such a thing." That is just what the mother of the dead girl would have said if anybody had advised her to put a check rein on her girl. The Pope's epistle in behalf of When the funeral of the suicide took place, the officiating Rabbi, according to a report in the daily newspapers, "did all in his power to comfort the bereaved parents." What could he do? In the face of the commandment, thou shalt not kill, what could he do? Comfort! comfort could he give them?

America.

THE instinct to pray for the dead, Jews of Russia, and as a rebuke to which all true Christians possess, occasionally manifests itself among to the supporters of liberalism, assembly of the Presbyterian Church equality and justice to all, and secures to Pope Leo a bright page in held at Springfield, in Illinois, and the history of Papal administra- we learn from the Cincinnati Herald prayer."

men. All but 115 prisoners can in full: read. It their conscience had been trained at the same time that their mind was educated, would they have become criminals?

Boston Pilot.

A STRANGE and stormy career is closed by the death of Garibaldi. He gained a place in history, but how important a place it is for the future to say. His early years were full of adventures and vicissitude, his middle life of turbulent action, and his old age of bitterness and disappointment. To those not familiar with all his vagaries, it may seem in-credible that the hero of the red shirt, who typified the hostility and cause of the Pontiff whose ruthless enemy he became at a later day. In 1847, while engaged as a soldier of fortune in South America, he addressed to the Papal Nuncio in Brazil a letter that certainly reads strangely in the light of his subsequent career. It was not easy to believe that it was Garibaldi who wrote thus: "If, then, to-day, men who have some practise in the use of arms should prove acceptable to his holiness, it is scarcely needful to say In 1847, while engaged as a soldier of fortune in South America, he adholiness, it is scarcely needful to say that we shall gladly consecrate ourselves to the service of him who is doing so much for the country and the Church. We shall, indeed, deem

The rumors about dissension in the Irish party have been bluntly refuted by Treasurer Eagan in the following dispatch to President Mooney of the American Land League:—"The rumor of division is months of the premulation of this is months of the premulation of this is League:—"The rumor of division is an invention of the enemy. Parnell, Dillon, Davitt and myself, are in Dillon, Davitt and myself, are in surrender on our side.
PATRICK EAGAN.

PATRICK EAGAN.

THE union of Mr. Dillon and Mr. Davitt in the mission to America proves that there is complete union among the leaders of the Irish people. The efforts of the English pressured preligious relationship in the value of the Catholic Church. Some twelve years and preligious relationship in the catholic Church. Belgian regiments. Woman commands universal respect when she is they are doing to stab us in the ple. The efforts of the English press and politicians to injure the position since a dreadful convent story was spread mands universal respect when she is most womanly, when the "eternal feminine" shines the brightest from her brow. The greatest heroines of learning and politicians to injure the position and influence of Mr. Parnell have failed miserably. He stands at the head of a people more determined than ever.

Since a dreadily convent story was spread and influence of Mr. Parnell have failed miserably. He stands at the head of a people more determined than ever.

Church has a life men cannot reach and more united than ever. head of a people more determined and more united than ever.

Baptists like Mr. Gregory have been a long time "uniting." It looks more like progressive division as the murderers of the Irish secretarday by day goes by. There are a les, we believe, was closely related dozen kinds of Baptists alone in to the fact that a tremendous change was about to be made in the Castle department. A London correspondent of the Dublin Freeman writes:-It is almost certain that many important changes, if not a clean sweep. were arranged to take place in the Castle department when the much. lamented Lord Frederick Cavendish started on his short, alas, most unupbraided her with her absence, and happy mission to Ireland. One important appointment had already been vacated. It was certain that the police system had broken down. The finest gendarmerie in Europe was the worst detective and preventhead. Is there no lesson for parents ative police in the world. Colonel in the melancholy death of this Hillier resigned his office, and it was at once offered to and accepted by the conscience of their children, no Colonel Brackenbury. It is almost the most important post under the crown in Ireland. The Inspector General not only commands an armed and highly disciplined body of about twelve thousand men, but almost without control he has the organization of this great force under his own will and guidance. . . . Colonel Brackenbury has just gone the assembly as Dr. Hatfield rose to have, since then, constituted themread the roll of deceased ministers.

The first name read was that of Rev.

Now, if ever an act of reparation L. A. Aldrich, of the Presbytery of Cincinnati. The list comprised ninety-five names. After the reading a hymn was sung, and the Assembly united with Judge Moore in uits which we find in the recentlyissued prospectus of a company that THE penitentiary at Columbus, styles itself Credit Foncier Colonial Ohio, contains 1135 men and 17 wo. Argentin. We translate the passage

At the time when the Jesuits were expelled from all Spanish possessions, the territory of the missions enjoyed the greatest prosperity. Thirty villages had been founded, which harboured a population of upwards of 150,000 people, and this population was entirely engaged in the tilling of the soil and the breeding of cattle.

The expulsion of the Jesuits put a dead stop to this prosperity of the people of the Argentine coast, and the company whose name we have mentioned, in trying to find subscribers for their shares in the French capital, state that it is their object "to take up the work at the point where it was left in 1767." Thus people find it convenient, for persecution which the Church has encountered in Italy for many years, do justice to the paramount merits of the Jesuit order. Would they do so, too, if it were not for selfish affecting the Church they leave one man, the Bishop of Angers, to go always through the brunt of the fight. If the Catholic party in the German and Prussian Parliaments had acted in the same way the Church. We shall, indeed, deem ourselves fortunate if we can contribute aught to the work of redemption initiated by Pio Nono. We speak in the name of our companions, who gladly offer their blood and their hearts to such a sacred cause.

Montevideo, Oct. 12, 1847."

The same way they would never have compelled Prince Bismarck to retrace his steps and enter upon what is termed the road to Canossa. If ever there was a proposal which called or "a pull altogether" on the part of the Catholics of France, whether in Parliament or out of Parliament, it is Mr. Jules Roche's, which may be summarized in the same way they would never have compelled Prince Bismarck to retrace his steps and enter upon what is termed the road to Canossa. If ever there was a proposal which called the catholics of France, whether in Parliaments had acted in the same way they would never have compelled Prince Bismarck to retrace his steps and enter upon what is termed the road to Canossa. If ever there was a proposal which called the catholics of France, whether in Parliaments had acted in the same way they would never have compelled Prince Bismarck to retrace his steps and enter upon what is termed the road to Canossa. If ever there was a proposal which called the road to Canossa. If ever there was a proposal which called the road to Canossa. If ever there was a proposal which called the road to Canossa. If ever there was a proposal which called the road to Canossa. If ever there was a proposal which called the road to Canossa. If ever there was a proposal which called the road to Canossa. If ever there was a proposal which called the road to Canossa. If ever there was a proposal which called the road to Canossa. If ever there was a proposal which called the road to Canossa. If ever there was a proposal which called the road to Canossa. If ever there was a proposal which called the road to Canossa. If ever there was a proposal which called the road to Canossa. If ever there was a proposal which called the road to Canossa. If ever there was

Dillon, Davitt and myself, are in thorough accord. American friends can rely upon it that there will be no meat it feeds on." "Throw about as much mud as ever and generally treated in the most das-tardly manner on account of some breach of discipline. The whole story turned out to be a fabrication from beginning to end. In exactly the same way another similar story has lately been circulated about a certain Sister Lesicka, also an immate of a convent at Cracow, who, it is stated, has almost been flayed alive. The spiritual authorities (who had a right to do so) and the secular ones (who had a not) investi the secular ones (who had not) investi-gated the case, and the only shred of truth the story was found to contain was that there existed a Sister Lesicka, who, how-ever, denies the entire report. There the matter ends for the Catholic conscience, but yet the inventors of the story will hav achieved their end, for something is sure to stick; and before long they will give us a rechariffe of it in Exeter Hall.

The various Protestant sects have egun to weary of their costly and un-Commenting on the evidence of this change manifested in recent conventions of large and wealthy sects, the New York Tritune has the following: There is no denying the fact that much smothered desying the fact that much smothered dissatisfaction prevails of late years in all the churches with this mode of Christian effort. The expense of maintaining missionaries in foreign countries is enormous. There is always the danger that they will prove incompetent. Even at their best, the difficulties of an unknown tongue, alien labits and prejudges are to Ireland to command, and, it is to be hoped, carefully to re-model, the belies. The new Chief Segretary, is to Frenanc to Trenanc to the contribution of Police. The new Chief Secretary is an Englishman. The new Under-Secretary is a Scotchman. The Chief of Police is an Englishman. They are all clever men, knowing a little of everything except Ireland. As to Colonel Brackenbury, fortunately for himself, he is a man of the time."

tributed to that end of the time was a finished to that end of the secretary is an New York or Iowa has to water such a long succession of Boards, secretaries, elerks, missionaries and missionaries wives, children and servants before its healing stream reaches the poor heathen in Burmah or Ceylon, that it is a very small drop indeed by the time it fairly gets to him. These objections have so influenced the minds of believers of late vears that their contributions have ma-

LATEST BY TELEGRAPH.

Dublin, June 6.—The harvest prospects in the counties of Longford, West Meath, Roscommon, and Kings are excellent. Rents are being paid everywhere. A reduction about equivalent to that made by the Land Courts is being universally cranted. granted.

granted.

London, June 5.—In the House of Lords the Marquis of Waterford moved for correspondence in connection with the recent release of suspects. He condemned the action of the Government in coming to terms with Parnell and other Land Leaguers.

Land Leaguers.

Cowper deprecated the release of "suspects" and members of Parliament, and regretted that the subject of arrears of rent was mixed up with the general question.

Liverpool, June 6.—Davitt made a Liverpool, June 6.—Davitt made a speech here to-night and was received with great cheering. He condemned the Land Act, Repression Bill and especially the abolition of trial by jury...

London, June 7.—Davitt in his speech at Liverpool last night said he favored the land becoming national property. He considered the soil of Ireland could be purchased for tonants for £140,000,000 in purchased for tenants for £140,000,000 in Government bonds, payable in fifty years. He denounced Dublin Castle rule as a

He denounced Dubin Castie rule as a monstrous failure.
Dublin, June 8.—Walter Bourke, a Galway landlord, was shot dead to-day.
His soldier escort was also killed.
London, June 8.—The news of the murder of Bourke greated a sensation in the London, June 8.—The news of the murder of Bourke created a sensation in the House of Commons to-night. Parnell and other Irish members expressed regret at the assassination. They stated that the Land League of the Government district

Land League of the Government district ceased to exist six months ago.

A volley was fired at Bourke and his escort from behind a wall as they were riding along. Both fell dead. Bourke was a magistrate, and son of the late Crown Solicitor. He was a barrister, and amassed a fortune in India. He contested the seat of Parliament for Mayo services. amassed a fortune in man. The order the seat of Parliament for Mayo against Nelson. He had disputes with his tenants and recently left London to carry out evictions. A few months ago he entered the church at Carrore with a rifle while mass was being celebrated. The priest ordered him to leave. He escaped by a side door to avoid being mobbed.

London, June 8.—Bourke, who was assassinated in Ireland yesterday, recently informed the authorities that he knew he would be shot. When the news of his murder reached London, his brother went into the lobby of the House of Oommons and accused Parnell and Biggar of being the cause.

the cause.

Dublin, June 9.—Large rewards have been offered for the arrest of the murderers of Bourke and his escort or information leading thereto. Bourke's watch and the soldier's rifle was taken by the assassins.

Rome.

It is said on hearing of the death of Garits said on hearing of the dean of Gau-ibaldi the Pope remained silent awhile, then raising his eyes to heaven he said, "There has gone another figure of the re-volutions. Oh, God! be merciful to

The Vatican organ, Voce Della Verita, says: "Garibaldi was one of the most determined, but also the frankest of our adversaries. Not from him came the heaviest blows and bitterest troubles. He was no hypocrite. May the prayers of his pious mother have smoothed the last moments of her son's agitated

THE CLERGY AND THE IRISH TROUBLES.

Dublin, June 11.-The Irish bishops to seek redress by lawful means. On these grounds the national movement has the approval of the priests and bishops, and even of all just and generous men, without distinction of race or creed; but it is the notorious means often employed that are utterly subversive of social order.
The address specifies these means as refusing to pay just debts, preventing the payment by others, injuring neighbors in person or property, forcibly resisting the law, forming secret societies and obeying the orders thereof. Under each of these headings numerous offences have been committed, fearfully prominent amongst. separated brethren. The "General assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States" was recently held at Springfield, in Illinois, and we learn from the Cincinnati Herald and Presbyter that: "A hush fell on and Presbyter that: "A hush fell on assembly of the Presbyterian Church assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States" was recently held at Springfield, in Illinois, and we learn from the Cincinnati Herald and Presbyter that: "A hush fell on assembly of the Presbyterian Church assembly of the Presbyterian Church assembly of the Presbyter that their contributions have materially fallen in quantity."

GARBALDI has gone to meet Mazzini, have elapsed since the Jesuits were communed disgrace our country and provoke the anger of God and His Church, and the Church still flourishes. Thus it has been from the Cincinnati Herald possessions, including the whole of her South American colonies, which even at the present moment disgrace our country and provoke the anger of God and His Church, and the Church still flourishes. Thus it has been from the Cincinnati Herald data Springfield, in Illinois, and we elapsed since the Jesuits were carefully fallen in quantity."

GARBALDI has gone to meet Mazzini, have elapsed since the Jesuits were carefully fallen in quantity."

GARBALDI has gone to meet Mazzini, have elapsed since the Jesuits were deven at the present moment disgrace our country and provoke the anger of God and His Church, we declare it is your duty to regard as the worst enemy of our creed and country he who would recommend the commission of any one of the Archdiocese. The latter ontributions have man deputies on the country of the Country was a very large one. Partick's went to St. Edward's last week, worst enemied gentlemen were promoted to the Diaconate vesterday morning. The contributions have manurders, which even at the present moment disgrace our country was a very large one. Partick's went to St. Edward's last week present moment disgrace our country was a very large one. Partick's went t of any one of the above-named offences, and the subsequent ceremonies.

We appeal to all to have no connection with secret societies, but oppose them as hostile to religion and freedom. Let us assure you that the national movement purged of what is criminal shall have the assure you that the national movement purged of what is criminal shall have the earnest support of the clergy. A considerable instalment of justice has within the last few years been conceded to tenant farmers; but to them and other classes, particularly laborers, much more is due. It is the duty of the clergy and people to press their claims in every peaceable, just manner, but the clergy can countenance no illegal means, nor be the sowers of dissension. The Bishops express the belief that the late crimes would never have occurred if the people had not been driven to despair by evictions justly described by the Premier as sentences of death, and which must be a fatal and permanent provocative of crime, to which it is the duty of the Government to put a stop as speedily as possible at any cost. The address is signed by Cardinal McCabe, Archbishop McGettigan, Primate of Ireland, Archbishop Croke, Bishop Nulty and twenty-one others hop Croke, Bishop Nulty and twenty one

CELEBRATING HIS FIRST MASS.

Quebec Chronicle, June 5th.

The always interesting occasion of a newly-ordained Priest celebrating his "First Mass," occurred in St. Patrick's on yesterday. The celebrant was the Rev. Eustace Maguire, son of the late Hon. Mr. Eustace Maguire, son of the late Hon. Mr. Justice Maguire. The Rev. gentleman was assisted by his brother, the Rev. John E. Maguire, P. P. of St. Edward of Framton, in this diocese, who acted as Archpriest, Rev. Bernard J. Watters, P. P. of Goderich, Ont., as Deacon, Rev. Mr. Quinnan, P. P. of the diocese of Arichat, N. S., as Sub-Deacon; the Rev. Peter M. O'Leary, Professor of English and History in the Seminary, as Master of Ceremonies. After the Asperges or sprinkling of the by the Deacon, Rev. Father Burke, C. SS. R., ascended the pulpit, and having read the Gospel of the day as above, selected as his text Leviticus xxi—6 and 19, preached an eloquent and very impressive sermon, tracing the dignity of the Priesthood from the Old to the New Law, its powers and prerogatives and its terrible responsibilities. He congratulated terrible responsibilities. He congratulated the congregation in seeing four of its children officiating in the Sanctury on that occasion, and he congratulated, in particular, the wenerable lady who had lived to see two of her sons ministering at God's Altar. Turning towards the celebrant he addressed him in beautiful language, welcoming him into the ranks of the Priesthood in the name both of priests and people, and concluded by praying that he might always be preserved in God's grace and favor. The reverend preacher's allusion to the solemnity of the occasion, speaking from his own experience, was soldier's rifle was taken by the assassins.

Three persons have been arrested on suspicion of implication in the murder of Bourke.

Cork, June 7.—David's Castle was burned by incendiaries lather hight.

Queenstown, June 9.—Davit addressed the crowd before embarking for America to-day. He said the Irish cause was to be won by a strong appeal to justice, not to the wild justice of revenge.

London, June 10.—Three hundred soldiers and police have been drafted in the district where Bourke was shot. Lane and Duhig sang the O Salutaris arranged as a duo in very good style. The St. Patrick's Total Abstinence band were stationed in the chapel of St. Francis Xavier, and played selections before and after Mass and at the Epistle, under the leadership of Professor McKernon. It was indeed, as happily remarked by the preacher, a pleasing sight to the congrega-tion to see amongst those taking part in the ceremonies of the day no less than four young gentlemen whom they had known from their childhood; it was the first time that such an occurrence had taken place within the venerable walls of St. Patrick's. It had been the intention of the Very Reverend Rector, Father Lowekamp, to further solemnize the occasion by a procession from the Pres-bytery, through St. Stanislaus street, to the church, but the inclemency of the Dublin, June 11.—The Irish bishops have issued an address to their flocks promising the support of the clergy to the people in peacefully agitating for their rights, but condemning as the worst enemies to the country the men who recommend illegal courses, particularly those belonging to secret societies. The bishops condemn the recent horrible murders, but believe they were due to evictions which it is the duty of the Government to stop at any cost. The Irish Bishops, in their address, point out what is morally wrong cannot be politically right. It is the indisputable right of the Irish to live on their own soil. It is the right and often the duty of those oppressed either by the State or individuals to seek redress by lawful means. On like feeling was shewn as well as on yes. undone; on the occasion of the ordination of Rev. Messrs. O'Leary and McGratty a like feeling was shewn as well as on yes

His Grace the Archbishop ordained the His Grace the Archbishop ordained the following reverend gentlemen to the Priesthood on Saturday morning in the Basilica: Messrs. J. Beaudoin, C. Boulay, M. Fillon, H. Frechette, A. Lafrance, E. Maguire, A. Marchand, L. Paradis, A. Scott, of the Archdiocese of Quebec, D. Moriarty, of Nebraska; and at the same time raised to the order of Sub-Deacon, Messrs. J. Hudon, M. Beaulieu and A. Rousseau, of the Archdiocese. The latter Rousseau, of the Archdiocese. The latter