HOLY NAME UNION IN TORONTO DIOCESE

The Report of the quarterly meeting of the Holy Name Union held at St. John's Church, Newmarket, last month, contains the subjoined para-graphs which are not only of general interest but may prove helpful and the Northern Baptists were good Protestants, and they at once bagan to protest, with the result that a recent report tells of the utter collapse of the whols inter church move. Just what is back of suggestive to those promoting Holy this buckling of the structure is not quite plain, although the statement Name activities elsewhere :

First Vice President Baker's report of Junior Activities was very thor-ough. The winter's Hocky business was concluded and presentations had taken place. In the Holy Name Baseball League there are thirty clubs playing this summer. A special forture of Mr. Baker's report to the tune of forty millions, reneged, and then proceeded to indicate that they were more strangers than triendly. Eight million dollars was spent in preliminary organization, and but three million dollars clubs playing this summer. A special feature of Mr. Baker's report was appeared to meet the bills. corned with the spring quarterly Holy Communion of the Juniors in the centre part of the city, 1,008 having attended the Mass celebrated by His Grace, Archbishop McNeil, who also spoke to the boys. The boys were given a light breakfast in St. Michael's Parish Hall before going to their homes. In the course of his report, Mr.

Baker exhorted the Saniors to put forth greater efforts in looking after He stated there was a serious lack of interest on the Senior Members part towards the Boys' welfare. "Do we, as individual mem-bers of the Society, as parents, or as Catholics realize our responsibility towards the Beys?" Continuing he stated, "If so, do we practise them ? How many of us have invited our sons to this meeting? Where are they? Do we encourage a spirit of comradeship with our Boys? Let us realize where we stand. Our city is one that requires the greatest caution and watchfulness on our part if we wish to save our bays.
