Rainbow Valley

By L. M. Montgomery

This well-known writer grips your attention from the first page. Staged in her native Prince Edward Island, this novel tells the simple yet sometimes dramatic story of men and women amid prosaic every-day scenes. The six children of Anne Blythe (of "Anne of Green Gables" fame) and their four young neighbors of the Manse are just the sort of lovable incorrigibles that keep the town aghast at their irresistible mischief. $1.60

Mist of Morning

By Isabel Ecclestone MacKay

Readers of "Up the Hill and Over," "The Shining Ship," etc., will find the same winsomeness and spontaneous expression in this novel. The writer has amply proved herself the delightful and finished interpreter of the illustrative beauty of childhood, youth and love's young romance. $1.50

Joan of Halfway

By Grace McLeod Rogers

The optimism of this Canadian sunshine girl will flood your life with her radiant sunshine and you will love her and enjoy the charming romance. $1.50

The Touch of Abner

By H. A. Cody

Author of "The Frontiersman," etc. You will read this novel far into the night. Abner subscribes $1,000 to the Orphanage Fund at an exciting meeting at Glucom. The fact he has no money troubles his wife, but not him. He outwits the scheming Rackshaw, saves his invaluable farm and rouses the community. A very pleasing love story with a spontaneous and contagious humor. $1.50

The Golden Dicky

By Marshall Saunders

Author of "Beautiful Joe"

Do you love animals? Then read this book. Miss Saunders, with her rare understanding of animal personality, reveals how the happiness of human beings is interestingly and beautifully connected with the love of faithful animal friends. The story of the valiant little canary will grip you. $1.50

The Girl of the New Day

By Ellen M. Knox

PRINCIPAL OF HAVERGAL COLLEGE

The challenge to young women with wisdom, vision, sympathy and daring, to enter the different vocations of life and make their lives count, rings clear. Where can they best make their best contributions? The many questions of need, qualifications and the necessary training are discussed in an inspiring and practical manner. $1.75

Optimism and Other Sermons

By the Late Prof. Robert Law, D.D.

Any sermon written by the late Professor will appeal to you because of its optimism and clarity of thought. Sane optimism in the face of the stern realities of life will enable you to carry on with the minimum expenditure of nervous energy and a maximum return of happiness. $1.50

Janet of Kootenay

By Eva McKowan

Staged in Ralph Connor's famous Kootenay Valley, this novel tells the story of a girl, young, enthusiastic and adventurous, who set up housekeeping all alone on eighty acres of wild land. The breaking of the land, the gambol of the colts and calves and the inspiring beauty of this mountain country will interest you. $1.50

Bulldog Carney

By W. A. Fraser

Author of "Thoroughbreds"

Always adventuresome, Mr. Fraser has gone one better. The border land, with its mounted police, its Indians, and its halfbreeds, is vividly set before you and you live with Mr. Fraser in the Western setting that he knows so well. $1.75

The Girl of O.K. Valley

By Robert Watson

"My Brave and Gallant Gentleman" Refined in style and sentiment and touched with warm humanity, this romantic and vigorous character will soon win your admiration. $1.50

Canadian Singers and their Songs

By E. S. Caswell

Sky Pilot in No Man's Land

By Ralph Connor

This book is characteristic of all the other books of this writer that are read only to be re-read time and time again. The heroic story of a man who ministered to men amid the dangers of No Man's Land, holding them steady and true in trying hours. A man's book written by a man's man. The best seller in Canada to-day. $1.50

The Spider Web

By Major Douglas Hallam

In those dark days of July, 1917, daring flying men worked day and night to destroy the German submarines. This book tells the intensely interesting story of the system of flying boat patrols centring round the North Hinder Lightship. No less than forty-four enemy submarines were bombed and the effectiveness of this German menace was destroyed. $3.00

Sister Anne! Sister Anne!!

By Gertrude Arnold

Sunshine, optimism and laughter ring through the hospital halls. Irresistible in humor, it is a joy-bringer of sunshine to the lives of patients, nurses and doctors. $1.50

Reminiscences, Political and Personal

By Sir John Willison

There is in Canada to-day no one better qualified to write reminiscences of the political life of the country than Sir John Willison. For nearly forty years he has been closely in touch with the affairs of the Dominion. For several sessions he was a member of the Press Gallery at Ottawa. He became Editor-in-Chief of the Globe in 1890; from 1902 to 1917 he filled the same position on the Toronto News. He writes intimately and entertainingly of personalities and of questions that are, to many of us, becoming matters of history. $4.50

The Trail of a Sourdough

By Charles E. Royal

Charles Royal is known all along the Pacific from San Francisco to the Yukon, as a versatile and prolific songwriter and a successful theatrical manager. His songs are sung and his verses recited in concert hall and theatre in almost every city and town of the coast. In this book he pictures the wealth of scenic beauty of mountain, river and ocean, and the quaint daring and curious characters of the Northland. $1.50
