when they went home to their dinner, because she was very fond of a kind old man who was one of them. When he looked from his door he saw her sitting on a log waiting for him, and invited her to go into the cottage. She looked in, saw the strange faces around the table, and hesitated. When he urged her, she raised her sweet little face, and enquired:

"Is there any mother there?"

"Yes, my dear; there is a mother here," he answered.

"Oh! then I am not afraid if there is a mother there."
