Robin Hood Flour Is Different

If, Madam, we could take you right into our Model Bakery at the Mill, where all our tests are made, you would see exactly what we mean when we say, "Robin Hood Flour is Different."

You would see how favorably it compares with other flours in respect to color.

Its superior quality would be plainly visible to you.

You would quicker realize why you are to add more water than usual when using it.

The bigger loaf made by it would lie before you. Seeing it, you would note its closer texture—no waste. Tasting it, you would admire its finer flavor.

In short, you would surely decide that you ought to start using Robin Hood Flour right away.

But, Madam, if you cannot come to our Bakery, we can help you to have better Baking Results of your own.

Use Robin Hood Flour yourself, and prove that what we claim for it is true.

We supply the flour-quality. We give the guarantee. It is up to you to get the benefit.

Have you asked your grocer about our Money-back-guarantee yet?

STRIKES MADE EASILY

A strike for higher wages or shorter hours or more or better food is comprehensible, but one has to go to Mexico, writes Mr. C. M. Flandrau, in 'Viva, Mexico!' for a strike that involves neither a question of material advantage nor of abstract principle. One afternoon, during the busiest season of the year on a coffee-ranch, all the coffee-pickers, with the exception of one family, suddenly struck. When asked what the trouble was, the spokesman, in a florid and pompous address, declared that they were all 'brothers, and must pick together, or not at all.'

It came out during the interview that the father of the family who had not struck had received permission for himself, his wife and six small children to pick in a block of coffee by themselves, and to this the others had been induced to object.

Why they objected they could not say, because they did not know. It was explained to them that the man had wished his family to work apart for the sole and sensible reason that, first, he and his wife could take better care of the children when they were not scattered among the crowd; and secondly, that as the trees of the particular block he had asked to be allowed to pick in were younger and smaller than the others, the children had less difficulty in reaching the branches. He had not only derived no financial advantage from the change, he was voluntarily making some sacrifice by going to pick where the coffee, owing to the youth of the trees, was less abundant.

'Don't you see that this is the truth and all there is to it?' the strikers were asked.

'Yes.'

'And now that it has been explained won't you go back to work?'

'No.'

'But why not?'

'Because.'

'Because what?'

'Because we must all pick together.'
