What the Champion Shorthand Writer of the World says of ISAAC PITMAN SHORTHAND

"I have not always been a follower of Isaac Pitman Shorthand, for there was a time, very early in my career, when I took up the study of Pernin light-line and connective vowel shorthand; but after three months' faithful study and practice I was convinced that, for simplicity, grace of outline, ease of execution, brevity and legibility, light-line shorthand could never compare with the system of shorthand laid down in the Isaac Pitman text-book."

—Nathan Behrin, Official Stenographer, Supreme Court, New York City.
