Temperance Campaign Had Little Effect on Conservative Majority

GALT, June 30 .- By a majority of 899, 97 less than George Pattinson received in the 1911 election, and which it was predicted could not be anywhere near repeated, Z. A. Hall, manufacturer, of Hespeler, was returned as Conservative representative for South Waterloo. Despite a very active campaign by the temperance party in the interests of A. E. Buchanan, Liberal candidate, the majority in Galt was 300, only three less than in the preceding contest.
