LONDON WINS IN FOURTEEN INNINGS

London, Ont., June 19.—It took London fourteen innings to defeat St. Thomas yesterday by a score of 3 to 0. Score: R.H.E. St. Thomas—000200000000—2 6 2 London—1001000000000—3 14 4

HAMS IN SECOND PLACE

Hamilton, June 19.—Roberts went a bit wobbly in the sixth yesterday with the result that Hamilton got four runs. This proved enough, although Ottawa was fighting to the finish. Score: R.H.E. Ottawa—001000000—2 6 1 Hamilton—000004000—4 5 1

MAPLE LEAFS WINNING

Guelph, June 19.—Guelph outbatted and outfielded the Leafs again yesterday and won by 9 to 5. Close, who twirled for the visitors, was hit hard, whereas Dorbeck pitched a steady game, and was tight in the pinches. Score: R.H.E. Guelph—020 000 030—5 7 4 Leafs—220 210 11X—9 11 1

Close and Lamond; Dorbeck and Harkins.

Manager Warner is not satisfied that all the Brants are trying, and he has reported several of them to President Nelson, with the result that the shirkers will likely be benched without pay, if they do not get out and exert themselves in the immediate future. "Slab" contended that nine errors should never have been chalked up against the Indians on Wednesday if every man had been out to win, and he saw no reason why, with Close's good work, the Brants should lose out yesterday. Therefore, the bench suspensions are looming up, and some

Philadelphia, June 19.—Felsch's batting and fielding and four double plays were the features of yesterday's game in which Chicago defeated Philadelphia 11 to 4. In addition to driving in three runners with a homer, Felsch figured in the scoring of three other runs and he broke up a batting rally by the home team in the fifth inning by a wonderful one-hand running catch off Walsh's bat after which he doubled up a runner at first base. McAvoy was badly spiked above the right knee in the eighth, and was carried off the field. Score: R.H.E. Chicago—012401111—11 12 2 Philadelphia—200000020—4 8 0 three runs to one. It was a pitchers' duel, Hamilton allowing fewer hits than Foster, but being less effective in the pinches. Score: R.H.E. St. Louis—010000000—1 7 1 Boston—010020000—3 6 2

At Washington—Detroit ran the bases at will yesterday, and aided by Boehling's wildness and Williams' three errors, defeated Washington 5 to 3, making it two straight games.

JEROME TRAVERS IS NEW U. S. CHAMPION

Short Hills, N.J., June 19.—Jerome D. Travers yesterday won the national open golf championship of the United States, this being the second time in the history of the United States Golf Association that the honor has been won by an amateur. Travers' score was 297, Tom McNamara was second with 298, and Robert McDonald, Buffalo, third, with a card of 300.

Travers has won four national amateur and five Metropolitan, as well as several other important golf championships, but his heart's desire was gratified when he added the "open" to his long list of victories. The winner won his honors cleverly from a field of 140 of the best professional and leading amateur golfers in this country.

The competition was international in character, although the European war had prevented Vardon, Ray and seven other English and Scotch experts from coming to take part in it.

Louis Teller, a former French open champion, and A. J. Sanderson, of Boulogne, France; Ben Sayers from North Berwick, Scotland, and Dan. Kenny of Hamilton, Ont., were among the contestants and one of them—Teller—was a prominent factor up to the final stage of the contest, as he finished with a score of 301, in a tie for the fourth and fifth cash prizes with the western open champion, Jas. M. Barnes of Whitmarsh Valley, Pa.

McNamara also played a great game, and so did the third man, Robert G. McDonald, always a prominent contender, while Walter C. Hagen of Rochester, who won last year, was unable to keep up with the leaders and finished in a tie with seven other professionals, with cards of 306.

Francis Ouimet, the amateur champion, who won the open event two years ago after playing off a brilliant tie with Vardon and Ray at Brookline, Mass., could not control his clubs yesterday and finished with a total of 317.

Chick Evans, the young Chicagoan, who holds the eastern amateur title, also played disappointingly, although he finished ten strokes ahead of Ouimet.

Incidentally the final round furnished Jim Donaldson, the Glenview, Ills. professional, an opportunity of establishing a new record of 70 strokes for the Baltusrol course, although the effort came too late to get him a place among the prize winners.

VAUQUEVOY PLAYERS GO OUT ON STRIKE

Vancouver, B.C., June 19.—Seven of the Vancouver ball players, sympathizing with Outfielder Pappa, who was fined and indefinitely suspended, by President Brown of the Vancouver club at Victoria on Wednesday, refused to play yesterday in the game scheduled with Victoria unless Brown either rescinded the suspension or permitted the fine. Brown refused and the seven players declined to play.

President Brown announced last night that he will fill the places of the striking players at once.
