The I O.O.F. Brethren Congratulate Grand Master Lewis

n His Recent Plevation -A Compli mentary Address and Many

The proceedings at the regular meeting of Chatham (Lodge No. 29, L. O. O. F. last night were marked by an event which will have a pleasing and lasting impression upon the minds of the officers and members for some time. It will be remembered that Chatham Lodge was figurered at the Grand

It will be remembered that Chatham Lodge was honored at the Grand Lodge in Hamilton, by the election of O. L. Lewis to the high office of Grand Master, and it was therefore quite impossible that the local brethren should let slip the opportunity of showing the new Grand Master their appreciation of the distinction which had been conferred, not only upon him, but upon the whole lodge.

The attendance last night was unusually large and (when Grand Master Lewis entered he was given a rousing reception. (When all had given vent to their feelings in this way, Mr. Lewis was "chaired" and carried to the platform, where he was in full-view of all the "members. Highly eulogistic speeches were then delivered by Dr.
McKeough, Isaac Smith, John Turner,
Wm. Potter, A. M. Lafferty, J. W
Webb, and others. Mr. Lewis stood the ordeal well, and had begun to think that the would emerge without loss, when O. B. Hulin arose and read the following address:—

the following address:-O. L. Lewis, Esquire, P. G.,

Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Ontario, I. O. O. F. of Ontario, I. O. O. F.—
Dear Sir and Brother,—The officers and brethren of Chatham Lodge, No. 29, I. O. O. F., wherein you were initiated into the mysteries of Oddfellowship about twelve years ago, extend you a most cordial welcome on your return from the late session of Grand Lodge, bringing with for the second time to our lodge the high honor of having the Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Ontario elected from the membership of our lodge.

f our lodge.
Having served our lodge well an Having served our lodge well and faithfully, you were in due course delegated as one of its representatives to the Grand Lodge, in which you have ever since retained a continuous membership and have brought to abide with us through successive years the Grand Warden, the Deputy Grand Master, and very recently the Grand Master himself.

The Oddfellowship of Chatham has Master himself.

The Oddfellowship of Chatham has been signally honored of late in having residing with us the Grand Patriarch of the Grand Encampment of Ontario, and now the Grand Master of the Grand Lodge, as well as one of the Grand Representatives of the Grand Encampment of Ontario.

Pleased with your attainments, we Encampment of Ontario.

Pleased with your attainments, we welcome you now, the Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Ontario, and we wish you health and happiness with a term of office honorable to yourself and profitable to the Order throughout this jurisdiction.

The Minister of Militia Declines Issue Passes to Two South African Troopers.

Ottawa, August 22.—Trooper Watson, of Katchener's Horse, and Trooper McLean, of the British South African Police, who have arrived from South Africa, complain that the militia department would not grant them free transportation from Quebec to their homes in the Northwest Territory. The Deputy Minister said that not having enlisted in Canada they had no claim on the country. The Minister himself said the men were in no way connected with the Canadian contingents and coulid not be paid out of the two millions voted for war purposes. He recommended their case to the committee haying charge of the patriotic fund.

Martha Browning, upon whom sentence was deferred on Monday, was given six months in the Mercer Reformatory. The Mayor, in sentencing the prisoner, remarked that he had investigated her general reputation and was sorry to say that she could give long odds to any woman in the city for downright badness. There were really no extendating circumstances, and he hoped that during the six months which she was to spend in confinement Martha would apply all her energies towards reformation. Martha received her sentence stolidly and resumed her seat with composure.
