FUSED JOINTS are to be found only in Hecla Furnaces. In ordinary furnaces the joints between the steel and the cast iron parts are made with bolts and cement. Such joints are soon pulled apart by the unequal expansion and contraction.

In the Hecla this joint is made by fusing the two materials together at a white heat. This joint is everlasting and will never leak gas, dust or smoke.

"Hecla" Furnaces are the only ones with FUSED JOINTS—the only means of having a house free of dust, smoke and gas.

Send me a rough plan of your home, and I will send you an estimate of the cost of installing the proper "Hecla" Furnace. Also a copy of new catalogue of Hecla Furnaces. Write to-day "Clare's Furnace Builder," care of Mr. and Mrs. James Merritt have returned, after spending a few days with relatives at Toronto.

Miss Pearl Arnold, who has been ill, is improving.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. Henry Winters, Tuesday, September 11th, when his only daughter, Miss Minnie Violet, was united in marriage to George S. Crowder, son of Mr. Wm. Crowder, 8th concession. The bride was attired in grey silk and carried a bouquet of white carnations. Byron

Winters, brother of the bride, acted as best man, while Mrs. Byron Winters acted as bridesmaid. Rev. McKelvey performed the ceremony, after which a very dainty supper was served. The table was draped with flowers and ivy. The young people received a great many valuable presents. After supper the couple left for their home on the 7th concession, Chatham Township.

Common ranges make the cool man smile.

The Pandora Range makes the thrifty housewife smile.

Pandora Range

It is comparatively easy to build a range that will make a lot of heat, but it requires the exact science of Pandora Range building to produce a range that will use all the heat in the coal without waste.

A common range may burn twice the coal that a Pandora will, and yet do only half the work.

If you use a Pandora Range you can be certain that your coal money is not wasted, but used.

FROM TEAMING TO MANOR.

Wm. Debar Goes Home to Prove His Heirship to English Home.

From driving a team, even though it be one of Hendrie & Co's (Limited) best, and a residence on Adelaide West, between Simcoe and Dundas streets, to the lordship of a Lincolnshire manor and the ownership of three stately English country houses that are without rival the world over, is a change in a man's circumstances that, coming suddenly, might well disturb his equilibrium. Such a stroke of good fortune has befallen William Debar, says The Toronto Mail and Empire, for some time employed as a teamster by the Hendrie Co., but with typical Lincolnshire coolness, Debar has taken the matter in a philosophic manner, and his wife and family continue to reside at 223 Adelaide West, where he is absent in England completing the formalities necessary for the establishing of his claim with the family solicitor at the market town of Caistor, situated near the estate to which he has succeeded.

Debar came to Canada many years ago and left his relatives in the dark as to his whereabouts, so that all trace of him was lost. After the death of his father the family solicitor advertised for him very extensively, and by accident, he came across one of the advertisements. He had been employed by Mr. D. Burke Simpson, the well-known lawyer of Bowmanville, and he showed him the advertisement and asked him to reply on his behalf. Mr. Simpson, satisfied of his bona fides, took up the case and corresponded with the home lawyer, but the latter, with proper caution, wished undoubted proofs of the identity of the claimant. The best way of furnishing this was for him to present himself to them, and company with Mr. Simpson, he left for England a fortnight ago, and is no doubt at this moment either established in his home or concluding the necessary arrangements to be put in possession.

Mr. Debar was the eldest of a family of four, three sons and one daughter. One of his brothers is dead, and he has left a family, and the sister and other brother are also married.

Mr. Debar himself married in Canada an Irish lady, who, when interviewed by a representative last night, appeared little disturbed by the prospective change in her circumstances, and was as unassuming as if fate had nothing better in store for her than the not over-affluent life of a teamster's wife. The care of her family and her neat little home seemed to occupy her as much as if her horizon had not widened. She is hoping to hear from her husband shortly.

HINDU INVASION OF B. C.

As British Subjects They Have the Right of Entry.

Because of complaints from British Columbia against the invasion of the hordes of Hindus who have made that province their Mecca within the last few months, Mr. W. D. Scott, of Ottawa, inspector of immigration for the Department of the Interior, has gone to Vancouver to investigate the situation.

What Mr. Scott will do when he gets there is a matter of conjecture, and many people. Certainly he will have no difficulty in ascertaining that these dark-skinned natives of India threaten to turn the labor market upside down, at least such is the opinion of labor men, and in all probability the Trades and Labor Council will be able to supply Mr. Scott with ample information on that point.

Hundreds of Hindus have already landed in British Columbia, and thousands more are preparing to come. More than a quarter of a million of these enter into competition with the whites in the labor market, and they are equally non-assimilative. Since the Hindus have arrived in British Columbia in fairly large numbers they have, according to police records, caused more trouble for the police than any other race represented here. Judging by the number of them who have appeared before the local police magistrates, the seditious propaganda and other courts, they are by nature quarrelsome and litigious.

At the present time the Parliamentary committee of the Trades and Labor Council is engaged in investigating the Hindu question, which is fast becoming a grave import. Despite the fact that members of this race are debarred from New Zealand, Australia and Natal, local politicians and lawyers are at a loss to know just how they could be kept out of Canada, because they are all British subjects. The enactment of provincial legislation to shut them out might be disallowed by the Dominion Government as was the case with the Natal Act directed against the Japanese.

Passion For Publicity.

No wonder notice has been drawn at length to the character of the society columns of our journals. The fulsome-ness of the flattery offered to women on their personal attractions and the elegance of their dresses is surely being carried beyond all bounds. It can hardly fall to turn the heads of young ladies, and by filling them with extravagant ideas of their own attractions lay up for them disappointments in the future. It is not on the writers that the responsibility chiefly rests. They are meeting the demand of the day, and they can hardly help furnishing the adulation for which their fair readers crave, more than the milliner can help furnishing the dress which is in fashion, however absurd it may be. The malady is by no means peculiar to Canada. Everywhere there rages the same passion for publicity and self-display. In former days avoidance of display and love of privacy were a note of social grade—Goldwin Smith in Weekly Star.

Need Lead Pencil Wood.

An inquiry has been received by the King's Printer of British Columbia regarding the supply of cedar in that province being suitable for the covering of lead pencils. It came originally from one of the largest manufacturers in the United States through the Dominion stationery office at Ottawa. If there should be any market of this kind discovered the timber would have to be manufactured into lumber before leaving the province.

Suffered for 23 Years With Kidney Trouble.

CURED AT LAST BY GIN PILLS.

Whether you are just beginning to feel the first twinges of kidney pain—or whether you have tried for years to find relief—Gin Pills will cure you. Surely you can't doubt their virtues after such a letter as this:

"I sent for a free sample of your Gin Pills some time ago, and found them to give me great relief, so I put myself under the treatment, and am now using the third box, and feel myself entirely cured. I have freed my kidneys for 23 years. At the time I began taking Gin Pills I could not turn in bed without pain. I moved at night, the pain would be so great that it would wake me up. Now I am free of pain, and feel as well as I did 23 years ago. I feel it my duty to let you know about Gin Pills so that it might be the means of relieving some other sufferer."

"HENRY WAKEFORD, Toronto." Gin Pills hold out a guarantee of certain, quick relief. They will stop the pain—relieve the sick kidneys—and build up the whole system—or your druggist will refund your money. That shows our confidence in Gin Pills. We will do more. We will send you a trial box of Gin Pills absolutely free if you will write asking for it and state the name of the paper in which you saw this. You can thus test them at our expense and see for yourself whether or not Gin Pills are all that we claim them to be. Gin Pills are for sale at all druggists. 50c a box—5 boxes for $2.50. The Gentle Kidney Cure.

Don't think that Bu-Ju is not effective because it does not "tear things loose." The man who talks most, does least. Kidney remedies that purge and over-stimulate the kidneys—upset the stomach—are going to do you mighty little good.

Bu-Ju

THE GENTLE KIDNEY CURE goes about curing you gently, safely, correctly. You never know you are taking medicine—except that you begin to get better and keep on getting better. Bu-Ju builds up the system in the kidneys—drives away that sharp pain in the back and the dull ache through the hips—stops excessive urination—and enables the diseased portions of the kidneys to heal and strengthen.

MR. CARSCALLEN DEAD.

Representative of East Hamilton in Ontario Legislature Passes Away Peacefully on Sunday.

Hamilton, Sept. 17.—Henry Carscadden, K. C., the gifted representative of East Hamilton, and chairman of the private bills committee in the Ontario Legislature, died about 5.30 last evening.

His end was very peaceful. He had been unconscious since Thursday, and just slept away. Bright's Disease was the cause of his death.

The funeral will be held from his late residence, 99 Duke street, Wednesday afternoon at 3.30.

Sketch of His Life.

Mr. Carscadden was a native of Barton Township, where he was born, Aug. 14, 1845, his parents, of U. E. Loyalist descent, having come from Napanee to Wentworth County. Educated in Barton Township and Hamilton, he as a youth decided that he would take to the profession of law. At 23 he had passed his examination for solicitor, but was not called to the bar until 1875, when he became a member of the firm of Martin & Ferguson. On the retirement, shortly after, of Mr. Ferguson, he became a partner, associated, among others, with the present Judge Monk. The firm dissolved in 1881, and in 1882 Mr. Carscadden entered into association with E. D. Cahill. In 1880 he was made Q. C. and during his career, he was connected with many of the leading trials in city and county.

In public life Mr. Carscadden was also prominent. His terms in the city council were from 1879-80, 1884-5, 1890-1-2, 1897-8.

In 1888 he was elected as Conservative member of East Hamilton in the Legislature, when his majority over J. T. Middleton was 830. In 1892 he was re-elected over Dr. Griffin by 150, and in the last election in 1896, again defeated Dr. Griffin by 550.

In the Legislature he was regarded as one of the ablest debaters, and was chairman of the private bills committee.

Mr. Carscadden is survived by a widow and six sons. He was twice married—in 1886 to Emily Gurney, a daughter of the late Charles Gurney, of which marriage three sons survive, Oswald, Henry and George; and his second wife, a daughter of John Rodgers, with three sons, Hubert, Stanley and Arthur, are also left to mourn his demise.

Premier Say Public Loss.

Toronto, Sept. 17.—Premier Whitney was greatly shocked when apprised of the death of Mr. Carscadden, to whom he referred in high terms.

"I have noticed for a number of years, since he was in the Legislature, that Mr. Carscadden was a very capable member of the House, a man of great ability in his profession, who took an active part in the business of the House. Since the present Government came into power Mr. Carscadden was chairman of the private bills committee, and as such rendered great public service."

"I am sure that all members of the Legislature, without respect of party affiliation, will regret very much to hear of his death, which, I think, is a public loss, and that the members of the Legislature will so consider it. The sympathy of all will go to his widow and family."

John S. Dewar is Dead.

London, Sept. 17.—John S. Dewar, for 45 years connected with the editorial staff of The London Free Press, died yesterday morning at his residence, aged 62 years. Mr. Dewar was one of the most prominent members of the Masonic order in Ontario, and was for 25 years on its grand lodge benevolent board.

CAPTAIN MAINTAINED ORDER.

Threatened to Shoot Men Attempting to Escape Wrecked Steamer Oregon.

Valdez, Alaska, Sept. 17.—Passengers and seamen of the steamer Oregon, which ran on the rocks at Hinchbrook Island Thursday night took the life boats the morning after the steamship struck and were picked up several hours later by the lighthouse tender Columbine. The Columbine arrived at Valdez with the passengers and mail yesterday morning. The revenue cutters sent to the wreck have not returned.

The Oregon was three miles off her course east of Hinchbrook and struck the rocks 50 yards from shore, where the bank is perpendicular. There was no chance to land. She slid off until she listed in a few feet of water, with several fathoms under the stern. She is hard and fast aground, filled with water to the second deck and will probably go to pieces in the first swell of the ocean.

The captain maintained good discipline, and threatened to shoot men who wanted to get out in a life boat, after which his orders were obeyed without question, and all got off without accident.

The Oregon is an iron vessel of 1,650 tons net register. She was built at Chester, Pa., in 1878, and has had a checkered career.

Aground in the Pacific.

Midway Island, North Pacific Ocean, Sept. 17.—The Pacific mail steamship Mongolia, a sister ship of the Manchuria, is aground on Midway Reef. The ship is being lightered and her passengers are being landed safely. The weather is fine and the sea smooth.

The steamship Manchuria, which went ashore on Rabbit Island, Aug. 20, has been floated.

Eleven Smacks Lost. St. John's, Nfld., Sept. 17.—The Government yesterday despatched the cruiser Fiona with provisions and other supplies for the fishermen who were shipwrecked in the Straits of Belle Isle during Friday night's gale and later sought temporary refuge with the keeper of the lighthouse on Belle Isle.

In all eleven fishing vessels returning here from Labrador with the season's catch, were driven ashore on the 14th men, women and children aboard barely escaped with their lives. The smacks with their cargoes are total losses.

The Fiona will bring the fishermen here.

NO. 10. MASTER MINDS ON MUSIC

Being the 10th of a series of ten talks introducing sayings of great men, applicable to the Nordheimer Piano, the symbol to perfect music.

The man that has no music in himself, Nor is not moved with concord of sweet sounds, Is fit for treasons, stratagems and spoils —Shakespeare

In this last of our series of what the master writers have said about music we have quoted the familiar words of the greatest English poet. Many times Shakespeare has credited music with being the greatest of arts, and in his day music had not reached the summit of its magnificence that it has today with such instruments as

THE NORDHEIMER PIANO

The "concord of sweet sounds" is but another name for the NORDHEIMER TONE, only the concord is is more perfect than can be realized in any other instrument, for the Nordheimer is now accepted by the Canadian people almost as a whole as the leader.
