A NOBLE ORDER

E. C. F. Wood, of Toronto, addressed the congregation of Christ Church yesterday both morning and evening, giving two excellent sermons. Rev. Mr. Colles assisted at both services, conducting communion in the morning.

BELIEVES IN P. M.

The London Advertiser says, discussing the P. M. R.:—
Around the city hall the arrival of the check, which reached London somewhat earlier than is customary, gave the greatest satisfaction. The city has not been afraid of its rental, but the prompt payment of such claims shows that the Pore Marquette is a money-making road, and is able to meet its obligations. And the city would prefer to see the P. M. have control of the L. and P. R., as it is expected that some needed improvements will be made to Port Stanley if the company retains the citizens' road.

"THE ARRIVAL OF KITTY"

A brand new farce comedy, and one that is created with being the best that has been produced, will have its first presentation here at the Grand Opera House on Wednesday, January 10. The play is under the management of O. S. Williams, who has given a very pretty mounting and provided a cast of unusual excellence headed by that sterling comedy actor, Mr. Fred R. Wren.

Seats on sale Tuesday. Prices 25, 35, 50 and 75 cents only.

"HAVE I TO PAY FOR THIS?"

Question Asked by Toronto Alderman—Kay Co. Sues For Claim.

Toronto, Jan. 8.—The most outstanding feature of the court room Saturday morning at the Civic investigation was the large pile of account books which decorated the barristers' tables. These books later vanished into Judge Winchester's private room.

The first witness was John B. Kay, of John Kay, Son & Co., Limited. He stated that his firm had a contract for furnishing carpets to the City Hall. He had never been approached by any alderman, controller, mayor or civic official while that contract was pending, nor afterwards. Neither had he approached any one.

Alderman Bought Carpets.

About this time an alderman bought a quantity of carpets from the firm. At no time did this alderman refer to the city contract as a reason why payment should not be pressed. Nor had he (Mr. Kay) told any one that such was the case. The only thing that ever occurred was that this alderman, showing the bill to him, said: "Have I to pay for this?" He had mentioned this fact. The firm had to sue for this account.
