THE ACADIAN

WOLFVILLE, N. S., JUNE 17, 1892.

Local and Provincial.

Tuesday was the warmest day of the season.

See the adv. of Professor Young's Sale in another column.

Mr. A. V. Reid successfully passed the pharmaceutical examination at Halifax last week.

Mr. Frank DeWolfe arrived home from Boston on Wednesday evening, on his usual summer vacation.

Miss Leah and Master Ralph Shaw furnish us with the first wild strawberries of the season, which came to our sanctum on Monday last.

It has been decided to divide the Horton circuit of the Methodist church, and in future an ordained minister will be stationed in Wolfville as well as at Lower Horton.

Garfield Tea restores the complexion.

Mr. J. A. Kempton, who is spending a few weeks vacation in Wolfville, occupied the Presbyterian pulpit last Sabbath. He will take charge of a church at Carleton Place, N. B.

Rev. W. P. Begg, of Kentville, is expected to occupy the pulpit of the Presbyterian church here next Sabbath afternoon. He will preach at Lower Horton in the morning.

The summer meeting of the Nova Scotia F. O. A. is to be held at Bridgewater on July 6th. All fruit growers and their help friends are cordially invited, and an excursion railway ticket will be issued at half fare. A pleasant time will be had.

10 per cent. discount off Lap Rugs for two weeks at Patrinquin's.

Next Sunday, June 19th, the service in St. John's church will be at three P. M. Subject of sermon: "How far do the three universal religions—Mohammedanism, Buddhism, and Christianity—Meet the needs of man for Dependence, Fellowship and Progress?"

Mr. D. E. Munro has sold his yacht, the "Pete", to parties in St. John, and she left for there on Tuesday in charge of Captain William Johnson and Mr. F. T. Higgins. We understand Mr. Munro is thinking about building a steam launch, and he may decide to do so.

If you want a noble spring suit, go and see T. A. Munro's new suitings, and have your order with him. He guarantees satisfaction.

The Methodist conference is in session this week at Lunenburg. The following is part of the station list of ministers: Mr. F. H. Wright, Lower Horton; Rev. F. Grimmond, Wolfville; Rev. W. R. Turner, Kentville; Rev. Craig, Berwick.

CONFIRMATION.—The Right Reverend the Lord Bishop of Nova Scotia, will administer the Apostolic Rite of Confirmation in St. John's church, Wolfville, on Sunday morning, June 26th, service at eleven o'clock; and in St. James' church, Kentville, on Sunday evening, June 26th, service at seven o'clock.

The new parlor car, the "Mayflower," has arrived at Kentville. She is a composite car to the "Haligonian" and is said to be a beauty. The company is putting forth every effort to secure and provide for the summer travel, and the way in which the passenger traffic on the road has increased shows that their efforts are appreciated.

On Friday evening last the Band organized, and appointed the following officers: President, J. F. H. H. H.; Secy., T. W. W. W.; Mr. C. H. Borden has been selected as leader. The band is to have a band stand on the College campus. The governors of the College grant permission, and J. W. Bigelow, Esq., has volunteered to bear the expense of the erection.

The death occurred on Monday at Pagan of Levi Borden, an old and respected resident of this province. Mr. Borden was born in King's county in 1814, whence he removed to Pagan fifty-four years ago, forty nine of which he was postmaster. He was also created a deputy-master of marriage licenses, and a J. P. Mr. Borden still survives him, and the aged couple had intended to celebrate their golden wedding on the 21st instant but owing to the illness of Mr. Borden it was abandoned.

Married.—At St. John's Presbyterian Church, Windsor, on June 15th, by the Rev. A. C. Rogers, B. A., Dr. F. W. Ryan and Agnes, elder daughter of Walter Lawson, Esq.

KIRKPATRICK—WICKWIRE.—At the residence of the uncle of the bride, J. R. Stone, St. John, N. B. June 15th, by Rev. Rev. Leander MacNeil, assisted by Rev. Geo. G. Gates, Everard A. Kirkpatrick, M. D., of Halifax, and Eliza Lawson Wickwire, of Canning.

Weston Notes.

Mr. Gideon Hillyer, who has been living in the "West" the past twenty years, is visiting his brother, Clark Hillyer, Esq., and other relations and friends in different parts of the county. Mr. Hillyer expresses much pleasure in observing the improved appearance of the country, and would enjoy remaining here but for his domestic environments.

Mr. Noble Woodworth has the outside of his new barn completed.

Mr. Isaac Clowry is making addition to his barn, putting a cellar under it and otherwise making marked improvements on the place lately bought.

Mr. Jno. Skinner has the finest pair of oxen in the place—they will dress nearly or quite a ton of beef.

Mr. Voochies Skinner is on a visit to Lowell, Mass.

Our surveyor, J. Sanford, Esq., is putting our highways in first class condition with statute labor, under the 10 hours a day system. This is a decided improvement on the old way of putting in road work (1)—vastly lessening the chances of incurring doctor's bills and in getting in the work in half of the time.

The place never looked better, and everybody is in the best of spirits.

Mrs. Craig, of Cambridge, a venerable lady, aged 87 years, who is visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. Hillyer, says Weston is the prettiest place she ever saw.

Mr. A. A. Shaw, B. A., of Class '92 of Acadia, is spending a few days with his parents.

Gaspereaux News.

This community is sharing in the general prosperity. Mr. G. Davidson is building a new barn more suitable to his needs; the old one has been demolished, and the appearance of that locality is decidedly improved, or will be when the debris shall have been removed. Mr. Ed. Kinnie has put an addition to his dwelling house. Mr. Lowden Benjamin has displaced an old barn by a new one, which improves that part of the village. Mr. Selfridge is putting up an addition to his house, and Mr. Jehiel Martin is having the foundation laid for a dwelling house. The parsonage has come in for a papering and painting are to succeed each other as rapidly as circumstances will permit.

About 300 barrels of Gaspereaux are being shipped for the West India trade. Messrs Isaac N. Coldwell of this place and Charles O'Leary of White Rock have been buying up for this market.

We feel honored in having one of our young ladies—Miss Lena Benjamin—taking the place of valedictorian of the class that recently graduated from the Seminary at Wolfville.

The storm of Tuesday evening was very severe in the valley. A good many fruit trees were blown down or injured, and one section of Mr. Gettridge's famous oak was prostrated. Windows were broken in several houses. It is reported that Andrew Duncanson lost 60 panes of glass. The front window of the church was badly shattered by a limb from a tree on the opposite side of the road. A barn belonging to Mr. Charles Coldwell on the ridge was blown down, a cow and calf were rescued in the morning from the debris, slightly injured.

Minard's Lignum for sale everywhere.

Died.
