The efforts have been very successful, and they have now a nice little sum towards the end in view. On Friday evening the society held a dance at McCreary's halls by invitation. The premises were kindly granted to the society by the proprietor for the occasion. They were beautifully decorated with evergreens and maples. There were about 80 couples present and they thoroughly enjoyed themselves. The evening was served by the ladies of the West End Club, and the entertainment was a very pleasant one. DECORATION DAY.
For a time Decoration Day among the different societies has been sadly neglected, and had almost become a thing of the past. Lately the I.O.O.F., who first started the day here, have again reasserted it, and intend going into it hereafter more extensively. Yesterday afternoon the members of the two city lodges, and visiting brethren, met at the residence of Mr. Geo. H. Bruce, and after being marshalled by Bro. Capt. Clark, they proceeded, headed by the City Band, by way of the cemetery, the band playing sacred music by the way. On reaching the cemetery they played the Dead March and also during the ceremony of decorating the graves. The members on arrival formed a circle in a nice place with the Noble Grand, chapter committee in the centre. As soon as halted, the band and a quartet, composed of Bros. Chas. Kelly, G. J. Bruce, W. Stewart, and R. Towell, led in the singing of the following hymn:
It is not death to die,
To leave this weary road,
And tread the brotherhood on high
To be at home with God.
It is not death to close
The eye long dimmed with tears,
And make a glorious passage
To spend eternal years.
It is not death to fling
Aside the sinful dust,
And rise on strong ascending wing
To live among the just.
Jesus, thou Prince of Life!
Thou chosen cannot die!
Like Thee, they conquer in the strife,
To rest with Thee on high.
After the singing, Bro. E. Sanderson, chaplain, invoked the Divine blessing, when the band played the Dead March, and the members of the lodge, in number, were decorated with flowers and potted plants.

Status of Oronhyatka.
Several years ago a committee composed of officers of the O. F. F. undertook to raise by voluntary contributions a fund to purchase a site for a monument to the memory of the late Chief of the Onondaga Nation, Oronhyatka. The committee has been successful in raising a fund of $1000, and has purchased a site for a monument to the memory of the late Chief of the Onondaga Nation, Oronhyatka.

What the Committee Thinks.
The Foreign Mission Committee, after considering the matter, passed it on to the Assembly with the following comments:
1. That these proposals seem to be due to difficulties which have long existed in the mission, and which have caused the committee great anxiety and trouble.
2. That the college at Ingersoll, which was established in 1857, and has since that time been a source of great difficulty and expense to the mission, and has not attained a satisfactory measure of success, and is hereby recommended to be discontinued.
3. That the college at Ingersoll, which was established in 1857, and has since that time been a source of great difficulty and expense to the mission, and has not attained a satisfactory measure of success, and is hereby recommended to be discontinued.

Hamilton, June 16.—The evening meeting was devoted to the discussion of foreign missions. The Women's Foreign Missionary Society (eastern division) reported last year's contributions to the amount of $10,633, while the society for the western division acknowledged contributions for the same year amounting to $45,513. The eastern division of the Committee on Foreign Missions reported last year's debt of $4,541.11 against the ordinary fund and a balance on hand for 1889 of $2,162.25, against the ordinary fund and a balance of $2,162.25 in favor of the mission. The total receipts for the year for the western division were $45,513. The total largest revenue in any one year in the history of the church.
The sum of $24,000, largely consisting of bequests to the Foreign Mission fund, had been placed to the credit of a special reserve fund, and was intended to obviate the necessity of borrowing to meet expenditures. Five additional have been made since the missionary staff, one missionary going to Demerara, one to Honan and three to Central India.
Rev. Hugh McIlroy, N. W. T., gave a graphic account of the progress of the mission among the Indians of the Northwest Territories. He spoke of the great efforts which have been made to obtain converts, and cited the statements of Ingersoll, who was in the Northwest Territory, and who had been for some time as a missionary among the Indians. When approached by the Presbyterians, the missionaries the Indians would ask if they would pay them more than the money which they were receiving.

WEST END LITERARY SOCIETY.
The West End Club, an organization which has lately come into existence, have been making efforts to secure funds for the erection of a school at No. 22 Duguid street. The efforts have been very successful, and they have now a nice little sum towards the end in view. On Friday evening the society held a dance at McCreary's halls by invitation. The premises were kindly granted to the society by the proprietor for the occasion. They were beautifully decorated with evergreens and maples. There were about 80 couples present and they thoroughly enjoyed themselves. The evening was served by the ladies of the West End Club, and the entertainment was a very pleasant one. The gathering was of a very pleasant nature and broke up early in the morning.

The eastern division of the Committee on Foreign Missions reported last year's debt of $4,541.11 against the ordinary fund and a balance on hand for 1889 of $2,162.25, against the ordinary fund and a balance of $2,162.25 in favor of the mission. The total receipts for the year for the western division were $45,513. The total largest revenue in any one year in the history of the church.
The sum of $24,000, largely consisting of bequests to the Foreign Mission fund, had been placed to the credit of a special reserve fund, and was intended to obviate the necessity of borrowing to meet expenditures. Five additional have been made since the missionary staff, one missionary going to Demerara, one to Honan and three to Central India.
Rev. Hugh McIlroy, N. W. T., gave a graphic account of the progress of the mission among the Indians of the Northwest Territories. He spoke of the great efforts which have been made to obtain converts, and cited the statements of Ingersoll, who was in the Northwest Territory, and who had been for some time as
