An Appeal to sensible men whose pocket books are not hard of hearing

If you could save ten dollars on your next suit without sacrifice of quality, style or workmanship, you would gladly do so. Is not that so?

Well: It is possible now for the first time. Never before could you buy a standard high-grade trade-marked suit much less than $25, but with the advent of a revolution has taken place. It is now possible to get an all-wool, hand-tailored, smartly styled suit at a saving of $5 to $10, for Bachelor Suits are sold in this store at $16.50. More wonderful still they are fully guaranteed

"THE Bachelor" SUIT

Come in—look them over. Pick one out and take it home. If it does not give perfect satisfaction, then bring it back.

Honestly, now—if this was not wonderful value for $16.50, do you think such a guarantee could be given?

SAM BARTER AT THE FRONT

Is with the Fighting 26th; Met and Bunked with Roy Stevens

Dear Observer: I am in Sunny France just a month yesterday and I find it rains, snows, freezes and also has sunshine the same as good old New Brunswick.

Pussy Willows began to sprout before February was gone but last night ground froze quite solid. We see Germans shelling our aeroplanes almost every day, also our boys shelling theirs. The British aeroplanes fly much lower than the Germans do, for gunners seem to be very superior to those. I was under actual shell fire Sunday but one gets used to even that.

I find more home news in your paper than in any New Brunswick paper I can get and I give it a much warmer welcome than any other paper that comes to me. My wife sends me each copy. But I have had no copy since one published in February. I know they are coming some where on the road if they were not in the "Laconia" which went down under the devilish Hun warfare.

I see Roy Stevens here quite often; he is doing well and looks fine. He and I were bed fellows for a time.

Please drop me a line at 26th Canadians, 2nd Int. Batt., London, Eng., Army, P. O. France. I hope all goes well. I note Mr. C— has gone and you stayed. Well done! Do you know I have no word of how New Brunswick election went, but hope we have a new government.

Yours as ever,
S. G. Barter.

[Roy Stevens has been in the trenches for more than a year and a half and has never been wounded. He is a son of Charles Stevens of Hartland and is one of the handful of boys left of the thousand who made up the original Fighting 26th.]

Birnie—Chapman

On Wednesday evening, April 18, a quiet wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Chapman of Florenceville, when their only daughter, Jennie McKenzie, became the bride of John Bowman Birnie of Baker Brook, N. B. The ceremony was performed by Rev. M. H. Manuel in the presence of a few of the bride's nearest relatives and friends. Mr. Birnie is a native of Aberdeen, Scotland, and the bride is a popular school-teacher. They will reside at Baker Brook where the groom is employed by the Fraser Lumber Company.

TWO FIRES CAUSE HEAVY LOSSES

On Saturday afternoon fire destroyed a barn owned by D. E. Morgan and situated on his "back place," a block of land that was formerly the rear of the Moses and Charles Hallett farms. The barn was full of prime hay, and a recently built shed attached contained $700 worth of farm implements bought last year. The destruction to all was entire and there was no insurance. Mr. Morgan places his loss at more than $2000.

On Tuesday, just after the noon hour, an alarm was rung for a blaze in J. W. Montgomery's building in Main street occupied by himself as a hardware store and, upstairs, by Cyr Violette as a dwelling. The fire had gained much headway in the attic and was first noticed coming through the roof by A. G. Baker from his home across the river.

After a few minutes hard work and with the aid of two powerful streams of water, the blaze was under control, but not before the roof and upper portion of the building was badly damaged. The contents of the building were badly damaged by water, and altogether a thousand dollars would be small recompense for the total loss sustained.

OUR BOYS PAYING PRICE FOR FREEDOM

Private Herbert Bradley Gives His Life—Others Seriously Wounded

Private Herbert Leonard Bradley has given his life for the cause of freedom. The sad news came in a telegram from Ottawa on Monday. Private Bradley was a popular lad around the village and, enlisting before he was sixteen, was not quite 17 at the time of his death. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. William Grant of Highgate, and several brothers and sisters, one of the latter being the wife of M. W. White of the C. P. R. He joined the colors in the 140th Bant. and was stationed here with Platoon 15 last spring. He was home for a short time in September.

Private Guy Sanborn, son of Levi Sanborn of Mount Pleasant, is reported wounded in the right shoulder on April 11. He was wounded previously.

Private Guy Webster Mean, son of Robert Mean of Mount Pleasant, is reported wounded by gunshot in the back.

Roy Hallett is reported wounded in the right hand by a rifle shot, this being the second time a Hun bullet found him for a mark. He enlisted from Middle Simonds and was one of the few left in action of the original 26th.

Alexander Curtis Hayward has been missing since April 11. He is one of two sons of C. E. Hayward at the front. A few weeks ago The Observer published a cheery letter from him.

Cecil Karl Flewelling, son of F. D. Flewelling of Avondale is suffering a gunshot wound in the neck. He was with the 104th. William Andrews, who was here with Platoon 15, has a gunshot wound in the wrist. He was the son of an English woman who last summer kept house for Guy Christian and has since returned to the old country.

Death of James Young

On Friday, April 20, James Young passed away at his home in Central Glassville. Deceased was born in Ayrshire, Scotland, in August 1838. He came to Canada in 1864 and settled in Glassville where he spent the rest of his life. Before leaving his native land he was married to Miss Mary Smith who survives him. Besides his wife he leaves three sons, John of Houlton, David of West Glassville and Robert at home; and five daughters: Mrs. Duncan MacDonald of Glassville, Mrs. William Minelies of Monticello, Mrs. Walter Elder of Vermont, Mrs. Frank Beek of New Limerick, Me., and Mrs. George Allen of Glassville; also several grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Mr. Young was a highly respected citizen. The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon, the service being conducted by Rev. M. H. Manuel, and the body was laid to rest in the Glassville cemetery.

Could Not Sleep

Miss Gertrude Pratt, Wolsley St., Barrie, Ont., writes: "I was very much run down and could not sleep either day or night and my legs and arms ached so that life was very miserable. After using six boxes of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food I feel well and strong again."
