The Confidence of the Early Days of the Campaign | Conservative Candidates Has Gone and Constituencies Like York and Restigouche Are Being Abandoned Without the Semblance of a Political Fight-The Liberal Candidates in Queens-Sunbury, Kings-Albert and Kent Also Being Left to Their Fate-Whole Working Force of Party Now Devoted to Saving Other Constituencies which Threaten to go the Same Way.

That Mr. Pugsley and his political supporters in St. John are very uncomfortably disturbed over the situation, as they see it in all parts of the province, as well as in St. John, there is no doubt. These gentlemen have been endeavoring to maintain the appearance of implicit confidence in all that they hear and see as to the progress of their campaign, and their organs at the Winter Port have been instructed to do the same. It is quite evident, however, that the developments of the last six or seven days have been too much for them, and that they are already on the verge of breaking down under the strain. They are now on the defensive in all things. It can be seen in their discussions, in their tactics and in the movements in all parts of the province. They have, for instance, abandoned York and Restigouche completely; they are withdrawing their forces gradually from Queens - Sunbury, Kings - Albert, and Kent, to centralize them for defence

LIBERAL GIVES SOME

ADVICE.

To the Editor of The Gleaner.

Sir,—The Mail in yesterday's issue advertises the political meetings to be held this week in Dr. Atherton's behalf, but gives no names of the speakers. I see that there is to be a meeting held in Marysville on Friday, Sept. 1st. As the next day is Saturday, market day, and we farmers must get an early start for the city, we do not want to waste our time listening to the youths who have been trying to instruct the farmers in other parts of the county how they should mark their ballots on Sept. 21st. I for one do not need any instruction, but there are others who are in doubt about the benefits of this pact, and I think, sir, the party vill lose their votes unless to the men affected.

Conservative Speaker Captured Grit Meeting at Nashwaaksis

Liberal Candidate For York Finds Difficulty in Obtaining Stumpers for the Campaign in This County-The Meetings Billed For Last Evening-Nelson Brown Billed for Nashwaaksis But Failed to Turn up, and Clarence Goodspeed Allowed a Conservative Speaker to Fill in the Time, With Direful After Affects to the Interests of Dr. Atherton and the Liberal Party.

Mr. Kelly talked at length in favor of free trade and echoed the statements of Dr. Atherton that it does not make any difference what flag we live under, and to make the affair complete, Mr. Walsh gave a little recitation expressing the same Athertonian sentiment that it doesn't make any difference what flag we live under.

At Lower Prince William another elecutionist was pressed into service, and the was not repeated. Everything passed along with expressed along with perfect quiet until towards the content of his speech Mr. Goodspeed memrked that Canada had been getting along very well during the past fifteen years or so. "Yes, and without reciprocity," yelled somebody from that it doesn't make any difference and there was a great outputs of appliance. When Mr. Goodspeed somewhat fifteen years or so. At Lower Prince William another elocutionist was pressed into service, Arthur McCluskey, an amateur actor formerly of St. John, joining the troup headed by R. W. McLeilan and S. B. Hatheway. They spoke in the Agricultural Hall to a small crowd and Foster McKenzie was the chairman of the meeting.

The only speaker for the meeting at McKinley's Hall at Kingsclear was J. D. Phinney and his audience included about ten voters from that section of the county and a number of river drivers employed on the corporation drive. There were also some women and a number of boys. Mr. Phinney dwelt for some length on the fact that Mr. Crocket as the representative for York County at Ottawa received more indemnity than he should, although, of course, Mr. Crocket's indemnity is exactly the same as that received by other members of parliament. Herbert Smith was the chairman of the meeting and Coun. David Essenca also made a speech.

Biggest Frost at Nashwaaksis. There was also a meeting billed for anwell, but the biggest frost of the ght happened at Nashwaaksis. here Nelson W. Brown and Clarence odespeed were to speak and an au-ence of about 100 people assembled.

The signal failure of the public meetings advertised for the various sections of the constituency last night form a fair index of the way the fight. In York is going.

Five meetings were advertised by the Liberals for last night in the county and another meeting at the committee rooms in this city was also advertised.

The meeting at the Mouth of Keswick did not take place at all owing to the machine beling unable to secure any stumpers to go there to speak. In this city there was an audience of thirty-three, actual count, and including boys, at the so-called rally at the committee rooms. William Walsh, of stump speech fame, was the chair-man, and the speaker was Michael Kelly, the blind lecturer. Mr. Kelly takked at length in favor of free trade and echoed the statements of fifteen years or so. "Yes and without five to the platform, elected by cong the patch of the platform, elected up to address them. It, was not a very enthusiastic preve outburst of applause.

When Mr. Goodspeed sat down Chairman Pugh arose and said that it was too bad everybody had been so badly disappointed, but they would to have another meeting in Nashwaaksis before election day. He said, however, that possibly there might be somebody else in the audience who would care to address the meeting, and if there was he could have the opportunity. It was then only about 9.20 o'clock, and there were loud cries for Mr. Lewis H. Bliss, who was present, to address the meeting. Mr. Bliss asked if the invitation of the chairman included him, or whether it was meant for Liberais only.

Finally when Mr. Goodspeed said meant for Liberals only.

Finally when Mr. Goodspeed said that he would like to have Mr. Bliss address the meeting, the latter came forward and from that time on the meeting was transformed from a quiet, indifferent gathering into a highly enthusiastic and interested audience, who applauded vigorously and cheered the speaker as he convincingly pointed out the disadvantages that would come to Canada in the ratification of the reciprocity pact. Mr. Bliss had practically the entire meeting with him before he concluded, and a more enthusiastic gathering at a political meeting in Nashwanksis never was seen.

The meeting broke up with enthus

Some of the argument produced by Mr. Goodspeed at Nashwaaksis last evening in favor of reciprocity were amusing to say the least. Mr. Goods apped in the course of his remarks said that it was too bad we haven't got reciprocity now so that the farmers could have the benefit of a larger market, even if prices were not so good. Mr. Goodspeed made this ar gument without a smile.
