S. Actors Ask That Theatres be Closed

on Sunday.

Albany, Oct. 28.—Representatives of the State Federation of Labor, the Theatrical Carpenters' Union and the Actors' Church Alliance this afternoon asked Governor Hughes to direct Mayor McClellan and Mr. Bingham, of New York city, to enforce the law against theatrical performances in that city on Sunday, especially the so-called "sacred concerts," which, they assert, were not bona fide sacred concerts, but merely theatrical performances thinly cloaked or not at all. Governor Hughes told them they must file definite charges in on Sunday. all. Governor Hughes told must file definite charges in writing before he could give them attertion. CANNIBALS IN UNGAVA. Anglican Missionary Tells of Horrors in the North. St. John's, Nfld., Oct. 28.—Cannibalism has been resorted to by the natives in Ungava, according to Rev. Mr. Stewart, an Anglican missionary to the Ungava Bay Eskimos. He says that owing to the severe cold and un-usual scarcity of game, many natives in the remote regions have perished from starvation, and the survivors have have been forced to cannibalism in order to sustain life. Recently the crew of a Newfound and vessel, which was in Ungava land vesser, which was in Ungava Bay, discovered thirty skeletons ly-ing unburied on the beaches. It is supposed that these were the remains of some of the victims of the famine.

Arrested in Philadelphia Last Friday Were Receutly in Toronto.

Toronto, Oct. 29. -The photographs of wo daring criminals who attempted a daylight robbery on the United States sub-treasury in Philadelphia last Frilay and who were captured before they

day and who were captured before they could get away with their booty were received in Toronto yesterday and information asked about them.

The photographs of the men were at once recognized in Toronto, for, strangely enough, both men had been arrested on suspicion by members of the Toronto police force within the past two weeks, one being discharged for lack of evidence against him and the other, who was being held on a charge of vagrancy, forfeited $500 bail and fled.

LOST RUDDER.

Kaiser Wilhelm Der Grosse Was Steered With Propellers.

Plymouth, Eng., Oct. 29. -The North German Lloyd steamer Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, from New York, Oct. 22, for Bremen, by way of Plymouth and Cherbourg, arrived here at 930 this morning, and reported that the loss of her rudder occurred when she was two and a half days out from New York, while a fierce storm was raging. She steamed the balance of the trip to Plynmouth, 1,750 miles, steered by her propellers alone. Her commander. Captain Polack, remained incessantly on the bridge and did not have any sleep until the steamer reached the English channel. Beyond a delay of thirty hours in reaching this port the passengers of the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse were in no way discommoded and she left Plymouth for Cherbourg this morning, without any assistance. ing, and reported that the loss of her market was a record breaker this morning. Turkeys, good, poor and indifferent, overflowed the market. The price was steady, however, the wholesale running 15 to 17c. and the retail up to 20c. a pound. All kinds of poultry was in, and there was a mammoth sale of everything with feathers on. The turkeys this year are not up to the best in quality, and are mostly small. Ducks and geese had good sales, and the latter went up in price a little. Vegetables are plentiful and meat is coming in well. Best beef is selling at $7 a hundred.
