"At the agricultural markets this week there has been no change in English wheat. Foreign wasdull, with an occasional decline of 9d to Is per quarker. Wheat was steady off coast and in rather more de-mand. Two cargoes were taken for the continent and six remain. Business in wheat here and in the neighbouring mark is was quite of a retail charac-ter at unchanged prices. Corn tended in favour of buyers. This market to day was thinly attended and only a small business was done in wheat. Prices were quotably unchanged. Flour was slow of sale at barely the lake rates. Corn, with large arrivals and an indisposition of holders to incur storage ex-penses, was a halfpenny lower." Breadstuffs dull; corn, 4s 3d per cental for new mixed Western.

generally been weak. Holders of grain, however, do not seem at all inclined to make concessions and millers manifest a disposition to stop grinding rather than continue to sell at the ruling prices of flour while paying the ruling prices of wheat. Hence offerings have generally been small and seem likely, in the absence of a change in prices, to con- tinue so. Increased confidence has been imparted to all parties by the rain-fall of the last few days which came just in the nick of time and seems cer- tain to do an enormous amount of good. Stocks on hand have varied but little during the week, and stood on Monday morning as follows:Flour, 9,525 bbls; fall wheat, 38,480 bushels; spring wheat, 128,439 bushels; cess, 11,000 bushels; barley, 25,- 970 bushels; peas, 50,693 bushels; rye, mil; corn, 1,469 bushels; peas, 50,693 bushels; rye, mil; corn, 1,469 bushels; spring wheat, 305,324 bushels; oata, 10,509 bushels; Barley, 65,862 bushels; peas, 15,- 354 bushels; rye, mil; corn, 300 bushels; Dushels; cort, 10,509 bushels; mark; corn, 200 bushels.	some small lots of No. 2 sold at 86cf.o.c., but holders generally stood out for 90c to 31. LONDON, June 9.—The execution of Alexander Solovieff took place at Sf Petersburg to-day. The twenty-four hours which were given him in which to make an appeal for mercy ex-pired yesterday, but his execution was postponed until to-day. It is reported that he refused to make an appeal, knowing that it would be useless. His demeanous at the execution was calm and somewhat dignified. He refused to the very last to make any statement respecting his accomplices and superiors. The scaffold was erected on the great plaza in front of the fortress of St. Peter and St. Paul where Solovieff had been imprisoned and where he was tried and condemned. A large force of the Imperial Guard formed a hollow square around the scaffold in two ranks, one fasing towards the scaffold and the other facing the people who to the number of 8,000 filled in the consolations of religion, but Solovieff firmly refused to listen to the two trations of the plaza.
