

Celebrates His Golden Jubilee.

Archbishop Williams, of Boston, celebrated the golden jubilee of his sacerdotal ordination on Thursday last. The opening event in the celebration, was the celebration by His Grace, of a solemn pontifical mass in the Cathedral of Holy Cross. The procession which preceded the mass was made up of the sanctuary choir of one hundred members, altar boys and acolytes, representatives of the Anglican and Dominican orders, one hundred and fifty seminarians from St. John's seminary, over one hundred priests, the Archbishops and Mgr. Batelli and Cardinal Gibbons. The priests were assigned special seats near the altar, Mgr. Batelli and the deacons of honor, Very Rev. Father Maguin of Baltimore and Rev. Father Rooker on the epistle side, and Cardinal Gibbons, Very Rev. John B. Hogan, of St. John's seminary, and Rev. Thomas Shanahan on the gospel side. The Archbishops and Bishops were in front of the altar, among them being: Archbishop Ryan of Philadelphia, Elder, of Cincinnati, Bishops of Montreal, Chappell of Santa Fe, Ireland of St. Paul and Bishop of San Francisco; and Bishops Bradley of Manchester, N. H., Healy of Portland, Maine of the Catholic University at Washington, Dean of Holyoke, Mgr. McLaughlin of Washington, Mgr. Griffin of Worcester, Rev. Sylvester Malone of Brooklyn and Rev. Peter Haverkamp of Troy, N. Y., the oldest priest in the United States, having seen sixty years of service. The sermon of today was preached by Rev. D. M. Bradley, Bishop of Manchester, N. H., who also spoke eloquently of the life work of the Archbishop, dealing with his labors as "Boston's parish priest."

In the evening the great banquet, complimentary to Archbishop Williams, by the clergy of the diocese, was held in Music Hall. The banquet hall was densely crowded as the cathedral was during the morning exercises. Tables were spread for 1,000, while the galleries were filled with those who had come to listen to the addresses and look upon the chief recipient of honor, Archbishop Williams, and the other dignitaries present. The hall was a bower of beauty, with tables being handsomely decorated with flowers, while the walls and ceiling were covered with bunting, interspersed with American flags and draperies. When Archbishop Williams arrived a roar of applause burst from the audience, which lasted for fully five minutes. It had just subsided when it broke forth again as Monsignor Batelli and Cardinal Gibbons appeared. Gov. Greenhalge was also present. Archbishop Williams took his place at the head of the guests' table, with Cardinal Gibbons and Gov. Greenhalge on his right, and Mgr. Batelli, Ald. Allen and Archbishop Corrigan on his left. After the banquet Father Roman of St. Peter's church, Dorchester, who acted as toast master, opened the exercises with a brief address, ending with the introduction of Rev. Thomas Maguin, who gave the address for the clergy. Hon. Thomas Fitzpatrick followed, responding for the laity of the Catholic Church. The testimonial of the clergy and laity of the diocese was a check for $50,000, or $1,000 for each year of his priesthood. Archbishop Williams then arose to make a response to the address of the representatives of the clergy and laity. His movement was the signal of such applause as has seldom been heard at a public meeting, and it was continued time and time again. The Archbishop began by saying that this was the happiest day he had passed through in fifty years. "But in reply to the addresses presented," he continued, "I have to say to my clergy that I have always had confidence in them and could rely upon them. The clergy and laity have always responded to my call and they have been most instrumental in the success of this jubilee. I have to thank all those who have come to do us honor. The papal legate, Mgr. Batelli, who represents the highest and dearest one to us here. Our hearts are full of gratitude to our Holy Father, the Pope, for his many kind acts to us in Boston. This afternoon I received a gold medal and a letter to myself containing congratulations from Leo XIII. On this, our jubilee celebration, after a day of various emotions, in which I have only been the standard bearer, and when you salute a standard bearer you salute all those who fought with him. In conclusion I trust the union will remain intact, that the country will be prosperous and that dear old Boston will have special blessings."

Mgr. Batelli was the next speaker, and after reading the papal letter, his address was read by his secretary, Dr. Rooker. Gov. Greenhalge of Massachusetts followed. His Excellency paid both official and personal tribute to the worthy and valuable services of the Archbishop as a citizen of the Commonwealth and a leader of men. Cardinal Gibbons was to have spoken on the question of the American hierarchy, but he said he would ask the favor of being allowed to speak of a member of the American hierarchy, J. J. Williams, Archbishop of Boston. After this introduction the cardinal delivered an eulogy on the Archbishop and a historical sketch of the diocese of Boston since 1844. Ald. Allen, who was present in place of Mayor Curtis of Boston, spoke for the municipality. His remarks closed the day's exercises. The celebration was continued on Friday, opening with religious exercises in the morning. During the afternoon the religious institutions of the city were visited.

REFUTES TO MR. L. H. DAVIES ON THE QUESTION OF RAILWAY EXTENSION.

(From Hansard.)

We have listened to a long harangue from the hon. member for Queen's (Mr. Davies) with respect to railway extension in Prince Edward Island, in which he tries to make this House believe that an hon. member who has a seat in the Cabinet of this country, has held meetings throughout the length and breadth of Prince Edward Island with a view to promoting railway extension, and to leading the people to believe that the railways were to be constructed by the government. Now, Sir, I attended some of those meetings myself, and I can assure the House that I am not aware, and was not aware, until I heard the hon. member's speech this afternoon, that the hon. gentleman to whom he referred, the Honorable Senator Ferguson, had called any of those meetings, or had advocated, or promised the construction of railways in the province. The people of the province of Prince Edward Island had a perfect right to call meetings whenever they saw fit, or for whatever purpose they saw fit, they had a right to call meetings for the purpose of promoting, or asking for railway extension wherever they thought it was required; and they had a perfect right to ask the Hon. Senator Ferguson or any other man to come forward and address the electors on the questions of the day, and to put the policy of the Government before them. I think, Sir, that if there is anybody to be censured with respect to the extension of what the hon. member for Queen's called the Southern railway, I think it is the hon. member for Queen's himself, he accuses the Government for bringing this matter up before the electors for the purpose, as he says, of humbugging the electors. But Sir, if there ever was a man who humbugged the electors on a question of this kind, it was the hon. member for Queen's. In 1891 he held a meeting in his own constituency, in a place called Caledonia, where he advocated an extension of the railway system to the Southern section of the country, and promised the electors at that time that when he came to Parliament he would do his utmost to advocate the said railway, but from that time to this the hon. member's mouth has not been opened with respect to that subject. Sir, I say that if any body is to be censured of humbugging the people with respect to railway extension, it is the hon. member for Queen's. There is no doubt, quite a feeling in the province of Prince Edward Island with respect to railway extension, and I think there is great deal to warrant them in looking for the railway. The hon. member for Queen's calls upon the Minister of Finance to proclaim at once what he is going to do in the Supplementary Estimates. Mr. Davies (P. E. I.) has told us Mr. McLaughlin (King's E. I.) Well, I think if Mr. Davies is anybody in this House who is placed in that position there is not a dollar in the Estimates, so far as we have yet seen, to provide for railway extension in Prince Edward Island, it is the hon. member for Queen's. Sir, it matters little to him whether the people of Prince Edward Island have a right or claim to railway extension, he would very much rather not see an appropriation placed in the Estimates, because he knows very well that the policy of himself and his party is opposed to railway extension in any of the provinces. There is no man in this Parliament who has proclaimed more loudly his opposition to railway extension in the request for a grant of $250,000 or any smaller sum, for the proposed international exhibition to be held in Montreal next year.

THE OFFICERS OF THE ROYAL SOCIETY OF CANADA for this year are as follows: President, Dr. G. B. Seymour; Vice President, the Right Rev. Dr. O'Brien, Archbishop of Halifax; Secretary, Dr. George Stewart, of Quebec.

It requires considerable faith and confidence to plant seeds, and it also needs the same virtue to buy them, and when seeds are to be had from practical gardeners that make a specialty of cultivating extensively, most every variety, it would certainly be folly to buy elsewhere. Gay & Son are to be found, as usual, in the market, "Charlottetown, selling the self-seeds they are planting every day for themselves. Vegetable seeds sent by mail at 2 cents per package. Look out for our advertisement for plants, vegetables, annual and perennial flower plants. Address J. J. Gay & Son, P. E. I. May 22nd.

News of the death in Winters, Cal., under very sad circumstances, of Joseph Murphy formerly of Southport. It seems that Mr. Murphy, who had been engaged farming, was driving along the road on top of a high load when the forward wheels of the vehicle caught in a deep rut causing the team to stop suddenly, throwing him violently to the ground, breaking his neck. Mr. Murphy was reading a letter from his sister when he was thrown from the load. The letter was found on the road near where the accident occurred. The deceased was about thirty-five years of age, and left the last day of his life. He was well and favorably known to many persons in Charlottetown.

HALIFAX suffered a three hundred thousand loss by fire on Monday night, and there was not a cent's worth of insurance on the property destroyed. It started on the Intercolonial Hotel, and spread to the theatre, the hotel, and the surrounding buildings. Both the hotel and the theatre were destroyed, and in which were sixty cattle just arrived from Ontario, and were consumed, as well as the theatre, the hotel, and the surrounding buildings. Next to go were the immense coal pier, theatre-work and wharf, on which were a number of loaded coal cars. On the surrounding tracks were a number of empty and loaded cars. A locomotive got the bulk of them out or damaged, although quite a number loaded with coal were burned. The property was owned by the Dominion Government, and the consequence was not insured. The loss is estimated to reach nearly $300,000. Leaman & Co., besides the cattle lost two cars of hay and two of feed. Their loss is $10,000. No insurance was taken on the property. What a very narrow escape. The fire is believed to be the work of an incendiary. It is only a few months ago that the other terminal of the railway was destroyed by fire and the loss of this one means great inconvenience to shipping and commercial circles.

NEWS OF THE WEEK.

William O'Brien, M. P., has been declared bankrupt, and will resign from the Imperial Parliament.

The London Times says the rateable value of land in England has fallen by $2,000,000, or $80,000,000, since 1870. Will free trade make you rich?

A couple of weeks ago a Miss Milburn, of near Dalhousie, N. B., was boiling maple sugar sap in the woods when her dress caught fire, and she was severely burned that she died of her injuries.

John Daniels, of Newbern, N. B., was found burned to death in his woods a few days ago. He had burning brush, and it is supposed he was suffocated by smoke and so overcome that he could not help himself and fell a prey to the flames.

In 1873 John Paraghar, of Chicago, lost $11,000 in a bank which failed. Then he lost confidence in banks and began to hide his savings. The other day he made the alarming discovery that rats had chewed up $5,000 worth of bills for notes!

Bounty was paid on 46,528 tons pig iron made in Canada last year. Of this total, 25,244 tons is credited to the New Glasgow Iron Co., 10,670 tons to the Londonderry Co., and 1,730 to the Pictou Iron Co. The balance was made by two concerns in Quebec province.

The Cobden Club, England's great free trade organization, has become so depleted of money and members that it cannot hold its annual dinner this year. As experience has taught British opinion that there are two sides to free trade as to other things, the Cobden Club has declined in numbers. Sir Richard Cartwright is becoming lame, which may be what makes him savage, too.

In the British House of Commons on Friday Sir Charles Dike asked how long persons were to be employed upon relief works in Newfoundland and the expense of the English taxpayers, and how long the Commissioner will be retained there to give state aid to the unemployed who refused to take the workmen of England. The Under Colonial Secretary replied that the necessity for such would be over at the end of the present month, the duties of the Commissioner would then cease.

In compliance with the agreement under which the British men-of-war withdrew from Nicaragua on condition that the smart money amounting to $750,000 be handed by Great Britain for the expulsion of Conde Hatch be paid in London within thirty days, that amount was on the 16th, deposited in the treasury of Great Britain on behalf of Nicaragua by Senator Christino Medina, Minister for Salvador, who has acted for Nicaragua in London throughout the episode thus closed. Nicaragua had until May 20th to pay the indemnity under the terms of agreement which allowed her fifteen days after the British took place May 4. The payment of the smart money on the 16th closed the incidents which regarded the occupation of Corinto by British marines and the floating of the British flag over the town. Such damages for the use of British ships in Nicaragua as are claimed by Great Britain still remain unsettled.

The closing exercises of St. Dunstan's College will be in the Lyceum on the 19th inst.

about three minutes walk from the charming Morell River with its curious floating bridge, on Wednesday, 26th June, 1895, will be the crowning social event of the season. Proceeds in aid of St. Joseph's Church, Morell.

Morell has long been the favorite sporting ground for seekers of health and rest, and the lovers of the rod and gun. The scenic attractions of the place are so well and widely known that it seems unnecessary to comment upon them here. Suffice it to say that in the last week of June—the most delightful week of the year—the natural beauties of the place will have attained their culmination. These are considerations that should commend the Mammoth Jubilee Tea to all who desire a day of real pleasure and recreation after the hard work of Spring. The preparations for the Tea are on an elaborate scale. The Committee in charge are putting forth all their efforts to make the Mammoth Jubilee Tea eclipse everything of the kind heretofore held in the Province. Already the impression is abroad—and it is a true one—that whoever wishes to take the first, the largest and the best Tea of the season, must not miss the "Mammoth." Thousands of people are expected from all over the country; but ample preparations will be made for all. There will be several Tea tables gracing under the weight of the rarest delicacies of the season. Smoking, Dining tables, to which sea and stream, forest and farm will each contribute its choicest products. Well stocked Refreshment Saloons, Ice Cream and Strawberry Stalls, Bazaar Counters, commodious Dancing Booths, Revolving Swings and other attractions too numerous to mention. A well organized vigilance committee will be on the grounds to preserve good order. In a word, everything should be provided to make the day what it should be—one of pleasure and recreation. An excellent Brass Band will accompany the special train from Charlottetown. In addition to the Band there will be a pipe to enliven the sons of the Heather. Should the day prove unfavorable the Tea party will be continued on the next day. Trains will be run on Standard time as follows:

Wholesale and Retail.
CAN SELL YOU DRY GOODS
Cheaper than we can.
We are the largest importers of many lines of Dry Goods on P. E. Island, and we claim to show the largest, the choicest, and the cheapest stock of the goods we make a specialty of. First of these comes MANTLES.
In addition to the ordinary values shown in smaller houses, we have hundreds of handsome Capes and Jackets bought at less than the usual market price, and which we are now making a lead of. Our Goods are all marked in plain figures—they always were, and always will be. The Jackets shown at $2.95 are good value at $4.50; and at $4.95 we show a sample of garments the value of which needs no puffing, no bragadoia, no misrepresentation. It just amounts to this—they are worth from $6 to $7, and that's what many stores would try to get.
In Capes we show over 100 styles of the latest London, Paris and Berlin fashions.
Dress Goods Slampade
Is another of our attractions. Hundreds of yards of goods regularly worth 48c, 55c, and 63c., are now offered you at 32c., and double width Wool Serges worth 28c. and 32c., are now being sold every day by us at 24c. Handsome Dress Goods were never shown by us than just now. We intend our store to be as busy as a hive of bees all summer, and this is our way of working it.
You could spend hours in our MILLINERY Room trying on Hats, and yet never try the same style on twice.
The large wholesale business we do in Millinery enables us to show you more pretty styles and more qualities of both Hats and Trimmings than would otherwise be possible. We are told that we have the best Milliner on the Island, and we believe it to be strictly true. The quality, the style and the beauty of our Trimmed Goods prove it.
SOME QUEER PRICES.
Ladies' Gloves, worth 30c. 19c.
Summer Corsets, very light 33c.
Ladies' Blouses, worth $1.10 88c.
