al effect of Ros. skuess, and nervgiven it a widedin every case the
"My health is so it," "I am like a do not heeitate to and tried all known lical skill of my acgrew worse, until ing without great kind of work. I e was no hope for surely die; when, catch at a straw, I McGreyor's Species McGregor's Speedy began to improve ro months I was as sold by George derich. Free trial

Lagazine.

nber will begin the e of HARPER'S MAGAnovel, "East Angels," dian Summer"—holdn current serial fiction ral numbers, and will stories from R. D.
P. M. CRAIK. A new discussing topics sugditerature of America contributed by W. D. ith the January num event of the year will ories of papers—taking id depicting obsracterican society as seen at resorts written by ERIODICALS.

Number.
ARPER'S MAGAZINE, for eat cloth binding, will id, on receipt of $3 00 lases, for binding, 50 setpaid.

ROTHERS, New York.

Weekly.

ERIODICALS. PEOPLE 200 KLIN SQUARE car (52 numbers)...10 00

obscribers in the Unit-

OTHERS, New York. RICH

G MILL. son a Robinson & Blinds

LL MINDS OF h, Shingles of every description. E A SPECIALTY. attended to. 1902-1y

LER WORKS EAM FITTINGS

and Boilers

ork and repairs w

& BLACK, .

1m aflame, with a passion which no power could tame, for the girl with the golden hair and fame; and when the village gessips came and whispered slyly in his ear that Susan Brown was rather queer; or when some envious maiden said that Susan's temper, like her head, was a perfect snarl, and a flery red, he only smiled his blandest smile (child-like it seemed, though full of guile), and snapped his fingers at their warning, and all their sage advices scorning, declared that Alas my muse must here proclaim that heard it said, that often in the night it supposed of course the sun was rising, end so they crowed with all their might.

every one in the village 'new her paternal parent was rich as a Jew; in short, in the matrimonial game 'tis often wealth, not worth, that wins; and gold, we see, like charity, can hide multitude when moon and stars were shining bright, our Charles Augustus James St. Clair arrayed himself with special care in Together side by side they sat, and en-his brain, like trees just after a hurricane; and he grew perplexed and ex-ceedingly vexed, like a parson who has forgotten his text, to know what the dickens he ought to say next.

But well he knew it would never do to end his speech until he was through; so, trusting to luck, he blundered ahead, and trusting to luck, he blundered ahead, and these are about the words he said:

"Oh, radiant, fair, and beauteous miss, thine azure lips were made to kiss; and a very world of meaning lies in the golden depths of your glossy eyes, while your ruby hair so sparkling bright, shines on my path like a beacon light"

— But there he stopped, as well he might, for in a rage she rose, and with constant and saized his classic nose, while one hand seized his classic nose, while lines, entitled, "The Horse's Petition to the nails of the other ploughed the skin of his cheek, from the temple to the chin; and she yelled in his affrighted ear, in a voice most terrible so the standard property of the property ear, in a voice most terrible to hear:
'I'll teach you, you base, ill-mannered bear, to be making light of my auburn hair!" And then she gave his ears a box, and madly tore his raven locks till he rent the skies with his piercing cries, and tears of an erormous size rolled down in torrents from his eyes.

But at length by an effort of wild despair, and depriving his head of a hand-ful of nair, he managed away from her grasp to tear; and without an adieu, way he flew at a galloping pace, which I tell you would rival Tam O'Shanter's

Now the watch-dog saw the flying man as down the garden walk he ran, and with a natural belief that he was an escaping thief, pursued him to the gardon wall, where never slacking his speed at all, with ore wild leap he left the ground, and cleared the wall at a single bound; but alas! as he went he left be-neath the tail of his coat in the watchdog's teeth ; and then and there, in that dog's teeth; and then and there, in that terrible tear, ended for ever the love affair between the gallant St. Clair and the circle with the very anhurn hair.

A REWARD—Of the document of the best four linger to any one sending the best four linger to the circle with the very anhurn hair. the girl with the very auburn hair.

to propose, pray be contented with simple prose, for if you attempt to appear sublime by putting your sentiments into rhyme, you're sure to get muddled every time; and ten to one, you'il lose your bride, and perhaps the tail of your coat beside. me years ago in a far-off town there lived a girl named Susan Brown, who, through the country, up and down ob-through the country, up and down ob-tained considerable renown; not for any special grace or intellect, or form, or face, for certainly it would be vain to deny that she was extremely plain.

Her form was remarkably short and atout; her complexion was like a speckl-ed treut; her eyes were the color of well akimmed milk, and her hair like a dony that she was extremely plain.

Her form was remarkably short and atout; her complexion was like a speckled trout; her eyes were the color of well skimmed milk, and her hair like a snarl of crimson silk, tinged with the vivid tint that lies in the glowing autumn sunset skies. In fact, so red, I've heard it said, that often in the night it shed upon the darkness such a glow the neighboring cocks began to erow; for, seeing the light shine out in the night so Sir John Macdonald will now have one consolation. Riel in the flesh can give exceedingly red and uncommonly bright, the birds (which isn't at all surprising) him no more trouble. Never again will Sir John Macdonald have occasion to stand up before an audience and with impious hypocrisy "wish to God he could catch him." Never again will he But Susan had one one saving grace aside from mind, or form, or face, for have to be seech Riel to leave the country, and brice him heavily for doing so. leave the house in humiliation-not daring to vote for it; not daring to vote against his promise.

And yet Sir John Macdonald cannot And, as for as any one could see, only a single fault had he, which was impecutionity; for the truth must be told, that, in silver and gold (like Lazarus of old), he was poor as poor could be. Poor as a pauper without a cent; poor a church-mcuse—during Lent; or even poorer still than that; poor as a country partsonage rat. Yet, despite his poverty, all the same, this youth with the euphonious name declared his soul was all or the sottler and the timber for the country; if I had done at 10.30 a.m. instead of 10.45, as hithereto; and the afternoon train will nencororn arrive in pany, kept the land for the sottler and the timber for the country; if I had done at the land on at 10.30 a.m. instead of 10.45, as hithereto; and the afternoon train will reach London at 10.30 a.m. instead of 10.45, as hithereto; and the afternoon train will reach London at 6 p.m.

Alex. Stewart, proprietor of the hotel at Belgrave, met with a terrible accident have been no trouble, no rebellion, and Riel would have been living peacefully with his family, and I would not have had to decide whether he should hang or I should go. Why was he not hang or the sould and will nencororn arrive in clouds at 10.30 a.m. instead of 10.45, as hithereto; and the afternoon train will reach London at 10.30 a.m. instead of 10.45, as hithereto; and the afternoon train will reach London at 10.30 a.m. instead of 10.45, as hithereto; and the afternoon train will reach London at 10.30 a.m. instead of 10.45, as hithereto; and the afternoon train will reach London at 10.30 a.m. instead of 10.45, as hithereto; and the afternoon train will reach London at 10.30 a.m. instead of 10.45, as hithereto; and the afternoon train will reach London at 10.30 a.m. instead of 10.45, as hithereto; and the afternoon train will reach London at 10.30 a.m. instead of 10.45, as hithereto; and the afternoon train will reach London at 10.30 a.m. instead of 10.45, and the afternoon train will reach London at 10.30 a.m. instead of 10.45, and the afternoon train will reach London at 10.3 still than that; poor as a country parsonage rat. Yet, despite his poverty, all the same, this youth with the euphonious name declared his soul was all or I should go. Why was he not hang or I should go. Why was he not hang of for the murder of Scott? Is this the haunt me, and shall I be,—

"Like Brutus midst his slumbering host, Summoned to die by Cassar's ghost."
.—[Lindsay Post.

. Whenever I feel out of sorts, bilious my liver not working right, or racked with a headache I take Chase's Liver Cure. There is more real benefit from one dose of your Liver Cure than in many bottles of some medicines."- Abominations of the Back Yard. Many back yards are abominations to the eye and nose. One finds in them all which he had paid with an I O U), and sallied forth to meet the maid on whom his future hopes were stayed, determined, without more debate, that night he would decide his fate.

And ailently wandering on his way, and carefully pondering what to say, he framed a speech brim full of lies, such as we know all ladies prize, of features fair, and glossy hair, and mental graces rich and rare, and ruby lips and sparkling eyes. And, being sethetic, and somewhat poetic, and having a voice that was very magnetic, he arranged a chime of pleasing rhyme, which he meant to recite at the proper time in a style that should be extremely pathetic.

Precisely at the hour of eight he entanged at the college and support of Presbyterians. As Mr. Hence display to the selection of the a breadcloth suit, glossy and new (for which he had paid with an IOU), and sallied forth to meet the maid on whom ahould be extremely pathetic.

Precisely at the hour of eight he entered at the garden gate, and Susan met him at the door, while a welcome smile her features were, which made the plan is to have a horshead or large her her features wore, which made the young man feel much more encouraged than he'd been before.

The state of the weight they sat and an income the state of the sta Together side by side they sat, and engaged a while in friendly chat about the weather and things like that, till our hero thought the time was pat for him to the lady' heat with his declaratest the lady's heart with his declama-tory art. tory art.

So, with what composure he could command, he softly took her dumpy hand, while his right arm sought her waist, but he found that it wouldn't go half way round; so, change h waist, but he found that it wouldn't go more than half-way round; so, changing his tactics, he gently pressed her growing head to his manly breast, and began, with a lofty, rhetorical flight, his need to flove to recite.

It is frail, rhyme-ladem boat refuser on memory's sea to float, for he got no further than "Dear Miss Brown," when he found his speech turned upside down, while the words lay criss-cross in his brain, like trees just after a hurri-

Perhaps you are weak and weary, all run down, get tired with slight exertion, feel faint and dizzy, or dull and languid, then you need a good tonic regular to make pure blood circulate, and give you atrength. Try Burdock Blood Bitters—it will not fail you. The Horse's Petition.

Up hill—whip me not.
Down hill—hurry me not. On level road—spare me not.

Leose in stable—forget me not.

Of hay and corn—rob me not. Of clean water-stint me net. With sponge and brush-neglect me

Of soft, dry bed-deprive me not. Tired or hot—leave me not. Sick or cold—chill me not. With bit and rein-O, jerk me not. When you are angry-strike me not

Harry Ricardo, of Toronto, was deaf for eight years, and also suffered with Chronic Rheumatism. After all else failed, Hagyand's Yellow Oil cured both all the control of t afflictions. ternal and external remedy for all painful and inflammatory complaints, 2

A REWARD-Of one dozeu "TEABER Moral: Young men whenever you go your druggest or address]

COUNTY CLIPPINGS.

from all Parts of Muron got on the lieutenant of the volunteer company, has been presented with a beautiful sword and belt, by the members of the company. Mr. Campbell is a very popular and efficient officer—we congratulate him possessed a million or two; and so each impecunious batch thought, for a matri- annesty come up and force Sir John to hands of the men.—[Sentinel. L. H. AND B. TRAINS .- An additional passenger train was placed upon this line last week, thus making two passendwelt this heiress of a mitionaire, there lived a youth surpassing fair, with coal-black eyes and raven hair, named Cuas, Augustus James 8t. Clair; his accomplishments were many and rare, and he point half breads and remedied their bore himself with a courtly air which a modern school girl would declare was special needs and customs required; if I poor hair breeds and remedied their bore himself with a courtly air which a modern school girl would declare was modern school girl would declare was quite distingue and militaire.

And, as for as any one could see, only a single fault had he, which was impecuation in the souther and pany, kept the land for the settler and sa hithereto; and the afternoon train wind depart at special needs and customs required; if I do not have the settler and pany, kept the land for the settler and case in the settler and sa hithereto; and the afternoon train wind depart at special needs and customs required; if I do not have the settler and sa hithereto; and the afternoon train will depart at special needs and customs required; if I do not have the settler and sa hithereto; and the afternoon train will depart at special needs and customs required; if I do not have the settler and sa hithereto; and the afternoon train will depart at special needs and customs required; if I do not have the settler and should be a support the settler and should be a support the settler and sa hithereto; and the afternoon train will depart at special needs and customs required; if I do not have the settler and should be a support to the afternoon train will depart at special needs and customs required; if I do not have the afternoon train will depart at special needs and customs required; if I do not have the afternoon train will depart at special needs and customs required; if I do not have the afternoon train will depart at special needs and customs required; if I do not have the afternoon train will depart at special needs and customs required; if I do not have the afternoon train will depart at special needs and customs required; if I do not have the afternoon train will depart at the aft man's sufferings. He is likely to re- so the Lieutenant Governorship

HURON PARSBYTERY. - The Presbytery of Huron met in Exeter, on Tuesday the 19th inst. There was a good at-General Assembly on the unification of the eastern and western sections of the Foreign mission committee occupied the sorts of litter and refuse, from oyster erable time. W. McIntyre, principal of the Ladies' College, Brantford, addressand, after a few corrections were made was adopted. The next meeting of Presbytery will be held in Clinton the third Wednesday in January next.

Dropsy, Gravel, Bright's Disease.

These common and dangerous comlaints are due to a bad condition of the fluids, unhealthy changes in the blood and secretions—the Liver being equally at fault with the Kidneys, Regulate these conditions with Burdock Blood Bitters, one of the best system renovators known to medical science.

Mr. Cockburn and the Senate.

At the Reform convention in Beaverton last week Mr. Cockburn said his name had been freely used without any authority from him with respect to a mentioned the matter before he had said anything of the subject. A prominent member of the Conservative party, one of considerable influence in the councils of the party, had stated to him that Sir John Macdonald was considering the appointment of two Reform Senators and two Conservative Senators, and had proposed that he (Mr. Cockburn) should be one of the Reformers. He did not Whilst making an earnest appeal to to public on behalf of cab-drivers Lord Hampden also appeals to the cab-drivers on behalf of their horses, commending to their best consideration the following to their best consideration the following that no Cabinet minister had made the proposition to him, but the proposal had been made to him by a prominent Con-servative. His (Mr. Cockburn's) feeling formers, who were not in the House who should be offered the Senatorships, and that he should not accept it, and that was his reply. (Cheers). He did not despise a seat in the Senate, because there were some good men there, although there were some poor ows, and he did not agree with all that was said by the Globe against that body.

Inducessa.

This is an epidemic werse and more was, that there were other men. Re

This is an epidemic worse and more depressing than an ordinary cold, and requires prompt remedies to break it up. Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam is a trustworthy remedy for all forms of Yellow Oil is a reliable in- Is the only instantaneous relief for Neuralgia, Headache, Toothache, etc. Rubbing a few drops briskly is all that is larger scale a very good article may be made as follows: Take twenty gallons W. F. May, formerly of Exeter, has been re-engaged as head teacher of the Granton public school at an increased salary. Dr. Rose, formerly of Londesbors, has removed to Belgrave, has rented Mr. Duncan's premises and will open a drug store in cannection with practice of his profession.

A number of Exeter sports, accompanied by Mr. Shoff, P. M., of Clandeboye, left for the sand hills on Tuesday morning, on a hunting expedition. It is said Mr. Shoff is an old huntsman, and will assuredly cause a deer or two to hite the dust.

D. Campbell, reeve of Lucknow, and lieutenant of the volunteer company, has been presented with a beautiful sword and belt, by the members of the company. Mr. Campbell is a very popular and efficient officer, recognizable him and contents are removed from the fire. Dr. Rose, formerly of Londesbor-, has quartered to make from ten to twelve and contents are removed from the fire There is no getting over the fact, how ever, that such butter costs all it will sell for if we consider the labor it takes. But a supply of this favorite article of 'creature comforts' is a treasure which no good housewife would deny herself merely for the sake of the little extrr labor it requires. - [Baltimore Sun.

Malaria is the action of disease germs in bad air, poor drainage, swampy re-last week, which may be attended with fatal results. It appears that Mr. Stewart has purchased a cow, a rather wild animal, and had just placed it in the stable. The animal was almost frantic with excitement, and when Mr. Stewart was attempting to pacify it, it knocked him down with a toss of the head. It then gored him in the back, and about the legs and groin in a terrible manner, learning the wife through the stable was in office when the Pacific Scandal came up, but he knew better than stay and brave the gathering storm. He jumped into the Lieutenant-Governorship of New Brunswick. As the holder of that sincence, he drew $10,000 a year with ease and dispatch till Sir John got the legs and groin in a terrible manner, of that sheeters, he drew $10,000 a year lacerating the unfortunate man horribly. It also trampled upon his chest and body. He was removed to the house and Dr. McKenzie was called in. Dr. Bethune was also sept for, and the two did all in their power to relieve the poor He is sick and must cease working, and $10,000 a year are turned over to him. As a contemporary fitly remarks, when Sir Leonard Tilley is alive and has not an office paying from $6,000 to $10,000 the 19th inst. There was a good at-tendance of members. A remit from the General Assembly on the unification of lear at hand, and that the Canadian section of the battle of Armageddon is soon to be fought. —[Hamilton Times.

Direct Relief follows the use of Hag-yard's Yellow Oil, in case of Pain, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Lumbago, Sciatica, Sore Throat, Asthma, Croup, and all soreness of the flesh. Yellow Oil is an missionary meetings and exchange of pulpits was submitted by Mr. Ramsay, thing is certain—if they do remain at They will want to read somethin home their minds will crave some stimuand how important it is that they should have only the best literature placed be them. Nothing so pains one as to see a boy or girl throwing away precious time on trashy novels. It is wasted. For a farmer's son there should be a goodly number of agricultural books and papers provided, besides religious and strictly secular ones. If farmers are to be intelligent tillers of the soil, they mus be reading and thinking farmers, and boyhood is the season when habits of reading and thinking are formed.

Years of experience and successful trial have proved McGregor & Parke's Carbolic Cerate the most complete and satisfactory compound for healing Old Sores, Festerings, Ulcers, Cuts, Weunds, Burns, authority from him with respect to a Frost Bites or Felons, and for keeping certain vacancy in the Senate from this out the cold and to cleanse or prevent part of the country. All that he had to say was that some of his personal supporters got hold of the rumor and had Cerate, sold at 25c. by G. Rhynas. Im

Says Dryden:
"She knows her man, and when you rant and swear Can draw you to her with a single hair.

But it must be beautiful hair to have such power; and beautiful hair can be ensured by the use of CINGALESE HAIR RENEWER. Sold at 50 cts. by J. Wilson 1886. AN ILLUSTRATED WEEKLY.

An epitome of everything that is attractive and desirable in juvenile literature.—Boston Courier.

A weekly feast of good things to the boys and girls in every family which it visits.—

Brooklyn Union.

It is wonderful in its wealth of pictures, information, and interest.—Christian Advocate, N.Y.

TERMS: Postage Prepaid, $2.00 Per Year. Vol. VII commences Nov. 3, 1885.

Where apple butter is not made on a CHEAP HARDWARE.

PRICES LOWER THAN EVER

Best Hot-Cut Iron Nails for $2.55 per 100 lbs Best Barb Wire 61/4 c. lb.

This Wire stood a test last spring of 1616 lbs. strain, in the Northern R. R. Car Shops, Toronto BEATING ALL COMPETITORS, I have imported a large shipment of GLASS from Germany, very fine quality, and having corted direct, I can sell 10 per cent. cheaper than ever sold here before.

All my SHELF AND HEAVY HARDWARE is sold on the same cheap basis as above. PAINTS and OILS sold nowhere so cheap as I am selling them.

R. W. MCKENZIE

NOW COMPLETE!

NOW COMPLETE!

A CHOICE STOCK OF

- GOODS

and Groceries

SPECIAL LINES IN Dress Goods,

Shirtings,

and Tweeds.

Highest Price Paid for Butter & Eggs.

GEORGE ACHESON THE RED, WHITE AND BLUE.

Goderich Foundry and Machine Works, Runciman Bros., Proprietors.

CONTRACTS TAKEN FOR STEAM ENGINES, FLOURING MILLS, AND OTHER MACHINERY WANTED Flouring Mills Changed to the Gradual Reduction System, Horse Powers, Grain Crushers, Straw Cutters, Agricultural Furnaces, Stoves, etc., at Low Prices.

All Kinds of Castings Made to Order.

Goderich, Nov. 20, 1884

R. W. RUNCIMAN

Extensive Premises and Splendid New Stock.

GEO. BARRY. CABINET - MAKER AND UNDERTAKER

Hamilton Street, Goderich

A good assortment of Kitchen, Bed-room, Dining Ruom and Parlor Furniture, such as tale Counges, Sofas, What-Nots, Louking Glasses. N. B. - A complete assortment of Coffins and Shrouds always on hand also Hearses for hir treasonable rate.

Picture Framing a specialty. - A call selicited.

BOOTS&SHOES

Beg t. announce to the Public that they have opened business in the above Storin the store lately occupied by Horace Newton Having purchased a large and well assorted stock of Spring and Summer Goods at close figures, we are determine to give the Public the benefit. QUICK SALES, SMALL PROFITS WILL BE CUR MCTTO

Please call and examine our goods before purchasing elsewhere.

Remember the place, next door to J. Wilson's Drug Store.

Custom work will receive our special attention.

None but the best of material used and first-class workmen employed.

Goderich, March 9 1882. DOWNING & WEDDUP

ART DESIGNS IN WALL PAPER

Now is the time, if you wish one or two nice rooms at home; to see Butler oom aper.

20,000 Rolls of the Latest Designs

Beautifu colors and at prices less than very much inferior goods.

are the bost volue in town, and must be sold.

bing a few drops briskly is all that is needed. No taking nauseous medicines for weeks, but one minute's application removes all pain and will prove the great value of Kram's Fluid Lightning. 25 cents per bottle at George Rhynaz' drug between the company of the