

DISTRICT NEWS

WETASKIWIN.

Bulletin News Service. Mrs. Ed. Bailey returned on Wednesday evening from her old home in Cookshire, Que., where she has made an extended visit. Mr. and Mrs. Bailey moved at once into Mr. Wyle's house.

Mr. Kennard was in Daysland the first part of the week attending court. He returned on Thursday morning.

Thos. Ward, of Angus Ridge, has moved his family into the city.

Mr. Smeaton was one of the north-bound passengers on Thursday.

Mr. Grimes has been very ill for some weeks past with dropsy. Very little hope is entertained of his ultimate recovery. Miss Lillian Swanson has been in the city for the past ten days with Mrs. Grimes, but returned to her home on Friday.

Mrs. Bruce and family left on Monday for Vegreville, where they will reside temporarily.

A meeting of the ladies of the city interested in the temperance cause was held in the Baptist church on Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Hyslop, Dominion organizer, spoke very feelingly on the need of this work and based her remarks on the text, "Here is my Father glorified who ye hear much fruit." John, 15-8. She is a very pleasing speaker and her remarks were practical and of a most authentic character. The question was then discussed of taking steps towards the introduction into the schools of Alberta of a systematized study of the effects of alcohol and tobacco on the system. The local branch of this union was reorganized. Mrs. Robert Gibbs was elected president, Mrs. D. A. Sharpe vice-president, Mrs. J. H. Knight secretary and Mrs. John Martin treasurer. The remaining officers are to be held at the first regular meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. Dr. Daly on Tuesday afternoon next at 3.30.

Miss Georgia Cameron, of Lacombe, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Ainslie. K. Coates, recently of the bank of Commerce, Winnipeg, arrived in the city on Sunday last, to fill the vacancy created by the departure of Mr. Davies.

Henry Nelson's friends are glad to see him around again after his recent illness.

Aprons Rev. Mr. Bowring's coming departure from the Baptist apartment here, Rev. C. McFarlane and Rev. W. Stackhouse visited the city on Tuesday.

Mr. Kolb has been seriously ill for some weeks.

Miss Elsie Reddon got a sudden summons to Strathcona and left on Sunday.

The forty club intend holding a dance, on Friday evening, April 24. Mrs. Barrett has been seriously ill for some weeks.

Mrs. Fraser, of Calgary, arrived on Friday evening to visit her daughter, Mrs. James Bradley.

The meeting of the Literary society at the Alexandra school, held last Friday, was exceptionally enjoyable. A number of the senior girls displayed unusual ability in making addresses. They chose historical themes and to serve great credit for the style of their delivery. Mr. Ross, the inspector, delighted the students with the reminiscences of Wetaskiwin school many years ago.

Fire drill was held in the school on Friday and all the pupils and members of the building in 50 seconds—a record breaker for Wetaskiwin.

The tea given by the Women's Auxiliary of Inmanuel church was a marked success in spite of the disagreeable weather. The proceeds were $15.00, and all the duties prepared were disposed of.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Howwood, of Edmonton, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Benson.

Mrs. White, of Baldwinville, N.Y., is the guest of Mrs. Thos. Ruttle. She arrived on Thursday and will stay in the city until Friday.

Cecil Bell, of Edmonton, is in the city visiting his sister.

Chas. Ruttle, of Ontario, is visiting his uncle, Thos. Ruttle. He may take up a home-stead.

Mrs. Bush, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carruthers, left on Saturday for her home on the east line.

Mrs. J. H. Knight was the recipient of a letter from her mother, the late Mrs. J. H. Knight, who died recently.

Mr. Davies, of the Bank of Commerce, left on Saturday evening's train for Edmonton, preparatory to departing for Los Angeles. Mrs. Davies will stay with her parents until her husband is located.

The stone for the foundation of Dr. Dixon's new residence, Mass. has been put on his lot. He is planning putting up a very fine home.

L. E. Rix attended the annual curlers' banquet in Edmonton last Wednesday evening.

Mr. Linden, real estate agent here, paid a visit to Stony Plain last week and was delighted with the outlook there. He is planning moving his family in the very near future. The place is in the midst of its first boom and the prospects are good.

Mrs. (Dr.) Tull, of Edmonton, spent the week end with her parents here.

The young people of the Presbyterian church met at the manse on Friday evening for the purpose of organizing the Knox Athletic club. The officers were elected as follows: President, Mr. McKinley; vice-president, Mr. Kennard; secretary, Miss Grace Spence; treasurer, Mr. Cutler; executive committee, Thos. Hoeg and A. W. Keith. Arrangements were made for opening the courts as soon as possible and to introduce bowling later in the season. The executive is deputed to find out the cost of having a lead of clay drawn as a preventive to the usual abundance of dust. The grass court is to be levelled and rolled.

Wetaskiwin expects a big boom when the new C.P.R. line from Winnipeg and Saskatoon passes through here on the way to the coast of Alaska. A most exciting accident took place here on Saturday morning.

Joe Trez's son, baby Bobbie was driving his father's team under the direction of the regular driver. In some way the reins slipped and the horses ran away. They dashed into a telegraph pole on Lorne street and one wheel was torn off. Proceeding in their career the animals struck a second telegraph pole where the bits were torn out of their mouths and the wagon smashed to pieces. The boy was seriously hurt by being thrown out and lighting on his head. He was carried into Dr. Walker's office.

Wetaskiwin, April 13.

VEGREVILLE.

Bulletin News Service. J. E. Pulkrabek, a farmer living near Brosseau and lately from Illinois, was tried before Magistrate Poyer and Fleming on a charge of pointing a pistol at a man.

Miss F. Harrower, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. P. S. P. Cooper for the last two months, has returned to her home in the city.

Harry Bowtell, homestead inspector, paid a business trip to Innisnew on Wednesday.

Miss Smeaton spent Wednesday in Manville.

Ross Garland and Jas. McCallum have rented the bowling alley from Wm. Keltie for the summer.

Mr. C. Tynen, former proprietor of the Saskatchewan hotel, North Battleford, is in town.

The town debutantes amounting to $13,775 have been disposed of to A. S. Jarvis & Co., of Toronto, at 65.

Jas. McKelvie, of the Western Canada Trading Company's staff, has launched out the implement business here.

A meeting of the Creamery association was held in Rutherford's hall, Saturday afternoon.

At the meeting of the school board, Thursday, April 2nd, P. G. Pitkin resigned his position as trustee. N. Murray was elected to act as chairman of the board.

The nominations to fill the vacancy was held in town hall, Friday morning, April 10th, when West was elected by acclamation.

The marriage of Mr. A. Brett, of Leley, to Miss L. Clarke, was solemnized at the Methodist parsonage on Wednesday, Rev. Mr. Aldridge officiating.

A meeting of the curling club was held in the Fire Hall, Friday night, for the election of officers, and to wind up the business of the season. It was decided to use the rink for a tennis court during the summer.

Mr. Roney, who has been teaching at Penhold, is visiting his schoolmate, Rev. R. Harkness.

The tide of immigration to Vegreville is from the Eastern States. The bulk of the French-Canadians from Quebec has not arrived yet. They are expected to arrive in the near future.

Robert Kelly, of Nainoa, was in town and purchased a lot in Michels road, one mile from the city, on which he intends to build a house.

Vegreville, April 11.

FORT SASKATCHEWAN.

Bulletin News Service. Amongst the visitors to Elk Park this week were Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Beale and Dr. and Mrs. Wilson of Edmonton, Rev. and Mrs. Asher of Vegreville, and Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Baetz. The visitors had a good view of our famous buffalo, they being corralled, some 300 strong, within a half mile of the caretaker's house. The animals are looking in fine condition after their good winter.

The fair and the Patriotic Hill district have already begun seeding. The prospects are excellent for the year.

Dr. Arthur Wilson, of this place, was obliged to go to Edmonton to see a specialist on Thursday last to have his eye treated for typhoid fever.

Dr. Green, of Green & Whitaker, has purchased Dr. Donald's property on government street. This property will be sold through J. B. Adams. The real estate dealers all report an active demand in farm property in this section, but the price offered is small.

Business visitors from the Fort to Edmonton were Messrs. W. A. Wilkin, J. W. Bilson, W. J. Lawson and W. A. Dees.

At the last meeting of the Women's Home Mission society, the following delegates were appointed to attend the second annual Home Mission convention, which will meet in Edmonton on April 28th, the same date as the meeting of the Fort and Vegreville societies.

Under Forbes, Mrs. D. Sutherland, Mrs. H. Wright, Mrs. E. Wilmer, Mrs. A. J. Lee, Mrs. A. J. Lee, Mrs. A. J. Lee, Mrs. A. J. Lee.

Sergeant Holt, N.W.M.P., who has been on duty up north at St. John's during the past three years, has returned to his home here and is busy renewing old acquaintances, all of whom are pleased to see him again.

At the monthly meeting of the school board this week, Mr. S. A. Jackson was elected chairman for the year. The secretary was instructed to order two fire extinguishers and two buckets to be placed in the school building and report to the board of management.

Fort Saskatchewan, April 11.

RIVIERE QUI BARRE.

Bulletin News Service. Preparations for seeding are in full swing in this section. Some wheat will be sown this week and the next will see many acres sown to wheat, oats and barley. Many of the farmers had sufficient seed of their own (rowing but nevertheless to make certain, have taken advantage of the government's seed train distribution plan.

Many homesteaders pass through very dry on route to the great north country. Those who come down in conversation with your correspondent, report most favorably on the fertility of the soil and the great natural advantages of this too little known country. A few days ago twenty-two French-Canadians from Boston, Mass., arrived in this district and all intend either to buy land in this section or to take a further north.

A number of successful farmers have taken place this week of sowing seed of surplus stock, which were eagerly purchased by intending homesteaders.

J. D. Hyndman, Edmonton, Conservative candidate, addressed a Conservative meeting here on Tuesday in Flynn's hall.

Miss Catherine Flynn is visiting at Rose Ridge.

Miss Essie Flynn is visiting here on the part of Mrs. J. McNamara.

Mrs. Vandhaute, who has been on an extended tour through Europe, is expected to home shortly.

Mrs. Cus, who has been ill for some time, was on Saturday last removed to the general hospital, Edmonton.

Riviere Qui Barre, April 11.

VERMILION.

Bulletin News Service. Jas. Hill visited in Manville on Wednesday.

Major Brimacombe, who has been laid up by an attack of indigestion, is able to be around again.

P. Richardson, of Manville, spent Monday in town.

Miss F. Harrower, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. P. S. P. Cooper for the last two months, has returned to her home in the city.

Harry Bowtell, homestead inspector, paid a business trip to Innisnew on Wednesday.

Miss Smeaton spent Wednesday in Manville.

Ross Garland and Jas. McCallum have rented the bowling alley from Wm. Keltie for the summer.

Mr. C. Tynen, former proprietor of the Saskatchewan hotel, North Battleford, is in town.

The town debutantes amounting to $13,775 have been disposed of to A. S. Jarvis & Co., of Toronto, at 65.

Jas. McKelvie, of the Western Canada Trading Company's staff, has launched out the implement business here.

A meeting of the Creamery association was held in Rutherford's hall, Saturday afternoon.

At the meeting of the school board, Thursday, April 2nd, P. G. Pitkin resigned his position as trustee. N. Murray was elected to act as chairman of the board.

The nominations to fill the vacancy was held in town hall, Friday morning, April 10th, when West was elected by acclamation.

The marriage of Mr. A. Brett, of Leley, to Miss L. Clarke, was solemnized at the Methodist parsonage on Wednesday, Rev. Mr. Aldridge officiating.

A meeting of the curling club was held in the Fire Hall, Friday night, for the election of officers, and to wind up the business of the season. It was decided to use the rink for a tennis court during the summer.

Mr. Roney, who has been teaching at Penhold, is visiting his schoolmate, Rev. R. Harkness.

The tide of immigration to Vegreville is from the Eastern States. The bulk of the French-Canadians from Quebec has not arrived yet. They are expected to arrive in the near future.

Robert Kelly, of Nainoa, was in town and purchased a lot in Michels road, one mile from the city, on which he intends to build a house.

Vermilion, April 11.

NORTH BATTLEFORD.

Bulletin News Service. J. H. Norton returned from a visit to Edmonton and Strathcona this morning.

Walter Dobson, who for the past six weeks has been in the city, has returned to his home in North Battleford, after having been in the city for a special audit of the town books from January 1, 1906, to the present date.

The members of the local fire department held their annual meeting in the town hall on Friday evening. Quite a number of the citizens patronized the brigade and spent an enjoyable evening at the affair.

Refreshments were served the evening was spent in dancing.

Immigrants are daily coming into our western country and many are selecting homes in the fertile Battleford district. They come from different ports, representing chiefly European countries. A colony of German immigrants reached town last week.

The meeting was then thrown open to a general discussion of the topic. Messrs. J. L. Crawford and W. H. Hanna being against it, while F. W. Thorath and E. L. Gies were in favor of it.

The meeting was then thrown open to a general discussion of the topic. Messrs. J. L. Crawford and W. H. Hanna being against it, while F. W. Thorath and E. L. Gies were in favor of it.

The meeting was then thrown open to a general discussion of the topic. Messrs. J. L. Crawford and W. H. Hanna being against it, while F. W. Thorath and E. L. Gies were in favor of it.

The meeting was then thrown open to a general discussion of the topic. Messrs. J. L. Crawford and W. H. Hanna being against it, while F. W. Thorath and E. L. Gies were in favor of it.

The meeting was then thrown open to a general discussion of the topic. Messrs. J. L. Crawford and W. H. Hanna being against it, while F. W. Thorath and E. L. Gies were in favor of it.

The meeting was then thrown open to a general discussion of the topic. Messrs. J. L. Crawford and W. H. Hanna being against it, while F. W. Thorath and E. L. Gies were in favor of it.

The meeting was then thrown open to a general discussion of the topic. Messrs. J. L. Crawford and W. H. Hanna being against it, while F. W. Thorath and E. L. Gies were in favor of it.

The meeting was then thrown open to a general discussion of the topic. Messrs. J. L. Crawford and W. H. Hanna being against it, while F. W. Thorath and E. L. Gies were in favor of it.

The meeting was then thrown open to a general discussion of the topic. Messrs. J. L. Crawford and W. H. Hanna being against it, while F. W. Thorath and E. L. Gies were in favor of it.

The meeting was then thrown open to a general discussion of the topic. Messrs. J. L. Crawford and W. H. Hanna being against it, while F. W. Thorath and E. L. Gies were in favor of it.

The meeting was then thrown open to a general discussion of the topic. Messrs. J. L. Crawford and W. H. Hanna being against it, while F. W. Thorath and E. L. Gies were in favor of it.

The meeting was then thrown open to a general discussion of the topic. Messrs. J. L. Crawford and W. H. Hanna being against it, while F. W. Thorath and E. L. Gies were in favor of it.

The meeting was then thrown open to a general discussion of the topic. Messrs. J. L. Crawford and W. H. Hanna being against it, while F. W. Thorath and E. L. Gies were in favor of it.

The meeting was then thrown open to a general discussion of the topic. Messrs. J. L. Crawford and W. H. Hanna being against it, while F. W. Thorath and E. L. Gies were in favor of it.

The meeting was then thrown open to a general discussion of the topic. Messrs. J. L. Crawford and W. H. Hanna being against it, while F. W. Thorath and E. L. Gies were in favor of it.

The meeting was then thrown open to a general discussion of the topic. Messrs. J. L. Crawford and W. H. Hanna being against it, while F. W. Thorath and E. L. Gies were in favor of it.

The meeting was then thrown open to a general discussion of the topic. Messrs. J. L. Crawford and W. H. Hanna being against it, while F. W. Thorath and E. L. Gies were in favor of it.

The meeting was then thrown open to a general discussion of the topic. Messrs. J. L. Crawford and W. H. Hanna being against it, while F. W. Thorath and E. L. Gies were in favor of it.

The meeting was then thrown open to a general discussion of the topic. Messrs. J. L. Crawford and W. H. Hanna being against it, while F. W. Thorath and E. L. Gies were in favor of it.

The meeting was then thrown open to a general discussion of the topic. Messrs. J. L. Crawford and W. H. Hanna being against it, while F. W. Thorath and E. L. Gies were in favor of it.

The meeting was then thrown open to a general discussion of the topic. Messrs. J. L. Crawford and W. H. Hanna being against it, while F. W. Thorath and E. L. Gies were in favor of it.

The meeting was then thrown open to a general discussion of the topic. Messrs. J. L. Crawford and W. H. Hanna being against it, while F. W. Thorath and E. H. Gies were in favor of it.

The meeting was then thrown open to a general discussion of the topic. Messrs. J. L. Crawford and W. H. Hanna being against it, while F. W. Thorath and E. L. Gies were in favor of it.

The meeting was then thrown open to a general discussion of the topic. Messrs. J. L. Crawford and W. H. Hanna being against it, while F. W. Thorath and E. L. Gies were in favor of it.

The meeting was then thrown open to a general discussion of the topic. Messrs. J. L. Crawford and W. H. Hanna being against it, while F. W. Thorath and E. L. Gies were in favor of it.

The meeting was then thrown open to a general discussion of the topic. Messrs. J. L. Crawford and W. H. Hanna being against it, while F. W. Thorath and E. L. Gies were in favor of it.

The meeting was then thrown open to a general discussion of the topic. Messrs. J. L. Crawford and W. H. Hanna being against it, while F. W. Thorath and E. L. Gies were in favor of it.

The meeting was then thrown open to a general discussion of the topic. Messrs. J. L. Crawford and W. H. Hanna being against it, while F. W. Thorath and E. L. Gies were in favor of it.

The meeting was then thrown open to a general discussion of the topic. Messrs. J. L. Crawford and W. H. Hanna being against it, while F. W. Thorath and E. L. Gies were in favor of it.

The meeting was then thrown open to a general discussion of the topic. Messrs. J. L. Crawford and W. H. Hanna being against it, while F. W. Thorath and E. L. Gies were in favor of it.

The meeting was then thrown open to a general discussion of the topic. Messrs. J. L. Crawford and W. H. Hanna being against it, while F. W. Thorath and E. L. Gies were in favor of it.

The meeting was then thrown open to a general discussion of the topic. Messrs. J. L. Crawford and W. H. Hanna being against it, while F. W. Thorath and E. L. Gies were in favor of it.

The meeting was then thrown open to a general discussion of the topic. Messrs. J. L. Crawford and W. H. Hanna being against it, while F. W. Thorath and E. L. Gies were in favor of it.

The meeting was then thrown open to a general discussion of the topic. Messrs. J. L. Crawford and W. H. Hanna being against it, while F. W. Thorath and E. L. Gies were in favor of it.

The meeting was then thrown open to a general discussion of the topic. Messrs. J. L. Crawford and W. H. Hanna being against it, while F. W. Thorath and E. L. Gies were in favor of it.

The meeting was then thrown open to a general discussion of the topic. Messrs. J. L. Crawford and W. H. Hanna being against it, while F. W. Thorath and E. L. Gies were in favor of it.

The meeting was then thrown open to a general discussion of the topic. Messrs. J. L. Crawford and W. H. Hanna being against it, while F. W. Thorath and E. L. Gies were in favor of it.

The meeting was then thrown open to a general discussion of the topic. Messrs. J. L. Crawford and W. H. Hanna being against it, while F. W. Thorath and E. L. Gies were in favor of it.

The meeting was then thrown open to a general discussion of the topic. Messrs. J. L. Crawford and W. H. Hanna being against it, while F. W. Thorath and E. L. Gies were in favor of it.

The meeting was then thrown open to a general discussion of the topic. Messrs. J. L. Crawford and W. H. Hanna being against it, while F. W. Thorath and E. L. Gies were in favor of it.

The meeting was then thrown open to a general discussion of the topic. Messrs. J. L. Crawford and W. H. Hanna being against it, while F. W. Thorath and E. L. Gies were in favor of it.

The meeting was then thrown open to a general discussion of the topic. Messrs. J. L. Crawford and W. H. Hanna being against it, while F. W. Thorath and E. L. Gies were in favor of it.

The meeting was then thrown open to a general discussion of the topic. Messrs. J. L. Crawford and W. H. Hanna being against it, while F. W. Thorath and E. L. Gies were in favor of it.

The meeting was then thrown open to a general discussion of the topic. Messrs. J. L. Crawford and W. H. Hanna being against it, while F. W. Thorath and E. L. Gies were in favor of it.

The meeting was then thrown open to a general discussion of the topic. Messrs. J. L. Crawford and W. H. Hanna being against it, while F. W. Thorath and E. L. Gies were in favor of it.

The meeting was then thrown open to a general discussion of the topic. Messrs. J. L. Crawford and W. H. Hanna being against it, while F. W. Thorath and E. L. Gies were in favor of it.

The meeting was then thrown open to a general discussion of the topic. Messrs. J. L. Crawford and W. H. Hanna being against it, while F. W. Thorath and E. L. Gies were in favor of it.

The meeting was then thrown open to a general discussion of the topic. Messrs. J. L. Crawford and W. H. Hanna being against it, while F. W. Thorath and E. L. Gies were in favor of it.

The meeting was then thrown open to a general discussion of the topic. Messrs. J. L. Crawford and W. H. Hanna being against it, while F. W. Thorath and E. L. Gies were in favor of it.

The meeting was then thrown open to a general discussion of the topic. Messrs. J. L. Crawford and W. H. Hanna being against it, while F. W. Thorath and E. L. Gies were in favor of it.

The meeting was then thrown open to a general discussion of the topic. Messrs. J. L. Crawford and W. H. Hanna being against it, while F. W. Thorath and E. L. Gies were in favor of it.

The meeting was then thrown open to a general discussion of the topic. Messrs. J. L. Crawford and W. H. Hanna being against it, while F. W. Thorath and E. L. Gies were in favor of it.

The meeting was then thrown open to a general discussion of the topic. Messrs. J. L. Crawford and W. H. Hanna being against it, while F. W. Thorath and E. L. Gies were in favor of it.

Miss J. McDonald, who has been at home for several weeks, has returned to her duties on the Edmonton Hospital staff.

Mrs. Catherine Flynn is visiting at Rose Ridge.

Miss Essie Flynn is visiting here on the part of Mrs. J. McNamara.

Mrs. Vandhaute, who has been on an extended tour through Europe, is expected to home shortly.

Mrs. Cus, who has been ill for some time, was on Saturday last removed to the general hospital, Edmonton.

Riviere Qui Barre, April 11.

VERMILION.

Bulletin News Service. Jas. Hill visited in Manville on Wednesday.

Major Brimacombe, who has been laid up by an attack of indigestion, is able to be around again.

P. Richardson, of Manville, spent Monday in town.

Miss F. Harrower, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. P. S. P. Cooper for the last two months, has returned to her home in the city.

Harry Bowtell, homestead inspector, paid a business trip to Innisnew on Wednesday.

Miss Smeaton spent Wednesday in Manville.

Ross Garland and Jas. McCallum have rented the bowling alley from Wm. Keltie for the summer.

Mr. C. Tynen, former proprietor of the Saskatchewan hotel, North Battleford, is in town.

The town debutantes amounting to $13,775 have been disposed of to A. S. Jarvis & Co., of Toronto, at 65.

Jas. McKelvie, of the Western Canada Trading Company's staff, has launched out the implement business here.

A meeting of the Creamery association was held in Rutherford's hall, Saturday afternoon.

At the meeting of the school board, Thursday, April 2nd, P. G. Pitkin resigned his position as trustee. N. Murray was elected to act as chairman of the board.

The nominations to fill the vacancy was held in town hall, Friday morning, April 10th, when West was elected by acclamation.

The marriage of Mr. A. Brett, of Leley, to Miss L. Clarke, was solemnized at the Methodist parsonage on Wednesday, Rev. Mr. Aldridge officiating.