Adventure Makes Port.

The S. S. Adventure, Capt. Couch, arrived here at 7 p.m. Saturday after a run of 36 hours from Louisburg. She met some slob ice between Cape Race and this port but it was not heavy and she got through it easily. She is laden with coal for A. J. Harvey & Co.

C. C. C. At Home.

All arrangements have been finalized for the "At Home," and all who attend are certain of a very pleasant evening. The concert programme speaks for itself; the capability of the ladies' committee is well known and the dance music needs no other notice than a reminder that it is in charge of the full brass band of the Corps.

A Big Change.

The "Continental" says: "If the question was raised as to what has been the biggest change in common American habits during the last three years, there would be strong reason for saying that it is the very general discontinuance of the practice of getting mail on Sunday. Yet it has attracted far less public attention than the thousand things more trivial. Indeed, the nation scarcely appears conscious of it. But when observers of the public trend get a little farther away from the event they may very probably mark the general Sunday closing of post offices as one of the most significant things morally that happened along about 1910. And they ought also to be able to record that the year 1912 completed the change and brought about the statutory Sunday closing of all post offices that had not previously been closed by public opinion."

No Indigestion or Sick Stomach

Gas, Heartburn, Dyspepsia and all misery in Stomach vanishes.

Take your sour, out-of-order stomach—or maybe you call it Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Gastritis or Catarrh of Stomach; it doesn't matter—take your stomach trouble right with you to your Pharmacist and ask him to open a 50-cent case of Pape's Diaprepin and let you eat one 22-grain Triangule and see if within five minutes there is left any trace of your former misery.

The correct name for your trouble is Food Fermentation—food souring; the Digestive organs become weak, there is lack of gastric juice; your food is only half digested, and you become affected with loss of appetite, pressure and fullness after eating, vomiting, nausea, heartburn, griping in bowels, tenderness in the pit of stomach, bad taste in mouth, constipation, pain in limbs, sleeplessness, belching of gas, biliousness, sick headache, nervousness, dizziness or many other similar symptoms.

If your appetite is fickle and nothing tempts you, or you belch gas, or if you feel bloated after eating, or your food lies like a lump of lead on your stomach, you can make up your mind that at the bottom of all this there is but one cause—fermentation of undigested food.

Prove to yourself in five minutes that your stomach is as good as any; that there is nothing really wrong. Stop this fermentation and begin eating what you want without fear of discomfort or misery.

Almost instant relief is waiting for you. It is merely a matter of how soon you take a little Diaprepin.

Nickel Theatre Entertainment.

By the Pathe, Vitaphone, Melic, Jerome Keon and other Companies.

A medley of merriment reigns at the Nickel Theatre. The performance includes musical specialties, a pictorial ballad, "Hurrah for our Baseball Team," and Essancy and Pathe photographs. One of the latter narrates the experience of Hank and Lank, the hungry pair, and the various scenes depict the localities familiar to visitors in search of diversion. And when they come in contact with divers of the bizarre denizens of a modern restaurant—with the modiste, danseuse, and an assortment of grisettes, flower girls, and the like—there is indeed, something doing. These various blithesome episodes are provocative of innumerable merriment numbers, in which the Nickel Orchestra, it is said, will excel themselves to-day.

Wire Replaces Axe in Germany.

The axeman is being put out of business in the forests of Germany by the introduction of a new method of felling trees by the friction of a steel wire, which is able to work its way through a 20-inch tree in about six minutes. The wire is drawn rapidly about the tree and the heat generated by the friction is sufficient to burn a thin carbonized kerf, which is both smoother and cleaner than the cut of a saw. The charcoal layer adhering to the trunk is extremely thin and allows the structure and any disease of the wood to be distinctly recognized. It enables the tree to be marked with chalk, and at the same time serves to preserve any trunks that may be left temporarily in the woods. There are many advantages in this method, notably, no waste, decreased labor, absence of all apparatus usually required, and the machine can be used in close quarters not sufficient for men choppers.

ADVERTISING THAT PAYS!

Like lots of other things, there is GOOD advertising, and there is the other kind—but the kind that you are interested in is that which brings results in its train—the kind that pays. To be sure of satisfaction in Newfoundland you must advertise in Newfoundland's leading newspaper,

M.P. Ejected by the Police

TAKES FOUR POLICEMEN.

Details of a violent scene in the New South Wales Parliament, during which a member was dragged out of the House by policemen, have reached England by the Australian mail.

The origin of the trouble was the appearance in the House of Mr. Wood, who had been suspended and who wished to make an explanation. But the Speaker, on the ground that Mr. Wood could only be heard from the bar of the House, ordered the sergeant-at-arms to remove him. Several members of the Opposition gathered round Mr. Wood to protect him. There were loud cries of "Shame!" and the disorder increased when a white-helmeted policeman entered the chamber.

All at Once. While nearly every member of the Opposition was on his feet protesting angrily, Mr. Wood struggled with the sergeant-at-arms and the policeman, and shouted "I assert my position as a representative of the people. I want to know what Parliament is coming to. Is it a place run by the police?"

Three more policemen came in and Mr. Wood was forcibly dragged out, amid cries of "Scandalous!" and "Outrageous!" Another tumult arose on Colonel Onslow complaining that Mr. Black had called him a damned snob. "Pull his nose!" a member shouted. The Speaker ordered the removal of four more members. Two walked out quietly, but the others were taken out amid noisy scenes.

Mr. Black afterwards apologized and withdrew his words. He said they were used under extreme provocation, as the colonel had just told him to go to hell.

To-Night's Lecture.

The lecture to be given to-night in the basement of Cochrane St. Church on the "Greatest Novelist of His Time, Charles Dickens," promises to be one of exceptional merit. The Rev. J. W. Bartlett, who is a deep student of English literature and a great admirer of Dickens, is the lecturer. There is so much to relate of human interest in the life of the great author that a well spent evening is assured to those who avail of this opportunity to attend.

The Windsor Hockey Team.

The names of the Windsor hockey team are as follows: Patterson, Sexton, Shaw, J. Smith, L. Smith, Burbridge, Maurice, Bennett and Chisholm. The team is regarded as a very fast one. Their colors are dark green and white. A message giving the above particulars was received yesterday by Mr. Higgins. The team expect to leave Windsor next Monday and arrive here on the 22nd. Mr. Patterson is the fast skater who beat Woods last year.

Labor Party's Aspirations.

Special to Evening Telegram. LONDON, To-day.

Since the Liberal Party was returned to power in 1905, and particularly since it has depended for political life on the support of the Labor and the Nationalist parties, more legislation of the kind, advocated by Trades Unions has been enacted than during any similar period in the history of the country. Still labor, or at least the Independent Labor Party, which is largely dominated by the Socialists, and has arranged a programme, which as last year's President, Ben Turner, admitted, contains expectations much greater than possibilities. Turner said the party had not done all that should have been done, the fault lying in the fact that it lacked numerical strength and its business now, he said, is to make it the dominating, controlling, guiding, and ruling party in the State. For the immediate future, the party's platform contains planks looking to further improvement in the conditions of labor: the Right to Work Bill, that makes it obligatory on the Government to provide work for those desiring it, the abolition of night work as far as possible, a land policy which would place workers on the land, until the nationalization of the land had been accomplished, the nationalization of railways and mines, and bills for improving workmen. The members of the party are bending their efforts to secure legislation in reversing the Osborne judgment, which ruled that Trades Unions could not devote part of their funds to support the Labor party. It has been suggested that the party should make the support of this measure the price of their support of Home Rule, and that an alliance should be formed between the Laborites and the Nationalists, looking to the passage of Home Rule and a bill to reverse that judgment. Two labor papers are about to make their appearance and a fund of $750,000 is being raised to make a start; the party has subscribed $30,000 towards this and will give both financial and other support in future. The leaders will set themselves the task of increasing the labor representation in the House of Commons from 42 to 142. With this concrete party they believe they will dominate not only home but also foreign politics.

McMurdo's Store News.

MONDAY, Feb. 12, 1912.

To those who find it difficult or even impossible to take Cod Liver Oil in its natural state, and who yet need something to build up the system, we recommend McMurdo's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil. This preparation has now been before the public for some years, and compares favorably with anything of the kind on sale. It contains half as much again as most fifty cent bottles of Emulsion, and is thus more economical. The disagreeable "re-purging" which is so unpleasant to users of cod liver oil is quite absent after taking this mixture. We have a small bottle as a trial size, but the larger one is much more profitable. Price, 25c. and 50c. a bottle.

Hill's Pills for Liver Ills for sale at McMurdo's branches. Price, 25c.

ONE bottle of Stafford's Liniment will entitle you to a guess in their competition.—Feb.12.

$25 in GOLD Given Away

The great "QUEEN LINIMENT COMPETITION" open to every Man, Woman and Child in Newfoundland. On the 1st of March, 1912, will be given away to the Four or more successful winners of this competition the sum of $25.00 in Gold.

We have on exhibition in the window of our Medical Hall, Theatre Hill, a rectangular box having an inside space as follows: length, 8 inches; breadth, 4 inches; height, 2 inches. This box is filled with Antibilious Pills of about the size of a pea. The competition is to guess as near as possible the number of pills contained in the box. The person guessing the exact number, or the nearest number of pills in the box, will receive for the first prize $10.00; second prize, $5.00; third and fourth prizes, $2.50 each.

In the event of two or more persons guessing the same number, the amount of the prize will be proportionately divided amongst the successful winners. That rule will apply to all prize winners. Every person purchasing a bottle of our "QUEEN OF LINIMENTS," whether in the city or outport towns, and mailing as the outside green wrapper of bottle, with the number of guess, together with their name and address, will have a chance of winning the grand prize.

If outport competitors who are unable to obtain this Liniment in their town will mail us Twenty Cents in Stamps, together with number of guess, name and address in full, we will forward post paid by return mail a bottle of our "QUEEN OF LINIMENTS," but with the outside wrapper removed and retained by us, as a pledge of purchase, and a due record kept of that fact. The person forwarding us the greatest number of the outside green wrappers of bottle together with their name and address will not only receive an additional prize of $5.00, but will have a chance of winning some other prizes as well, if they send a guessing number with each accompanying wrapper.

This competition will close on the 1st day of March, 1912, at 12 o'clock, noon. Estimates after that date and hour will not be considered.

On the same date the box will be opened by two reliable and competent judges, who will carefully count the number of pills, and make the awards to the successful competitors. "STAFFORD'S QUEEN OF LINIMENTS" is one of the most perfect and penetrating Liniments that can be purchased in Newfoundland, and it ought to be in every household. Once used always used.

Sightless Eyes See Again

A Remarkable Operation Performed by Dr. Magitot in Paris.

Paris, January 27.—An experiment resulting in the partial restoration of a blind eye, has been reported by Dr. Magitot, of the Academy of Science by Dr. Dastre, on behalf of Dr. Magitot, performed the experiment. He had on the cornea (the transparent membrane covering the eye) one eye of a man blind in both eyes, a piece of the cornea from a man's eye, and part of the blind vision has now returned.

Dr. Magitot had two patients suffering from eye trouble. One had completely lost his sight, the cornea of one eye had been burnt quicklime, and the scar which had obstructed vision. The other was suffering from glaucoma, a disease of the eye which causes blindness, although the cornea may be removed. One of this man's eyes was removed, but Dr. Magitot served a small portion of the cornea in a serum and kept it for eight days.

Meanwhile, in the scar on the man's cornea he cut, as it were, a peephole about the twice the size of a pinhead, and then applied the removed part of the healthy cornea, the "window pane" for this peephole. Within a few days the healthy cornea joined up. A few weeks after the bandages were taken off, a patient was able to see sufficiently to find his way about. The operation watched his patient's progress, months, and now he is able to go to the academy that one-tenth man's normal vision has been restored.

Found in Drift

Shortly before midnight Saturday the blizzard raged with peculiar violence. Head Constable Thomas Stamp, aged 65 years, in the drift in the West End, and he been left a short while, must have smothered. The man taken some liquor and was in his way home when he fell in the snow. The "Head" was assistance of other men of the station, where his clothes, were filled with snow, were taken and put near the stove to dry, the guard and the other men helped him in blankets, and put him opposite the stove, in which a big fire, he gradually came out in such weather and the fact that he had very little food all day, as he is not in the circumstances. Yesterday he feeling very unwell as the exposure he suffered.

Sweeper Damages Trains

Saturday evening in the blizzard as one of the streets was turning into Holloway St. Water Street, a sweeper coming to the 1-ter thoroughfare crashed the front of the tram and smashed it. Neither of the motor saw the cars in which they were owing to the thick snow fell, and when the cars came to rest both men narrowly escaped serious injury. The tram was smashed and will need considerable repairs.

London had 3,205 fires in 1910 a total loss of approximately $3,000, as against 14,495 in New with a loss of $8,501,000.
