Ugh! Not Calomel, Castor Oil or Salts, But Delicious "Syrup of Figs" To-Night.

This wonderful fruit laxative acts as a liver and bowel cleanser—tonic—not as an irritant. Its action is natural and gentle—no griping. It is delicious—no dreading. It is positive and prompt—no waiting.

If your stomach is sour and filled with vile gases, your head aches, or you are bilious, nervous, dizzy, half sick, your tongue coated, your thirty feet of bowels clogged with waste not properly carried off—don't wait. Surely take a teaspoonful of delicious Syrup of Figs to-night, and in the morning all constipated waste, sour bile, gases and poisons will move on and out of the system, gently but thoroughly—no griping—no nausea—no weakness. In the old days people let these matters run until they needed a large dose of physic, then they took something severe, like castor oil, salts or cathartics, that meant abuse to the bowels. These are the days of the gentle and natural—the days of HAYWARD & CO.

At the City Hall.

The weekly session of the Municipal Council was held yesterday afternoon.
James and Newman Ebsary offered land for sale to the Council on the South Side for street widening purposes. Referred to Engineer.

A communication was read from Mr.
W. W. Blackall, Supt. of Education, was taking over No. 9 Garrison Hill as a hostelry, and as it would be used stating that Bishop Spencer College for scholastic purposes only, thought it should be exempt from taxation.

Plans of annex to bakery on Colonial and Bond Street by Mr. G. Mc-Guire were approved of. He also asked permission to install motor. Referred to Engineer.

Margaret Hayse wrote denouncing the attitude of the Council in refusing to allow her to build a porch at rear of her house on Cochrane Street.
Council will visit the place on Monday.

The Premier in replying to Coun-cillor's letter re engagement of Reid Company near Job's Bridge, stated that the matter was being attended to by the Minister of Justice.

The Sanitary Committee reported on the suspension of two employees by the Supervisor and asked for their reinstatement. After a lively debate the matter was deferred on motion of Councillor Ryan.

Mr. A. O'Neill, Freshwater Road, asked for water supply for domestic purposes; as he has no sewerage, request refused.

The Engineers report was read and adopted.

THE CONDON MATTER.

When the Secretary had read the Solicitor's report on the Condon case, attached to which was a copy of Judge Conroy's judgment, Councillor Mullally moved the following resolution:

Whereas the attention of the Council has been called to the following extract taken from an article published in the Daily News of 23rd November last which purports to report the judgment of His Honor Judge Conroy in an action taken by Mr. John K. Condon against the Council for damages caused by the flooding of his cellar through the back flow from a sewer on Penwyver Road, namely—"The Council, said the Judge, have not only the law against them in this case, but a sense of justice and fair play between man and man should have prompted them to remedy Condon's injuries. If this overflow had happened to a city magnate's kitchen, no doubt the Council would be on the move to prevent a recurrence of the nuisance, as it was only poor Condon it did not matter much. But Condon although a poor mechanic, in their estimation, is entitled to as much consideration in this respect as the highest in the land."

And Whereas the Council thereupon requested its Solicitor to furnish an official report of the remarks of the learned Judge, which he did and reported as follows:—"I may say that in this action I give judgment for the Plaintiff. All the law and facts are in his favor, and the question of the amount of damages has to be considered. We consider the man is entitled to his comforts as a citizen; not because he is a poor mechanic, but if the Council had any spirit of fair play they would have treated his man to man. His rights are to be respected as much as those of any magnate.
A body of men such as the Municipal Council have no right to oppress him any more than they have to oppress me. We intend to give damages, and we have to vindicate the right of the individual against a body who see fit to treat him as if he were beneath their notice. If the plaintiff was a big merchant and suffered under like conditions, he would insist upon ameruation, but this man is entitled in law to as much respect as any other citizen. Be he rich or poor every man has equal rights in this democratic age."

Whereas the Council had been advised from time to time by its Solicitor in somewhat similar cases that the city was not responsible in such a case and this case was contested by the Council in order to have a judicial decision upon the principle of liability in the matter.

Be It Therefore Resolved that this Council respectfully but firmly protest against Judge Conroy's language as unfounded and unwarranted by the evidence or in fact at all and direct Judge Conroy to say when and where the Council has shown any partiality towards any section in the community.

Be It Further Resolved that statements such as that of Judge Conroy making it appear that people of wealth and station in the community receive more favor from the Council than the workmen and the poor, and to prejudice the Council in the carrying on of its duties and render more difficult the tasks the members have to perform and regret that Judge Conroy should have permitted himself to use such unmerited language of a body that is trying to carry out a very difficult undertaking.

Be It Also Resolved that copies of this protest be forwarded to the Executive Council and to His Excellency the Governor.

In moving the resolutions Councillor Mullally regretted that Judge Conroy should publicly insinuate that the Council was dealing in class legislation and that the poor man had not the chance of the magnate. He re- sented these imputations and though not prepared to discuss the merits or demerits of the case, he would say, however, that if what the Judge said were true, then he (Councillor Mul- lally) believed the Council was false to the trust reposed in it and should resent the insult cast upon it or re- sign forthwith. The Council, he held, relied on the advice of its officials and was blameless in this course.

The resolutions were seconded by Councillor Myrick who thought the Judge went out of his way, went out of his jurisdiction in offering such an insult, which he held the evidence in the case did not warrant. He held that the Council as a body were not cognizant of all the facts in the case, though some of the officials knew of them. He criticized the latter for their failure to remedy the matter when brought under their notice by Condon.

Councillor Ryan recorded his vote against the resolutions.

Councillor Coaker fully supported them and thought it an outrage to be branded as class legislators by one of His Majesty's Judges, especially when all were doing their best for the common good. He held that all should support the Resolutions.

Councillor Martin would not vote for the resolutions to which too much publicity had been given. He thought the Judge had a right to criticize.

Councillor Mullally regretted the absence of unanimity in the matter, thought those who did not approve the resolutions accepted the stigma cast upon them.

Mayor Ellis held that it was as regrettable that the Council was not unanimous as to have the criticism go broadcast through the press. Councillor Ryan had said that "the less said the better." He (the Mayor) did not understand him.

Councillor Ryan retorted that the man on the street knew that the resolutions were to be introduced at the meeting and Councillor Mullally said that people had a perfect right to know.

Councillor Myrick said in his opinion it was the officials who were to blame.
Councillor Martin said he always favoured the workman whose case was deserving, and also intimated that the whole particulars of Condon's case had been reported to the Council but had been overlooked.

The Mayor said he did not believe it and that he (Coun. Martin) was a supporter of Mullally.

After another hot debate between the Mayor and Councillor Martin the former stated that the usefulness of the Board was at a finish.

The motion was carried.
The meeting closed at 6.15 p.m.

The Largest Buyers of Engines

IN THE UNITED STATES PUR-CHASE FERROS.

"Since we started to use your engines in 1907 we have installed in our steel hulls and shipped to all parts of the world thousands of Ferro Engines and our experience with these engines fully convinces us that the Ferro is the best two-cycle marine engine in the world."

"The Mullins Pressed Steel Boat is sold under the strongest kind of a guarantee. That guarantee must also cover the power plant in our boat and nothing speaks higher for the Ferro Engine than the fact that we have been able to go on year after year not only increasing our sales, but in reality, doubling our sales from year to year."

"We find the Ferro Engine easier to sell in our boats for the simple reason that it is the best known and most widely used marine engine in the world. We further find it easier to keep sold for the very reason that it is properly designed, mechanically perfect and equipped with the very latest improvements known in marine engine construction."

"As a further proof of the exceptional wearing qualities of the Ferro Engine, its ability to stand up year after year without the necessity of repairs or attention, would state that though we have used thousands of Ferro Engines, our orders for repairs or parts will amount to very little as will be shown by your books."

"We consider the Ferro Engine one of the most valuable features in our launch, not only on account of the high quality of the engine itself, but from the manner in which The Ferro Machine & Foundry Co. take care of their customers."

"Wishing you a most successful sea-
