Have You Read This?

It is well worth your while, for it is a delightful story. Cloth, 50c; if mailed, 52c.

KENNEDY SQUARE

By F. Hopkinson Smith. Kennedy Square, a place of "birds and trees and flowers," is both abiding place and symbol of that small and charmingly select coterie of aristocracy in the old South. St. George Wilnot Temple, "a perfect embodiment of all that blood had bequeathed him," is the center of the group portrayed in this story and at his invitation enters also Poe at the beginning of the Poe's prominence. The love of a tempestuous youth, born a gentleman, for "the proudest and loveliest girl on earth," furnishes the theme of the tale—a love tested by pride by a duel by hospitality and by the devotion of faithful blacks; a love in the evolution of which character is deepened and chastened and strengthened.

Help the War Fund.

We have just received another large shipment of

Dickeson's Tea,

and on all sales, from now till October 31st, we will give Five per cent. to The Newfoundland Ladies' Patriotic Fund.

We haven't got to do this to sell DICKESON'S TEA because so far we haven't been able to keep the Grocery Stores stocked with it—there has been such a demand for the previous shipments we have received.

Ask your Grocer for Dickeson's Tea—If he hasn't got it, telephone us your order.

Dickeson's Tea—the beverage of the Old Country—used on all His Majesty's ships—better flavor and goes further than other teas. Buy a pound, help the War Fund and drink a better cup of tea than you've had for a long while.
