Constantinople, Dec. 21.-It appears that when the United States ship Bancroft arrived at Smyrna during the night of Dec. 4, she was greeted with a blank cannon shot and rifle bullets from the fort of Yenicale. A boat from the warship sent shorewards to ask for explanations was fired upon and compelled to return.

Thereupon the American admiral lodged a protest with the United States minister here, Dr. James B. Angell, who demanded the punishment of the guilty parties, and an apology from the Turkish government, which was given on Sunday last. In addition, two Turkish officers were dismissed and sentenced to a week's imprisonment. The entry of ships into Smyrna at night is prohibited, but on this occasion the lamps in the outer lighthouses were still burning, and the Bancroft stopped of purses plethoric.

Crystal Hall's Christmas Display.

Extensive Collection of Products of the Fine and Useful Arts -Sweeping Reductions.

As regularly as the Christmas season comes round to make homes and lives brighter and more cheerful, the attention of Londoners in general is directed to Reid's Crystal Hall. There are few homes in this city which have not been made more beautiful and convenient by the large output of this establishment. The stock is calculated to meet the requirements of lean purses as well as the taste and fastidiousness

A visit to this veritable palace is a rare treat. The windows as usual exibit some of the finest works of art in the line of bronze statuary, French China, Doulton, Royal Worcester, Crown Derby and Rudolstadt ever brought to the city. Inside is a much larger collection of similar ware, masterpieces in ivory, Parian marbie d bisque statuary of exceeding grac and symmetry, bronze jugs with the new and rich 18-carat gold finish; handsome banquet lamps and onyx top tables, French china from Limoges in five o'clock tea sets, chocolate pots, sugars, creams, fruit sets and boudoir sets. These goods are all entirely new and direct importations since the big fire sale last summer, when all ware of this kind was cleaned out. Down the center of the china department are four large tables bearing an assortment of articles, all marked down to half price. At one table the purchaser has his choice for

A big reduction has been made in the prices of lamps, of which there is a fine stock. One beautiful range, which sold at $1 25, is now sold at 75 cents; another range has been reduced from $2 50 to $1 59. Bronze banquet amps may be had from $1 98 to $25. Among the hanging lamps are some but slightly damaged by smoke, but hardly noticeable, which are cut in price from 50 to 75 per cent. A dinner set of 97 pieces may be bought for $4 50; $35 sets are reduced to $15, $75 sets to $50, $110 sets to $75. The fine goods, cut-glass ware, etc., have also been reduced in proportion. There are some dessert fish and game sets which would make handsome Christmas presents, the old tickets on some of them run $75, $60, $125, etc., while the new German occupancy of Kiao Chau, it tickets on the same goods are $35, $25 and $75 respectively. Toilet sets run from $1 50 up, and are also very much reduced in price. These generous reductions are evidently appreciated, for the store is crowded continually with purchasers. Dreadfully Nervous. Gents,-I was dreadfully nervous, and for relief took your Karl's Clover Root Tea. It quieted my nerves and strengthened my whole Nervous System. I was troubled with Constipation, oon cleansed my system so thoroughby that I rapidly regained health and strength. Mrs. S. A. Sweet, Hartford, Conn. Sold by all druggists.
