OATS REACHED HIGHEST FIGURE

Went to $1.35 Cwt. on the Local Market Today---Hay Prices Advance.

Oats struck the highest point since the last harvest on the local market this morning, when $1.35 per cwt was paid. The demand is very great, and there will be plenty of room for at least thirty loads tomorrow.

One buyer stated this morning that ne had orders for seven loads of oats. to be delivered immediately, and that he would have to ray the prices | There has been some warm bidding among the buyers, and farm ers are in "high feather." Oats brought from $1.31 to $1.35 per The latter figure is the highest

TORONTO. Toronto, March 9.-Probably the bad weather and the present exceptionally bad condition of the roads were in the main responsible for another very light run of cattle at this market today. There are those in the cattle trade, however, who say that another season is that the numsay that another season is that the number of cattle in the country is smaller than at this season for many years past. Owing to the high price of feed and before reasons, the farmers, it is said, have got rid of their stock, and in others are not carrying as much live stock as in former years. At all events, it is freely stated by those who should know that stated by those who should know that he cattle are not in the country today, the market was firm and a little higher. Drovers, of course, held for high purices, but as many of the wholesale butchers have a fair amount of supplies n hand, the demand was not so keen as might have been expected, and buyers and dealers were forced finally to get a ittle closer together. In the end prices vere firm and on an average about 100 The export trade is active and prices are firm for choice, well-finished stock. Good weights and quality are selling at $5.35 to $5.50.
