SACRED CANTATA AT HILL STREET CHURCH F. B. W. McLean.

Egerton Street Choir Augmented by 50 Voices Performs Successfully.

"A Daughter of Moab," a sacred antata, was remdered with marked success by the Egerton Street Baptist Church choir, augmented to fifty oices in the Hill Street Methodist Church on Monday night. It was one of the best choral productions presented in London this season. The success was chiefly due to the efforts of Mr. C. F. Read, conductor; Mr. T. B. Potts, organist, and Miss E. M. Read, organist.

Read, organist.

The part of Ruth, the Moabitess, was well taken by Mrs. A. Terry, who excelled in soprano selections; Miss M. Pierce, Mrs. Bonnell and Mrs. Jolliffe were prominent in the alto parts, representing Naomi; Miss G. Beeson as Orpah, and Messrs. C. F. Read and H. Johnson, baritones, were well recaived in the numbers rendered by

The cantata was divided into four parts, namely: (1) "In Exile"; (2) "Home Again"; (3) "The Harvest field"; (4) "The Harvest Home." The pathos in parts one and two was well interpreted by the singers, especially in the number "Entreat Me Not to Leave Thee." by Miss Beeson. The eave Thee," by Miss Beeson. resonance of gladness was sounded in the two concluding parts and the chorus came in for much favorable comment for its work in this part of he program. Others taking solo parts not mentioned above were Messrs Fred Dowl ing J. Tupholme, H. Lewis, William Elliott and Miss L. Petter. Rev. John Hart acted as chairman and gave a short address. At the close of the cantata refreshments were served by the ladies of
